Council Veils Reason For Shut Session

The Novato City Council called the city's police chief into a closed session last night, but for what purpose remained obscure today.

Mayor M. E. Silva, who said he was spokesman for the council and it had agreed "not to say anything," added the cryptic statement: "The status quo of last week still exists."

Councilman Everett Pozzi said the closed meeting was to discuss the qualifications of newly hired policemen. (Harold E. Sutton, Perry J. Haley and Eugene D. Clayton were added to the Novato police force Nov. 16. The council met on Nov. 21 and 28 as well as last night.)

Mayor Silva, while refusing to disclose the purpose of the executive session, said City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. "said that what we were going to discuss was legal."

City Attorney Palmer said Silva had consulted him yesterday about a proposed executive session, and "there is no question that the purpose announced to me is covered" by 54957 of the California Government Code. This is the section of the Ralph M. Brown Act which describes the only legal purposes of a secret meeting by a local governing board as being to discuss hiring, firing, or charges against an employee.

Councilman John Angeloni said the closed session discussed "personnel matters," but would not eloborate.

Councilman Howard Schoof said the discussion was on "police business." He would make no further comment.

Councilman Pozzi said the council had no opportunity to review the qualifications of proposed employees until after they were hired. He said that was the reason for closed-door discussion of three policemen who had already been on the job three weeks.

Fog Gives Hamilton Practice

Fog today provided Hamilton Air Force Base with instrument flying practice, and closed Marin County Airport.

Ground traffic, slowed, but fog lifted during the morning. The California Highway Patrol reported no injury accidents due to the fog. Harry Tollefson, manager of the county airport at Novato, said conditions were "zero-zero" there, but the murk thinned to an overcast later.

Other Bay Area airports were reported relatively clear today, unlike yesterday, when commercial airliners circled for hours, unable to land.

By 11:30 a.m. yesterday there were 31 planes aloft waiting to land at San Francisco Airport. But the fog began lifting at noon and operations were normal by 1:15 p.m.

Fog in some low areas of Marin last night was so thick that it slowed traffic to about half normal speed.

Ground fog filled the length of the Central Valley from Redding to Bakersfield this morning, and in the Los Angeles area it caused record freeway traffic jams, requiring the highway patrol to call in off-duty officers to handle more than 250 accidents. Visibility was reduced to a few feet.

FDR Jr. Cited After Accident

WASHINGTON (AP) — Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., 48, son of the late president, was cited for two traffic violations after a collision Monday, police reported today.

Capt. Albert Clark said Roosevelt, who operates the Roosevelt Automobile Co. here, was cited for colliding, and operating an automobile with a suspended license.

Marin Civic Center Move Slows Down

The exodus of Marin County departments to the Civic Center slowed down today as movers finished installation of big counters and cabinets and got ready for tomorrow's move of the superintendent of schools office.

"It will be a big, all-day job," said County Administrator Alan Bruce.

Preparation for the school department's moving day resulted accidentally in a muchneeded housecleaning, reported George L. S. Emmons, school business director.

"While packing, we found many old papers and out-of-date material which we can dispose of," Emmons said. "We've been able to do a lot of cleaning."

Emmons said the county schools office in San Rafael will remain open for "limited business" tomorrow and Friday. It will be open full-scale at the Civic Center Monday.

John Hettrich, assistant county purchasing agent, who is in charge of general moving operations, said furniture for the cafeteria at the center was to be moved this afternoon, as well as some press room furniture.

The cafeteria will open sometime next week under the direction of blind operator Clarence Sewell, formerly of Sacramento. Opening date will be announced later.

Three big departments are scheduled to move Friday: planning, public works, and welfare.

Board Adopts Go-Slow Shoreline Route Policy

No Voices Raised For Speeding Plan

By RANDALL GOULD

Not a voice was raised on behalf of Shoreline Highway speedup as an overflow crowd saw Marin County supervisors yesterday accept as their own the "wait-a-while" policy advocated by the county planning commission.

Technically the vote on motion by Supervisor Peter Behr was unanimous, though only three "ayes" were uttered.

Supervisor George Ludy, on whose Aug. 21 motion four supervisors asked the State Highway Commission to hold an early hearing on a new Shoreline route, said he wished to abstain "with the understanding that this will constitute a vote for the affirmative."

SAME POSITION

Supervisor William D. Fusselman, who seconded Ludy's Aug. 21 motion, took the same position after pleading lack of information because he did not attend the highway commission's Mill Valley session last Thursday. If he had seen the proposed routes, he said, "probably I'd ask for a delay."

Behr, who had opposed any early meeting by the commission and who was absent from the Aug. 21 meeting, saw to it that Planning Director B. D. Dobbs at last had a chance to speak and explain the planning commission's recent resolution which asked six to eight months delay before decision on route.

Planning commissioners at that time instructed him to present and explain the resolution to the state commission, but last Tuesday the supervisors forebade him to do so.

'WAIT JUSTIFIED'

Behr said both before the state group and at yesterday's meeting that the supervisors were justified in waiting to see how the state hearing came out. He then showed confidence that his colleagues had fully comprehended public feeling at the hearing—where speaker after speaker supported the planning commission view and specifically endorsed the planning resolution—by making this document the expression of the supervisors' own message to Sacramento.

Loud and prolonged applause followed the vote and it was necessary to recess to clear the room.

BEHR TAKES OVER

Behr took over from the start of the mid-afternoon deliberation, announcing to the crowd that it would "prolong matters interminably to read all the communications we have received on this."

But Clerk George Gnoss leafed through the letters announcing their import: 24 asked postponement of route selection until completion of a West Marin Master Plan and establishment of legal criteria for a "scenic highway"; 11 protested immediate realignment in even more direct fashion, and six—including the Redwood Empire Assn.—favored early decision.

Net Depot Disposal Is Denied

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A high-ranking Navy official today denied reports that a submarine net depot at Tiburon, Calif., had been declared surplus and turned over to the General Services Administration for disposal.

Rear Adm. Peter Corradi, chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, said no decision as to future disposal of the base had been reached by his office.

RECOMMENDED

Corradi said reports that a decision to dispose of the base had been made may have originated from a letter by the base commanding officer recommending such action.

The admiral said such a recommendation would require review by the chief of the Navy's Bureau of Weapons, among others, before reaching the Bureau of Yards and Docks.

(Rumors in Marin County persist that Aerojet Corp., rocket and spacecraft developers, is interested in the Navy Net Depot as a new research and testing facility.)

UNDER STUDY

William Duddleson, legislative assistant to the late Rep. Clem Miller (D-Corte Madera) said the future of the facility on San Francisco Bay was still under study by both the Navy and Interior Department.

Miller, who died in a plane crash last October, had urged use of the base for the establishment of a major marine sciences research institute. A part of the base currently is being used by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service as the site of the Pacific Marine Fishery Research Center.

Duddleson said he did not know when a final decision on future use of the base would be made but he expected it to be "soon."

Novato Weighs Annex Bid

Annexation to Novato of San Marin, the 4,200-home development on the Freitas C Ranch, would be advantageous to the developer, future residents of the area and the city.

This was the conclusion of William R. Zion of Lafayette local government consultant, in a report submitted last night to the Novato City Council.

The council on Oct. 30 authorized Zion to make a special study of the advantages and disadvantages of the proposed annexation. Zion made the incorporation study that preceded Novato's voting to become a city.

The council instructed City Administrator J. Julien Baget to send copies of the report to officials of Sunset Petroleum Corp., San Marin developers. It appointed Mayor M. E. Silva and Councilman Howard Schoof to meet with the developers' representatives.

In the 20-page report, Zion listed 11 advantages of annexation to the developer and four disadvantages. For the resident of San Marin, he listed eight advantages of annexation against one disadvantage. He listed five advantages to the city against one disadvantage.

As advantages to the developer, Zion listed governments and planning oriented to local conditions; better street cleaning and general maintenance; better policing, street lighting and parks and recreation; inclusion in federally assisted planning grant; avoidance of governmental, boundary and annexation complications; local staff services for planning, subdivision processing and building inspection; improvement to Novato Boulevard for access to the development; more flexible planned community standards; probable city maintenance of some of the proposed landscaped areas, open spaces and drainage-pedestrian equestrian ways, and a possible city park in the development.

The developer would face disadvantages of possible inadequate city staff services, possible delays in street lighting (because the city only reviews this need twice a year), possible higher taxes, and possible disruption of the development program in the change from county to city staff.

Zion suggested the city add enough members to its planning staff to handle the development and that a master plan for street lights be approved by the city.

He said that a special services district for the area would increase the taxes more than annexation to the city.

Advantages listed for resident include: a direct vote in city government, avoiding weak district government; inclusion in local planning; better policing, street cleaning and maintenance; better parks and recreation and lighting services; avoiding boundary and annexation complications, and possibility of better home loans and lower fire insurance ratings.

As disadvantages for the residents he listed that they would have less voice in some matters, primarily local parks and recreation, than would be possible through a special district for San Marin only.

For the city, Zion listed these advantages; general improvement of city services by calling for a larger scale, more specialized operation; broadened base of taxation; area planning; strengthened position in North Marin, and avoiding complications likely to result if annexation is postponed.

Wholesale Food Prices Go Up

NEW YORK (AP) — Wholesale food prices this week hit their second highest level since April, Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., said today.

The index, reflecting the total price of one pound each of 31 foods in general use, was $6.02, the highest since April 18 except for the $6.11 reached during a farmer with-holding action Sept. 4.

This week's index compares with 559 last week and 5.95 a year ago.

One Marin Unit Is Deactivated In U.S. Shakeup Of Army Reserve

A large-scale streamlining of the Army Reserve and National Guard resulted today in deactivation of one quartermaster unit in Marin and expansion of hospital units involving many Marin men.

The reorganization, announced yesterday by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, is designed to put more combat readiness into fewer reserve units.

Changes won't affect the over-all size of the reserve and National Guard strength which is currently below the 700,000 goal set by Congress.

Reshuffling includes these major shifts: Abolishing four Army Reserve and four National Guard divisions plus a net of 731 smaller units considered out of date. Placing most of the men from the abolished units into 11 new brigades, new support units and six high priority National Guard divisions. These six divisions would form an elite first line of Army Reserve forces.

Among the units to be abolished is the 94th Quartermaster Platoon of San Rafael. Most of the men in the unit completed their reserve obligations this year anyway, but those who didn't will be transferred to the two remaining Army Reserve units in Marin, said M/Sgt. F. M. Milani, unit adviser. The remaining units are Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 362nd Regiment, and Company G, 91st Division.

The only National Guard Unit in Marin, Company D of the 579th Engineer Battalion, 49th Infantry Division, will retain its reserve status "as far as we know now," said M/Sgt. Theodore L. Green, administrative technician.

Two Army Reserve hospital units in San Francisco, including about 50 Marin men, will be reorganized.

Dr. Rafael G. Dufficy Jr., Marin County medical director and reserve colonel in command of the 346th General Hospital, said his unit would be expanded to a larger Army hospital.

The unit includes about 24 enlisted men from Marin, Dufficy said.

Also to be expanded is the 820th Hospital Center, a headquarters outfit which includes personnel from Marin.

Right Of First Lady On Expense Account Is Questioned

WASHINGTON (AP) — Should Mrs. John F. Kennedy pay for her own meal at White House dinners honoring foreign dignitaries or is this a legitimate business expense of the president?

This question was raised yesterday by a St. Paul, Minn., businessman who challenged tax regulations proposed by the Internal Revenue Service to implement a new law designed to curb expense account abuses.

Testifying at public hearings on the suggested rules, Henry G. Foussard, president of the St. Paul area Chamber of Commerce, argued that wives attending business dinners have as much right to eat on the expense account as does the First Lady and wives of American ambassadors.

President John F. Kennedy and U.S. ambassadors are given special funds to help finance official entertainment.

Wesley M. Chandler, a St. Paul manufacturer of burial vaults, predicted dire results if a new tax law is interpreted as prohibiting expense deductions for the cost of having wives attend business entertainment functions.

"I do not think it was the intention of our lawmakers to create a situation whereby they encouraged a sales representative to go out for the evening with his customer without their wives. This could be an aiding factor to the moral decay of our country," Chandler said.

Other witnesses challenged the detailed record-keeping that would be required by the regulations. They claimed the proposals would impose an impossible burden and discourage business patronage of hotels, restaurants and taverns, with adverse effects on the national economy and federal revenues.

This theme was repeated today by a spokesman for the National Assn. of Manufacturers.

The NAM's general counsel, Lambert H. Miller, argued the proposed tax reporting provisions would "encourage a breakdown of the self-assessment tax system and curtail such business expenditures to a point of serious economic impact on many important sectors of the national economy."

In his prepared testimony, Miller said "the tax law was never designed to be, nor should it be utilized as, a moral code predicated upon a presumption of dishonesty or fraudulent intent."

Mortimer M. Caplin, IRS commissioner, opened the two days of hearings yesterday by announcing that some of the record keeping proposals already have been discarded. He promised reconsideration of others drawing fire from some 60 witnesses who asked to be heard.

Clarence F. McCarthy of Chicago, representing the Illinois' Manufacturers' Assn., said the proposed rules "will make liars out of conscientious taxpayers, breed disrespect for all tax laws, and lead to a breakdown in our alleged self-assessment system."

Kennedy's Success Or Failure Depends On 2 House Groups

WASHINGTON (AP) — Moves to "liberalize" two major House committees — Rules and Ways and Means — may get the new Congress off to a battling start next month.

On their success or failure depends the fate of much of President John F. Kennedy's domestic legislative program.

Administration spokesmen disclosed privately today that they would fight to keep the membership of the powerful Rules Committee at 15. The committee will revert to its original 12-man size in the new House unless the House votes for the larger number.

Membership was increased to 15 two years ago in a bid to add liberal votes and thus break the grip a conservative coalition had held for years.

The committe now is composed of 10 Democrats and five Republicans, with eight liberal Democrats normally — but not always— in control. Under the 12 man coalition of two Southern Democrats, Chairman Howard W. Smith of Virginia and William M. Colmer of Mississippi, often teamed with the four Republican members to block administration bills.

The Rules Committee is a clearing house for bills approved by other committees. Without its approval, it is extremely difficult for a bill to reach the House floor. Even the enlarged committee blocked some Kennedy-backed bills.

The enlargement was a prestige battle between the late Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas and Chairman Smith. Rayburn won by a vote of only 217 to 212.

Unless a compromise is reached to avert another fight, the outcome next month may be a toss-up.

Leaders of both warring groups privately claim they have the votes. Both concede that the result may hinge on new members elected last month. There will be 33 new Democrats and 31 new Republicans in the new house.

Conservative leaders claim the election added to their strength. Liberal spokesmen insist the opposite is true.

A key factor in the fight may be the position of the Texas members, 14 of whom supported fellow Texan Rayburn in his winning fight. Whether the new speaker, John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, can hold the Texans in line again is debatable. He also may not be able to keep in line 22 other Southern Democrats who sided with Rayburn.

The Ways and Means Committee "liberalization" movement is not tied directly to the rules controversy but has a bearing on it. The committee this year side-tracked the president's medical care bill and defeated by one vote his new unemployment compensation program.

There will be two Democratic vacancies next year and liberals are backing Reps. Pat Jennings, Virginia Democrat, and Ross Bass, Tennessee Democrat, for the seats now held by two conservative Democrats.

A caucus of all democrats will decide who gets the two choice assignments. Liberals are in a majority in the party caucus but not all of them are willing to junk the seniority system.

Addition of two liberals to the Ways and Means group probably would brighten the outlook for some major Kennedy bills but wouldn't assure clear sailing. Unless the bills dealt with revenue, they still would have to get through the Rules Committee, regardless of its size.

Goldwater On Spot In President Race

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans who want Barry Goldwater to head their 1964 presidential ticket may have shoved the Arizona senator on to a hot political spot.

While he has about a year to weigh the idea of making a bid for the presidential nomination, Goldwater eventually is going to have to decide whether the effort would be worth giving up the chance for six years more in the Senate.

It has been Goldwater's position that Arizona voters will not go along with the kind of parlay Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson managed in getting elected in 1960 both to the Senate in Texas and to the vice presidency.

Goldwater has said over and over again that he wants another term in the Senate and isn't interested in seeking the presidential nomination.

Goldwater obviously is having some second thoughts about his future course as the result of a secret meeting of party conservatives in Chicago last Sunday.

If this group expands into a national organization that demonstrates it can assemble a campaign war chest and throw its weight around, he probably would be happy to go along with it for a while to see what happens.

He indicated as much by his comment that while he still plans to run for the Senate, "things change and it's too early to be certain."

This left the road open to make some mileage for the conservative viewpoint within the party, without committing him to go allout after the nomination. The senator has said repeatedly his objective is to give the conservatives a stronger voice in the drafting of a platform and in the choice of a nominee.

Goldwater knows as well as anyone that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York is going after the presidential nomination with the kind of vigor that won't permit much dallying by potential opponents.

This means the New York governor will be primed for presidential primary contests. Goldwater feels that any venture into the primaries on his part would be tantamount to telling the Arizona voters he wasn't interested in another Senate term. He would have to make a decision on the primary matter late in 1963.

The Chicago meeting — which was as much anti-Rockefeller as it was pro-Goldwater — obviously chiseled some new crevasses in the liberal-conservative split within Republican ranks.

Involved is the contention of Southern Republican conservatives that a candidate like Goldwater could make enough inroads in Dixie, the Midwest and the Far West to get elected without the big industrial states.

The liberals—or, as many of them prefer to be called, the moderates—believe only a candidate like Rockefeller would have a chance of carrying New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Michigan and California against President F. Kennedy.

This controversy promises to continue seething until the 1964 convention picks its nominee.

Thant Warns U.N. Cannot Survive As Effective Body Without Funds

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.N. prestige faces a mortal blow if lack of funds forces the world body to abandon its Congo operation.

Secretary General Thant warned this week that the United Nations cannot survive as an effective instrument unless members lay aside their differences and help pay the 130-million-dollar Congo debt.

Chances of getting out of the red appeared remote after the Soviet Union and France told the 110-nation budgetary committee they have no intention of paying any part of the 10-million-dollar monthly effort.

There was no sign of help coming from 48 other U.N. members who have never paid anything for the upkeep of the Congo force since it was put into the field more than two years ago.

Thant has staved off financial disaster by raising about 150 million on a 200-million-dollar emergency bond issue. He warned there is only enough money left to keep the operation alive for a few more months.

Unless payments from defaulting members improve considerably, Thant will have to ask a special session of the General Assembly next spring for emergency funds to keep the 15,000-man U.N. force in the Congo.

It has become plain, however, that the assembly is still at odds over the 200-million-dollar bond issue it authorized and would be reluctant to impose another Congo assessment.

Many delegates favor Thant's plan to reunify Katanga Province with the Congo. But they feel that the staggering expense of the operation makes it imperative that the United Nations abandon its Congo commitment as soon as possible.

Nations who have faithfully carried their share of the Congo cost have grown weary of the extra burden of buying bonds because the Soviet Union and others refuse to assume any part of the load.

The United States has paid more than 114 Million dollars of the 240 million dollars the Congo force has cost since it was formed in July 1960.

There has been mounting opposition in Congress to the United States volunteering nearly 50 per cent of the Congo cost while the Soviet Union is nearly 22.5 million dollars in arrears and France more than 11 million dollars.

The United States is pressing hard for a plan to have the assembly accept the World Court's finding that payment of the Congo assessment is mandatory on the same basis as assessments for the regular U.N. budget.

The U.S. delegation has expressed confidence that the resolution will get the two-thirds majority needed for adoption by the assembly. But there is a strong chance it will also draw abstentions from most of the 50 non-paying members who don't welcome any measure which would make them legally responsible to pay.

Right Of First Lady On Expense Account Is Questioned

WASHINGTON (AP) — Should Mrs. John F. Kennedy pay for her own meal at White House dinners honoring foreign dignitaries or is this a legitimate business expense of the president?

This question was raised yesterday by a St. Paul, Minn., businessman who challenged tax regulations proposed by the Internal Revenue Service to implement a new law designed to curb expense account abuses.

Testifying at public hearings on the suggested rules, Henry G. Foussard, president of the St. Paul area Chamber of Commerce, argued that wives attending business dinners have as much right to eat on the expense account as does the First Lady and wives of American ambassadors.

President John F. Kennedy and U.S. ambassadors are given special funds to help finance official entertainment.

Wesley M. Chandler, a St. Paul manufacturer of burial vaults, predicted dire results if a new tax law is interpreted as prohibiting expense deductions for the cost of having wives attend business entertainment functions.

"I do not think it was the intention of our lawmakers to create a situation whereby they encouraged a sales representative to go out for the evening with his customer without their wives. This could be an aiding factor to the moral decay of our country," Chandler said.

Other witnesses challenged the detailed record-keeping that would be required by the regulations. They claimed the proposals would impose an impossible burden and discourage business patronage of hotels, restaurants and taverns, with adverse effects on the national economy and federal revenues.

This theme was repeated today by a spokesman for the National Assn. of Manufacturers.

The NAM's general counsel, Lambert H. Miller, argued the proposed tax reporting provisions would "encourage a breakdown of the self-assessment tax system and curtail such business expenditures to a point of serious economic impact on many important sectors of the national economy."

In his prepared testimony, Miller said "the tax law was never designed to be, nor should it be utilized as, a moral code predicated upon a presumption of dishonesty or fraudulent intent."

Mortimer M. Caplin, IRS commissioner, opened the two days of hearings yesterday by announcing that some of the record keeping proposals already have been discarded. He promised reconsideration of others drawing fire from some 60 witnesses who asked to be heard.

Clarence F. McCarthy of Chicago, representing the Illinois' Manufacturers' Assn., said the proposed rules "will make liars out of conscientious taxpayers, breed disrespect for all tax laws, and lead to a breakdown in our alleged self-assessment system."

Smog Grips London

LONDON (AP)—A dense blanket of sulphurous yellow smog gripped the British capital for the second day today, raising a threat to health and making thousands late for work.

As commuter trains crawled toward the heart of the city, health authorities warned that babies and old people should be kept at home.

"The situation is potentially serious," said a spokesman for the Medical Research Council. "Smog particularly affects the very young, the very old and people with weak hearts or chests."

NEW MARINWOOD CENTER — The Marinwood community center and firehouse, as proposed by architect Roger F. Hooper, was previewed last night at a special meeting called by the community services district. The $92,000 center shown here in architect's drawing would include a recreation building and firehouse connected by an arcade.

Plans For Marinwood Center Gain

Plans for Marinwood's community center won general approval last night of a small representation of the public and of the community services district board—despite some difference of opinion over aesthetics of architecture.

But architects failed to win unequivocal permission from the board to go ahead with the project, estimated to cost more than $170,000.

Preliminary plans for the proposed center at Lucas Valley and Miller Creek roads were unwrapped at a special CSD board meeting attended by 23 persons at Mary E. Silveira School.

The fly in the CSD board's ointment was William D. McGregor, who told his fellow directors that plans for the center "are probably all right, but I'm not convinced. I want to see more detailed plans."

McGregor finally agreed to approval of drawings for the park, the building site and floor plan. But at his request, the board withheld full approval of preliminary plans until he has a chance to study elevations.

Roger F. Hooper of Ross, architect for the building, and the other CSD directors told McGregor that preliminary plans have been reviewed during the past three or four months by the CSD board and the fire and recreation commissions.

"Maybe we should give Mr. McGregor a chance to study the plans. He is apparently not as informed as the rest of the board," said director Buel M. Synder. The others agreed.

Hooper said he would send elevation drawings of the building to the board for McGregor's examination.

McGregor agreed with objections by Wendell B. Freeman of 601 Kernberry Drive that the roof was a "compromise between a flat and a pitched roof and looks like the new Marin Municipal Water District building."

Of the $356,000 in bonds approved by Marinwood residents, $153,000 has been spent for the purchase of the 10-acre site for the center. According to the presentation by Hooper and landscape architect Theodore Osmundson, the community center and firehouse — two buildings joined by an arcade—will cost about $92,000. Landscaping, two tennis courts, pathways, sprinklers, turfing, a children's play area and drinking fountains, totaled $77,885.

Hooper said the community building would include folding partitions, a portable platform, closets, a stove and kitchen sinks but no other furnishings. There would be room for about 200 chairs.

The firehouse would include sleeping quarters and showers for four firemen.

CSD chairman Howard Council said construction may begin in February, assuming everything is approved at the Dec. 20 board meeting.

FINAL DOMINICAN CONCERT 'FINEST'

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Last night's fourth and final concert in the Dominican College fall semester concert series concluded what was possibly the finest series presented to date in Angelico Hall.

Like the previous one, it drew a full house. So enthusiastic was the audience that Dr. Giovanni Camajani and the 19-string chamber orchestra granted an encore—a rare response for an orchestra.

The program of "Music of the Italian Masters," ranging from works by classic to modern composers, could scarcely have been better chosen for variety and interest.

Under the baton of Dr. Camajani, the orchestra of San Francisco Symphony members gave a splendidly coordinated performance to which five soloists added luster.

There were many high points. For sheer tonal beauty, outstanding were the "Elegia" by Pedrollo and the adagio assai movement of Bonporti's "Concerto in F Major" with Henry Schweid as violin soloist. For virtuosity, flutist Paul Renzi was phenomenal in Vivaldi's "Concerto in D Major, Il Cardellino (The Goldfinch)," and oboist James Matheson was a delight to hear in the "Concerto in C Minor For Oboe and Strings," by Marcello. For charming appearance and musicianship, soprano Muriel Watkin and contralto Marjery Tede were notable in Durante's "Dormono L'Aure Estive."

Finally, for a novel musical experience, Margola's "Sinfonia in Quattro Tempi," especially the scherzo-like third movement, was like discovering a pungent but flavorsome spice.

TED WATKINS
Latest Congress Candidate

4th Demo Hat Tossed Into Ring

Ted Watkins, Mendocino County tax consultant and rancher, has become the fifth to take out nominating papers as a candidate for Congress in the Jan. 22 special election.

Watkins, 52, who twice before has been a candidate on the Democratic ticket, paid his $225 filing fee in Ukiah. His home is near Mendocino City where he maintains his tax office. He operates a 1,200-acre ranch on the Eel River near Garberville.

Other Democrats already in the race are William Grader of Fort Bragg, Nick Kobseff of Ignacio and John C. Stuart of Auburn and Novato. Only Republican is Donald H. Clausen of Crescent City.

LOST TWICE

Watkins twice before sought the congressional seat. He ran unsuccessfully in the Democratic primaries of 1956 and 1958.

"The impossible tax burden that is today facing the public is and must be the concern of every conscientious voter of the district," Watkins declared.

"I am making this my concern and my knowledge and experience with many various taxpayers and their business problems qualifies me as the aspirant best fitted to represent this district in Congress."

TAX FIGHT

For a dozen years he has been fighting the Internal Revenue Service's ruling against the deductibility of the cost of going to and from work. In 1954 he was arrested on a federal indictment charging him with counseling taxpayers to defraud the government by deducting such costs. Early in 1955 he was tried and exonerated.

Democrats favoring Grader's candidacy will gather at a $50 fund-raising reception for him Saturday in Santa Rosa preceding a $5 "victory dinner" honoring Gov. Edmund G. Brown in the Veterans Memorial Building. The reception will be held at El Rancho Motel.

Peter Allen Smith, Muriel Appenzeller and Mrs. Vera L. Schultz are in charge of dinner ticket sales in Marin County.

Convict Who Cut Throat Gaining

San Quentin prisoner Robert Swanson, 26, of Los Angeles, who slashed his throat with a razor blade in an attempt to take his life Monday, was in satisfactory condition at the prison hospital today.

Swanson, serving one year to life for burglary, inflicted a gash that required 19 stitches.

Five other inmates with knife wounds received in a fight last Friday in a prison lavatory continued to improve in the hospital today, but prison officials were still unable to get any explanation or reason for the battle.

Anti-Digit Dialers File Against PT&T

The Anti-Digit Dialing League, with headquarters in Sausalito, today filed with the California Public Utilities Commission a complaint asking that Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. be ordered to cease and desist in its "incipient scheme" to eliminate phone number prefix letters.

The complaint also asks that prefix letters already eliminated from phone numbers in some parts of the state—including Marin—be ordered returned.

Hiram W. Johnson III, Belvedere attorney and president of the ADDL, joined San Francisco attorneys Belli, Ashe and Gerry in filing the complaint.

Johnson said he planned to ask the City of Sausalito, which has gone on record asking the telephone company to return its EDgewater exchange designation, to join in the complaint.

Ralph Bell, PUC public relations officer, said the complaint has been received but not officially filed this morning. He said the telephone company will be given time to answer, and, if the commission so rules, a hearing will be set.

The commission last week set two hearings for January in Los Angeles on similar cases, Bell disclosed.

The complaint charges that PT&T has "misled the public by false claims" that it has to convert to all-number dialing to keep up with the rapid growth of telephones.

It also charges that:

The change-over will not save money; company officials have "repeatedly refused to discuss this new scheme responsibly and to present valid reasons for it"; the change-over will "impair communication and commerce between businessmen and merchants and their clients and customers," and that a string of seven or eight numbers is more difficult to learn and harder to remember than the letter-number combination and causes many more mistakes in dialing.

ADDL states that PT&T "has a duty to us, the public, not to force upon us needless changes that we do not want, for secret reasons."

The commission has set Dec. 12 at 10 a.m. as date for a public pre-hearing conference to discuss need for future hearings on rates and services of the telephone company. The ADDL complaint may or may not be discussed at that time, Bell said.

HIGHWAY

"At least 30 or 40 people have called me, apparently all against any hasty action," said Behr.

It was brought out that the communications for delay included many petitions with varying numbers of signers, the Marin Garden Club having mustered 55.

Three members of the audience then spoke for delay, followed by Dobbs' presentation on invitation of Behr, after which four more insisted on being heard for delay before Chairman Walter R. Castro could call for board action.

Sole fireworks occurred during the first presentation. M. E. Siegel of the Homestead Valley Improvement Club, after first demanding "Is this the same kind of meeting as last Thursday?" declared that a freeway type of West Marin road would be "a desecration."

Siegel built up a considerable head of steam and finally said that supervisors unwilling to do what the voters wish "can be recalled."

"I'm not going to sit here and be threatened," thundered Fusselman, whereupon Siegel withdrew his remark.

John W. Bissinger of Kentfield declared that the urge toward haste seemed "very suspicious" and said that those who favored early decision were "mostly commercial interests." Thomas J. Storer, a West Marin neighbor of Ludy's, said there is unanimous public opposition to decision now.

Behr then intervened to say the time had finally arrived when Dobbs might explain the planners' resolution with its background.

"This is a classic example of anticlimactic speech," said Dobbs. He said he couldn't agree with the state commission view that a route could be laid out without consideration of road design, pointing out as example that "with maximum grade of 6 per cent a road has to go one way, but if 10 per cent is allowed it can go to a different location.

He suggested perhaps the Shoreline might become the basically scenic route, with major traffic to Point Reyes National Seashore flowing over a high-speed road from the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge to Point Reyes Station.

Behr said that "the Achilles heel of the (freeway) project is obvious" in that even heavy recreational use can be accomplished with much less in the way of high-speed thoroughfares than is needed for permanent residents' needs.

A four-lane highway, he said, "can only be justified by the assumption that the maximum holding capacity of the land will be reached by 1980, which is a proposition not defensible in terms of common sense."

Behr declared that "what upsets me most" is the prospect of early condemnation for a four-lane highway even though only two lanes are built since "hillsides will be scarred, ravines filled, perhaps for no purpose." Therefore, he said, "as a local body responsive to local public opinion we should act."

Before he could put any motion, four more were heard from the audience and both Fusselman and Ludy expressed their intention to abstain.

Supervisor William Gnoss said he is "a great believer in master plans . . . If we're going to have a West Marin Master Plan let's wait and see what it is."

It was clear enough that the motion would be for delay but Behr startled many by moving "adoption of the planning commission resolution, omitting its instruction to Mr. Dobbs." The instruction of course related only to the state meeting already past.

Gnoss seconded the motion and Castro voted for it as loud applause broke out.

There was initial misunderstanding of Ludy's postion and a recording of his vote as "yes," later corrected the abstention, due to his pains to point out that abstention in effect was an affirmative vote.

Ludy recalled 57 years of West Marin residence and said he personally would favor a two-lane scenic highway, "but at present this has not been defined. If we act now, legally we must take action on a freeway, so I am going to abstain with the understanding that this will count as affirmative."

"I'm not going to vote today because I haven't seen the plans," said Fusselman.

ANNEX

Disadvantages to the city would be necessary staff expansion and immediate city expenditures required.

He then asked several questions: will the city immediately approve the San Marin master plan and subdivision agreement as adopted by the county? Can the city make the transition from county to city subdivision processing by next July 1 (when the city takes over subdivision processing from the county)? How far will the city go in obtaining the necessary staff? Will the city give approval in advance for the street lighting plans and install the lights immediately?

Zion estimated that San Marin annexation would cost the City of Novato $199,000 per year when the area is developed but bring $261,248 in additional revenues. Next year, with 500 lots being subdivided and 200 homes built, cost would exceed revenue, he said, estimating city outlay at $51,000 for extra help, with revenue from fees to total $49,050.

Even if it is not annexed, "San Marin will be a part of Novato in many ways — major road access, downtown commercial development and parking, libraries, etc. It will add to the city's traffic parking, policing, drainage, recreational and community facilities load," Zion wrote.

Mail 'Thrown Around'

Mail was reported to have been "rifled and thrown around" today from the mail box of Donald Townsend of 700 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley, according to Mill Valley police.

Sausalito Denies Ark Workshop

Sculptor Barney West, who has moved his family off the sunken vessel Phoenix to Corte Madera, last night was denied permission by the Sausalito City Council to continue using the old hulk for a workshop.

Councilmen objected to the idea on the grounds that it would be a police and fire problem and potential source of injury lawsuits against the city.

City Mgr. Charles A. Brown was authorized to raze or otherwise destroy the Phoenix by Dec. 10.

The Sausalito Council also:

1. Denied a request by John S. Dupen of 50 Cable Road that he be allowed to delay making driveway improvements until Cable Road is regraded and repaved.

2. Delayed consideration of bids on a tractor loader until City Mgr. Charles A. Brown, absent due to illness, is present.

3. Approved a request for power pole realignment in Buena Vista subdivision, subject to revisions suggested by the city engineer and aimed at eventually putting all utilities underground.

4. Approved, subject to formal draft, a resolution opposing any legislative action to permit use of political party labels in city elections.

5. Adjourned until 8 p.m. Dec. 18.

NOVATO

was out of town today. Chief McLaren was busy on police work and unavailable for comment. Likewise unavailable was City Councilman Lucile Cannon.

The council sent the secretary who keeps its minutes home before going into the closed session.

In Hospital

Gilbert Woodrow Morgan, 45, of 45 Hart Avenue, San Rafael, was in satisfactory condition at San Rafael General Hospital today after collapsing, apparently from a heart attack, at Fourth and B Streets at 2:26 p.m. yesterday.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market clung to an upside edge at the close today but sharp profit taking erased many gains. Trading was heavy.

The market resumed its rally from the start and big blocks of blue chips flashed across the tape, reflecting very eager investment demand. The ticker tape lagged behind transactions and it looked like the heaviest trading in several weeks.

Traders moved in ruthlessly to cash their gains and the list was staggered but kept enough plus signs to remain ahead, apparently, on average.

Volume for the day was estimated at 6.8 million shares compared with 5.21 million yesterday.

Car Running, So Teeners Take It

Five San Rafael teen-agers, four girls and a boy, were arrested by Sausalito police in a car taken from a parking lot at Third Street and Lootens Place in San Rafael last night.

They had a strange explanation.

Two of the youths, a girl 17, and a boy 16, said they saw a man stop the car in the middle of Fourth Street near the J.C. Penney Co. store. The man left the engine running, got into another car with three other men and drove off, they said. So the boy and girl decided to move the abandoned auto.

At Lincoln Avenue, they picked up three other girls—two aged 13 and the third 14—and the 17-year-old girl then drove to Sausalito.

Sausalito officers Ted Zink and Harvey Zion spotted the car at 8:05 p.m., a few minutes after San Rafael police broadcast a description of it.

The youths were sent to juvenile hall, facing charges of auto theft.

TED WATKINS
Latest Congress Candidate

4th Demo Hat Tossed Into Ring

Ted Watkins, Mendocino County tax consultant and rancher, has become the fifth to take out nominating papers as a candidate for Congress in the Jan. 22 special election.

Watkins, 52, who twice before has been a candidate on the Democratic ticket, paid his $225 filing fee in Ukiah. His home is near Mendocino City where he maintains his tax office. He operates a 1,200-acre ranch on the Eel River near Garberville.

Other Democrats already in the race are William Grader of Fort Bragg, Nick Kobseff of Ignacio and John C. Stuart of Auburn and Novato. Only Republican is Donald H. Clausen of Crescent City.

LOST TWICE

Watkins twice before sought the congressional seat. He ran unsuccessfully in the Democratic primaries of 1956 and 1958.

"The impossible tax burden that is and must be the concern of every conscientious voter of the district," Watkins declared.

"I am making this my concern and my knowledge and experience with many various taxpayers and their business problems qualifies me as the aspirant best fitted to represent this district in Congress."

TAX FIGHT

For a dozen years he has been fighting the Internal Revenue Service's ruling against the deductibility of the cost of going to and from work. In 1954 he was arrested on a federal indictment charging him with counseling taxpayers to defraud the government by deducting such costs. Early in 1955 he was tried and exonerated.

Democrats favoring Grader's candidacy will gather at a $50 fund-raising reception for him Saturday in Santa Rosa preceding a $5 "victory dinner" honoring Gov. Edmund G. Brown in the Veterans Memorial Building. The reception will be held at El Rancho Motel.

Peter Allen Smith, Muriel Appenzeller and Mrs. Vera L. Schultz are in charge of dinner ticket sales in Marin County.

Convict Who Cut Throat Gaining

San Quentin prisoner Robert Swanson, 26, of Los Angeles, who slashed his throat with a razor blade in an attempt to take his life Monday, was in satisfactory condition at the prison hospital today.

Swanson, serving one year to life for burglary, inflicted a gash that required 19 stitches.

Five other inmates with knife wounds received in a fight last Friday in a prison lavatory continued to improve in the hospital today, but prison officials were still unable to get any explanation or reason for the battle.

Anti-Digit Dialers File Against PT&T

The Anti-Digit Dialing League, with headquarters in Sausalito, today filed with the California Public Utilities Commission a complaint asking that Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. be ordered to cease and desist in its "incipient scheme" to eliminate phone number prefix letters.

The complaint also asks that prefix letters already eliminated from phone numbers in some parts of the state—including Marin—be ordered returned.

Hiram W. Johnson III, Belvedere attorney and president of the ADDL, joined San Francisco attorneys Belli, Ashe and Gerry in filing the complaint.

Johnson said he planned to ask the City of Sausalito, which has gone on record asking the telephone company to return its EDgewater exchange designation, to join in the complaint.

Ralph Bell, PUC public relations officer, said the complaint has been received but not officially filed this morning. He said the telephone company will be given time to answer, and, if the commission so rules, a hearing will be set.

The commission last week set two hearings for January in Los Angeles on similar cases, Bell disclosed.

The complaint charges that PT&T has "misled the public by false claims" that it has to convert to all-number dialing to keep up with the rapid growth of telephones.

It also charges that:

The change-over will not save money; company officials have "repeatedly refused to discuss this new scheme responsibly and to present valid reasons for it"; the change-over will "impair communication and commerce between businessmen and merchants and their clients and customers," and that a string of seven or eight numbers is more difficult to learn and harder to remember than the letter-number combination and causes many more mistakes in dialing.

ADDL states that PT&T "has a duty to us, the public, not to force upon us needless changes that we do not want, for secret reasons."

The commission has set Dec. 12 at 10 a.m. as date for a public pre-hearing conference to discuss need for future hearings on rates and services of the telephone company. The ADDL complaint may or may not be discussed at that time, Bell said.

"At least 30 or 40 people have called me, apparently all against any hasty action," said Behr.

It was brought out that the communications for delay included many petitions with varying numbers of signers, the Marin Garden Club having mustered 55.

Three members of the audience then spoke for delay, followed by Dobbs' presentation on invitation of Behr, after which four more insisted on being heard for delay before Chairman Walter R. Castro could call for board action.

Sole fireworks occurred during the first presentation. M. E. Siegel of the Homestead Valley Improvement Club, after first demanding "Is this the same kind of meeting as last Thursday?" declared that a freeway type of West Marin road would be "a desecration."

Siegel built up a considerable head of steam and finally said that supervisors unwilling to do what the voters wish "can be recalled."

"I'm not going to sit here and be threatened-" thundered Fusselman, whereupon Siegel withdrew his remark.

John W. Bissinger of Kentfield declared that the urge toward haste seemed "very suspicious" and said that those who favored early decision were "mostly commercial interests." Thomas J. Storer, a West Marin neighbor of Ludy's, said there is unanimous public opposition to decision now.

Behr then intervened to say the time had finally arrived when Dobbs might explain the planners' resolution with its background.

"This is a classic example of anticlimactic speech," said Dobbs. He said he couldn't agree with the state commission view that a route could be laid out without consideration of road design, pointing out as example that "with maximum grade of 6 per cent a road has to go one way, but if 10 per cent is allowed it can go to a different location.

He suggested perhaps the Shoreline might become the basically scenic route, with major traffic to Point Reyes National Seashore flowing over a high-speed road from the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge to Point Reyes Station.

Behr said that "the Achilles heel of the (freeway) project is obvious" in that even heavy recreational use can be accomplished with much less in the way of high-speed thoroughfares than is needed for permanent residents' needs.

A four-lane highway, he said, "can only be justified by the assumption that the maximum holding capacity of the land will be reached by 1980, which is a proposition not defensible in terms of common sense."

Behr declared that "what upsets me most" is the prospect of early condemnation for a four-lane highway even though only two lanes are built since "hillsides will be scarred, ravines filled, perhaps for no purpose." Therefore, he said, "as a local body responsive to local public opinion we should act."

Before he could put any motion, four more were heard from the audience and both Fusselman and Ludy expressed their intention to abstain.

Supervisor William Gnoss said he is "a great believer in master plans . . . If we're going to have a West Marin Master Plan let's wait and see what it is."

It was clear enough that the motion would be for delay but Behr startled many by moving "adoption of the planning commission resolution, omitting its instruction to Mr. Dobbs." The instruction of course related only to the state meeting already past .

Gnoss seconded the motion and Castro voted for it as loud applause broke out.

There was initial misunderstanding of Ludy's postion and a recording of his vote as "yes," later corrected the abstention, due to his pains to point out that abstention in effect was an affirmative vote.

Ludy recalled 57 years of West Marin residence and said he personally would favor a two-lane scenic highway, "but at present this has not been defined. If we act now, legally we must take action on a freeway, so I am going to abstain with the understanding that this will count as affirmative."

"I'm not going to vote today because I haven't seen the plans," said Fusselman.

Disadvantages to the city would be necessary staff expansion and immediate city expenditures required.

He then asked several questions: will the city immediately approve the San Marin master plan and subdivision agreement as adopted by the county? Can the city make the transition from county to city subdivision processing by next July 1 (when the city takes over subdivision processing from the county)? How far will the city go in obtaining the necessary staff? Will the city give approval in advance for the street lighting plans and install the lights immediately?

Zion estimated that San Marin annexation would cost the City of Novato $199,000 per year when the area is developed but bring $261,248 in additional revenues. Next year, with 500 lots being subdivided and 200 homes built, cost would exceed revenue, he said, estimating city outlay at $51,000 for extra help, with revenue from fees to total $49,050.

Even if it is not annexed, "San Marin will be a part of Novato in many ways — major road access, downtown commercial development and parking, libraries, etc. It will add to the city's traffic parking, policing, drainage, recreational and community facilities load," Zion wrote.

Mail 'Thrown Around'

Mail was reported to have been "rifled and thrown around" today from the mail box of Donald Townsend of 700 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley, according to Mill Valley police.

Sausalito Denies Ark Workshop

Sculptor Barney West, who has moved his family off the sunken vessel Phoenix to Corte Madera, last night was denied permission by the Sausalito City Council to continue using the old hulk for a workshop.

Councilmen objected to the idea on the grounds that it would be a police and fire problem and potential source of injury lawsuits against the city.

City Mgr. Charles A. Brown was authorized to raze or otherwise destroy the Phoenix by Dec. 10.

The Sausalito Council also:

1. Denied a request by John S. Dupen of 50 Cable Road that he be allowed to delay making driveway improvements until Cable Road is regraded and repaved.

2. Delayed consideration of bids on a tractor loader until City Mgr. Charles A. Brown, absent due to illness, is present.

3. Approved a request for power pole realignment in Buena Vista subdivision, subject to revisions suggested by the city engineer and aimed at eventually putting all utilities underground.

4. Approved, subject to formal draft, a resolution opposing any legislative action to permit use of political party labels in city elections.

5. Adjourned until 8 p.m. Dec. 18.

NOVATO

was out of town today. Chief McLaren was busy on police work and unavailable for comment. Likewise unavailable was City Councilman Lucile Cannon.

The council sent the secretary who keeps its minutes home before going into the closed session.

In Hospital

Gilbert Woodrow Morgan, 45, of 45 Hart Avenue, San Rafael, was in satisfactory condition at San Rafael General Hospital today after collapsing, apparently from a heart attack, at Fourth and B Streets at 2:26 p.m. yesterday.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market clung to an upside edge at the close today but sharp profit taking erased many gains. Trading was heavy.

The market resumed its rally from the start and big blocks of blue chips flashed across the tape, reflecting very eager investment demand. The ticker tape lagged behind transactions and it looked like the heaviest trading in several weeks.

Traders moved in ruthlessly to cash their gains and the list was staggered but kept enough plus signs to remain ahead, apparently, on average.

Volume for the day was estimated at 6.8 million shares compared with 5.21 million yesterday.

Car Running, So Teeners Take It

Five San Rafael teen-agers, four girls and a boy, were arrested by Sausalito police in a car taken from a parking lot at Third Street and Lootens Place in San Rafael last night.

They had a strange explanation.

Two of the youths, a girl 17, and a boy 16, said they saw a man stop the car in the middle of Fourth Street near the J.C. Penney Co. store. The man left the engine running, got into another car with three other men and drove off, they said. So the boy and girl decided to move the abandoned auto.

At Lincoln Avenue, they picked up three other girls—two aged 13 and the third 14—and the 17-year-old girl then drove to Sausalito.

Sausalito officers Ted Zink and Harvey Zion spotted the car at 8:05 p.m., a few minutes after San Rafael police broadcast a description of it.

The youths were sent to juvenile hall, facing charges of auto theft.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

There Are A Lot Of New Things Going On Along Fourth Street

Along Fourth Street: Just noticed that the new Bank of Marin is only two doors from Paul Chene's pawnbroking shop. Convenient—if you can't talk Murray-Kirchner-Nieri into floating a loan you might hock something. Or vice versa . . . Not only remodeling at Fourth and E going on for the new Redwood National Bank, but business arcade construction in the lot adjoining. This will fill up the entire block, both sides, that was once burned out—except for one small lot . . . Too bad Ron Varney's Jr. Esquire has closed . . .

Hoy's has been showing the new Magnavox organs put on the market a few months ago. No tubes—all transistors; double keyboard; with or without chord section. Make good Christmas presents. One purchaser bought the small model for his trailer . . . Rue de la Paix that barely got under way this year has closed . . . New manager at Vic Tanny's Gym is Jose Chaco from Guam.

LAND - O - TOOLS, recently opened venture of Mike Lando at 24 La Goma Avenue, may look like a division of the Egger and Son Nursery but it's his own business devoted to the rental, service and sale of all kinds of tools. These include lawnmowers, chain saws, power workshop tools, electric jackhammers, floor polishers, sanders and other equipment—all new, he says.

Lando was previously with his father at Lando Products, Sausalito in charge of electric and quality control and experimental work.

Open seven days a week.

ANOTHER Lando man, Roy Briel, has taken over the retail store of "The Brothers" at 6 Locust Avenue, Mill Valley and changed the name to Locust Liquors. This does not include the adjoining tavern at 8 Locust Avenue. Briel was with Lando Products 22 years.

CLOSING FOR HOLIDAYS. Valley Hardware, 247 Shoreline Highway, Tamalpais Valley will shut its doors Saturday night, Dec. 22, and keep locked until Jan. 3. Bud and Edna Toland who are generally on the job everyday of the week will make the most of the occasion for a Canada vacation.

DON PURDY who screens applicants in Marin for Automation Institute courses is looking for more young males interested in entering this specialized field. Of 32 trainees recently placed in jobs, 29 of them were girls.

Many opportunities in computer planning and programming are open for young men who may want to bypass the full college route (or should), with good pay and chances for advancement at stake, he says.

And the complaint is that automation will put people out of work!

Appetizers
made temptingly good with...

Lindsay RIPE OLIVES

LINDSAY OLIVE PINWHEELS

1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
½ cup Lindsay Pitted Ripe Olives
½ tsp. prepared mustard
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 stick prepared pastry pie crust

Slice olives and chop fine. Mix cheese, olives, mustard and Worcestershire sauce together. Prepare pastry, roll thin, cut into two rectangles about 5 by 7 inches. Spread with olive-cheese mixture and roll as for jelly roll. Chill thoroughly. When ready to serve, slice ½ inch thick, bake in hot oven (400 degrees) for 15 to 20 minutes. Good piping hot, but delicious cold also.

Brown Aide Under Fire Takes Leave

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Brig. Gen. Hjrold L. Hjelm has taken a leave of absence from his post as Gov. Edmund G. Brown's liaison officer with the National Guard.

The announcement was made by Brown's executive secretary, Arthur L. Alarcon yesterday.

He said Hjelm advised him by letter he was taking the leave because of charges of "misconduct in my personal affairs."

However, Hjelm insisted: "I am innocent of any wrong doing, but that fact must be officially established. I feel that until I have legally established that the present charges were untrue that I should be in a leave status."

The decision followed disclosure that Dist. Atty. John M. Price is investigating a charge of fraud against the long-time guard official.

MARIN'S LARGEST, MOST COMPLETE DEPARTMENT STORE

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

There Are A Lot Of New Things Going On Along Fourth Street

Along Fourth Street: Just noticed that the new Bank of Marin is only two doors from Paul Chene's pawnbroking shop. Convenient—if you can't talk Murray-Kirchner-Nieri into floating a loan you might hock something. Or vice versa . . . Not only remodeling at Fourth and E going on for the new Redwood National Bank, but business arcade construction in the lot adjoining. This will fill up the entire block, both sides, that was once burned out—except for one small lot . . . Too bad Ron Varney's Jr. Esquire has closed . . .

Hoy's has been showing the new Magnavox organs put on the market a few months ago. No tubes—all transistors; double keyboard; with or without chord section. Make good Christmas presents. One purchaser bought the small model for his trailer . . . Rue de la Paix that barely got under way this year has closed . . . New manager at Vic Tanny's Gym is Jose Chaco from Guam.

LAND - O - TOOLS, recently opened venture of Mike Lando at 24 La Goma Avenue, may look like a division of the Egger and Son Nursery but it's his own business devoted to the rental, service and sale of all kinds of tools. These include lawnmowers, chain saws, power workshop tools, electric jackhammers, floor polishers, sanders and other equipment—all new, he says.

Lando was previously with his father at Lando Products, Sausalito in charge of electric and quality control and experimental work.

Open seven days a week.

LANGUAGE LESSON—Arturo Baca, a blind teacher at Terra Linda High School, tells students Peter Trusko and Nancy Rikles how to pronounce a sentence in Spanish. (Independent-Journal photo)

PROVES BLIND CAN TEACH

Arturo Baca Swings White Cane Into Teaching Spanish Courses

By LOREN MacARTHUR

A white cane can be swung with a good deal of aplomb. Artura Baca of Terra Linda uses his each day to walk to Terra Linda High School, where he teaches Spanish.

Baca is one of 16 blind teachers in California who teach children able to see. A visitor to his classroom is struck chiefly by the fact that he is so well prepared with his lesson he doesn't need to refer to book or notes.

His apparent ease in the classroom gives no indication of his disheartening attempts to get there. Baca, now 32, hunted a job in schools from Santa Rosa to Bakersfield for two years before he was hired by the San Rafael High School District last year to teach at Terra Linda.

Baca, who was born in Santa Fe, N.M., lost his eyesight slowly, over a number of years. In 1954 he was declared "legally blind" and refused a driver's license. By then he had already earned a degree in agriculture at California State Polytechnic College and worked for United Fruit Co. The company assigned him to a plantation in Central America, where he learned Spanish.

"I didn't know what was coming. I had a premonition that something drastic would happen, but nothing like having to accept total blindness," he said. "But the blindness kept on coming."

The doctors called it "deterioration of the retina," cause uncertain and cure unknown.

Not until 1956, when he began attending the Orientation Center for the Adult Blind in San Francisco, was Baca able to come to terms with his blindness.

"Their philosophy was that you're still the same person. You don't lose your individuality. You must adapt to new ways, but don't let it hold you back," Baca said.

In the fall of that year Baca entered University of California at Davis to take a teaching credential in agriculture. The hopelessness of getting a job in that field became apparent to Baca as administrators talked about the "liability for the school." Baca went to Spain for two years to study Spanish language and civilization at the University of Valencia so he would be qualified to teach Spanish.

His two-year search for a job began when he returned to California. "Some of the interviews were very disheartening," Baca said in understatement. "Some of the principals didn't even identify themselves to me. They just asked how I could correct papers."

Webster Wilson, principal at Terra Linda High, was not that type of principal. He recommended hiring Baca.

"We needed a Spanish teacher and he had an excellent background in Spanish," said Wilson.

Baca thus became the second sightless teacher in San Rafael High School District. Fletcher Hicks, a San Franciscan who is accompanied to classes by his guide dog, is now in his third year on the faculty of San Rafael High School. He teaches English.

Baca had met the girl he wanted to marry in Spain. "But you can't ask a woman to marry you if you can't support her," he said. "As soon as I signed the contract, I got married." Baca and his wife, Mary, live in the Terra Linda Garden Apartments off Highway 101.

Saturday Baca led the annual Conference of Blind Teachers at University of California in Berkeley. Blind teachers, including one who teaches art, gathered to discuss their problems and how they can help others who are blind and want to teach. (A state law, repealed only in 1945, made it illegal for a blind person to teach.)

Baca walks freely about his classroom while teaching, orienting himself by the sound of several easily distinguished voices. He has used a Braille writer to record all lessons; his materials are taped also. In one class a student who hopes to become a Spanish teacher, Mary Candace (Candy) Holmes, takes roll and assists Baca. He writes his own tests and prepares a master sheet so others may do the correcting.

When a new student in the class asked who proctored tests, another student replied: "He trusts us." The discipline problem is no greater nor less than it would be in any class.

As for limitations in his life, Baca recalled one: "I wouldn't drive a car.

"In 1950, when I could still see," he concluded, "I wanted to be a teacher. But everyone in the field I spoke with said I should stay away because my eyesight wasn't good enough."

State Calls Bids For Two Marin Highway Projects

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The state division of highways has called for bids for two Marin County highway projects.

Bids will be opened in Sacramento Jan. 9 for both jobs.

One project includes installing 1.9 miles of median barrier on U.S. 101 between Willow Avenue and the north end of the San Rafael Viaduct, for which $120,000 is available.

The other work calls for installation of two new air compressors at more convenient locations on the Richmond-San Rafael bridge. The compressors are used in sand blasting, painting and propelling painting scaffolds on the bridge. A total of $75,000 is available for the work.

Drunken Driver Gets $166 Fine

Arthur John Wilmes, 42, of 661 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, must pay $166 fine and remain on six months' probation for drunken driving.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court sentenced Wilmes yesterday for driving while intoxicated along Bolinas Avenue in Fairfax last Saturday.

YULE DECORATION CONTEST ON AGAIN

The Independent-Journal and San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce again this year will sponsor a Christmas home decoration contest throughout Marin County.

The 14th annual contest was announced jointly today by Wishard A. Brown, assistant publisher of the I-J, and Rudy L. Tulipani, events chairman of the jaycees.

The contest is open to all residents of Marin County. It is for Christmas decoration of homes only.

First prize will be $50; second, $25; third, $15, and fourth, $10. Entries close Dec. 19. Contestants must fill out the official entry blank which will appear in announcement advertisements in the I-J beginning Thursday. Entries should be mailed to Decoration Contest, Junior Chamber of Commerce, 801 B Street, San Rafael.

Homes entered will be judged between 6 and 9 p.m. on Dec. 20, 21 and 22. Winners will be announced in the Independent-Journal of Monday, Dec. 24.

Brown and Tulipani stressed that judging will be on the basis of originality and ingenuity rather than cost and elaborateness.

Air Officer's Son Joins U.S. Navy

William Harold Long Jr., son of Capt. and Mrs. William H. Long of 459 Bolling Drive., Hamilton Air Force Base, and Richard Adrian Moghadam, son of T/Sgt. and Mrs. Bahman Moghadam of 95 Medway Drive, San Rafael, enlisted in the Navy this week at the San Rafael recruiting station.

They were sent to the Naval Training Center in San Diego for 10 weeks of recruit training.

GRAND MASTER — Peter Rebensdorf, grand master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in California, will be honored guest of the Mill Valley Lodge at 8 p.m. today at Odd Fellows Temple, 142 Throckmorton Avenue. Rebensdorf, who lives in San Jose, will speak at the meeting, according to Ray Wright, Mill Valley secretary.

Choose Toys Carefully, Health Officer Warns

A Christmas toy can be dangerous and even fatal unless it is carefully chosen, Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, Marin County health officer, warns.

Accidents are the major cause of death and injury to children, and toys are often the cause of accidents, Dr. Albrecht says. Here are some of her suggestions for the selection of toys:

Paint labels should be noted. Most young children place toys in their mouths, and although most toy manufacturers use safe paints, lead poisoning still causes about 60 deaths a year among children in the United States.

Toys such as B-B guns, sling shots, blank pistols, darts, bows and arrows have caused severe injuries and blindness. Any such gifts should include safety rules.

Small objects on toys are easily swallowed by children. Glass or plastic eyes on dolls and stuffed animals may come out easily. Mothers should remove such eyes and sew new ones in their place. Construction kits are good toys for older children, but the small pieces in such kits may de deadly to a toddler.

Tax Group Elects Novatan President

John R. Kiker, a Novato man who once tried to promote secession of North Marin to form a new county, has been elected first vice president of the Marin County Taxpayers Assn. Kiker, who will represent the association in North Marin, is a retired Coast Guard chief signalman.

John Farley of San Rafael was elected association secretary following the resignation of Walter Lord of Sausalito, who held the post for a number of years. Farley is a former insurance adjuster.

'Dead' Russ Scientist Lives Again

By ALTON BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK (AP) — Four times the brilliant scientist died.

Four time, Soviet physicians set his heart beating again. For more than seven weeks a pump kept the broken man breathing. Then he had to learn again to breathe naturally.

But last month, Dr. Lev Landau sat up in his hospital bed and acknowledged the happy news that he had won the Nobel Prize in physics.

Details of Dr. Landau's amazing medical saga are told in the current issue of Medical World News, some of it gathered by a staff editor, part supplied by a Moscow science writer, Irma Lunacharskaya.

CAR SWERVES

Last Jan. 7, the driver of Landau's car swerved on an icy road near Moscow to avoid striking a little girl. The car swerved into the path of a truck.

At a hospital, doctors examined a man miraculously alive — fractured skull . . . brain contusions . . . severe shock . . . nine broken ribs . . . punctured chest . . . pelvic fracture . . . rupture of the bladder . . . paralysis of the left arm . . . partial paralysis of the right arm and both legs . . . failing respiration and circulation.

Landau was deaf, blind, speechless, showing no reflexes or reactions to pain or stimuli. Today the renowed physicist speaks of returning to work.

SKULL OPENED

Top Soviet specialists gathered to save one of Russia's most famous scientists. That night, surgeons opened his skull, introduced the chemical urea to reduce swelling and pressure.

Around the clock they used a pump oxygenator to give him oxygen. He was fed semiliquids through the nose.

Four days after the accident, Landau's heart stopped. He was clinically dead.

He "died" again on the seventh, the ninth and the 11th days—and each time was revived.

Then Professor Yevegeniz Lifshitz, Landau's closest friend, found that Landau recognized him.

Rehabilitation was set up, and by mid-July Landau "wanted to 'talk shop' about physics."

Adlai Says He Backed Cuban Blockade

NEW YORK (AP)—U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said today that he had approved of the naval blockade of Cuba at least three days before the government decided to impose it.

Reiterating his denial that he had opposed the blockade, Stevenson said on the NBC television "Today" show: "I was emphatically in favor of it."

Stevenson previously had denounced as inaccurate a Saturday Evening Post article, coauthored by a close friend of President John F. Kennedy, that portrayed Stevenson as having urged a soft line in the Cuban crisis.

He asserted today the article was "fallacious from beginning to end, in every detail."

Asked if he had been asked to resign his U.N. post, Stevenson replied: "On the contrary."

He did not elaborate.

Stevenson said that despite his support of the blockade, he hoped that the time has not come in the United States when it is felt disputes should be settled by war rather than peaceful means.

"If that time comes, the world is doomed," he added.

Stevenson was asked if he expected the president to come forward in his support.

"I have had no discussion with him about it. I don't know what he is going to do, if anything," Stevenson replied.

He went on to say that Kennedy "has and will have my views with candor and confidence."

Hoffa Shot At In Court; Man Beaten

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — A man dressed in a trench coat ran into the federal courtroom where Jimmy Hoffa is being tried today and fired several shots at Hoffa with what appeared to be a pellet gun.

Hoffa jumped up and knocked the man down as federal marshals ran to his assistance and beat the man to the floor with pistol butts.

As the man was dragged from the courtroom, Federal Judge William Miller called a recess and said he wanted a full report on the incident.

Hoffa said "I saw the gun as he ran up and I jumped up and knocked the S.O.B. down."

The incident occurred as government attorneys continued cross-examination of one of four defense witnesses called yesterday.

The average home in the Los Angeles metropolitan area cost its owner $17,000, according to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Sunny Hills, Hub School District $225,000 Apart On Price Of Land

San Anselmo School District and Sunny Hills Presbyterian Children's Home, battling over the price of 13.25 acres of land, are $225,000 apart in their figures.

This became evident as Neil J. Brodsgar, appraiser for the school district, continued on the witness stand today before a jury in Judge Thomas F. Keating's division of Marin Superior Court.

The school district wants 13.25 acres of Sunny Hills land for a new school site.

Brodsgar said he believes the property is worth $175,941 in all, including improvements and easements. The $142,432 value, quoted in yesterday's Independent-Journal, was based on just one of four approaches, Brodsgar explained. He said he used four different approaches to value, and the average came to $175,941.

Brodsgar said he feels no severance damage is involved.

Appraisers for Sunny Hills have testified that the school district should pay $400,000, which includes the value of the land and severance damage.

Mill Valley Stores Starting Night Hours

Mill Valley stores will remain open until 9 p.m. starting Friday for Christmas shopping, Granville L. Beedle, secretary manager of the chamber of commerce, announced today.

Fifty-three merchants are among those to keep their stores open late. The special hours will be effective through Dec. 21, except Saturdays and Sundays.

Embezzlement Figure Gets Illinois Sentence Commuted

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (UPI)—Gov. Otto Kerner today commuted the prison sentence of Orville E. Hodge, former state auditor of Illinois who looted the state treasury of 1.5 million dollars.

Kerner cut Hodge's sentence from 12 to 10 years. The action meant Hodge could be freed from Menard State Penitentiary by late January.

Hodge was sentenced to prison in 1956 to a 12 to 15 year term for one of the greatest embezzlement schemes in the history of state government.

Kerner said previous petitions by Hodge had not mentioned the prisoner's medical difficulties. "This petition did," Kerner said.

Kerner said he has received medical reports "indicating he (Hodge) is failing physically. Apparently continued incarceration will worsen his condition."

"Continued imprisonment for these months until the automatic November, 1963, parole eligibility could very likely result in Mr. Hodge being unable to lead any form of useful life after his release," the governor said.

Prosecution Winds Up Assault Case Against Gas Station Owner

The prosecution wound up its case yesterday against Fairfax service station operator Jerald A. Bredahl, 30, accused of trying to run down his wife and a police officer last July.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori of Marin Superior Court recessed the trial until 3 p.m. Friday because the judge has another case starting today.

Bredahl, charged with assault with a deadly weapon (a station wagon), is expected to take the stand in his own defense Friday. He is represented by Public Defender Peter Allen Smith.

Officer Lee Alan Perry and Sgt. Charles Grasso testified yesterday that Bredahl's station wagon crashed into their patrol car on the night of July 17, then tried to run down Grasso. The officers said they told Bredahl to stop, then fired several shots at the station wagon at Spruce and Park roads. One of the bullets hit Bredahl near the left ear.

Shortly before the crash with the police car, Bredahl drove through a service station at Park Road and Bolinas Avenue, nearly hitting his wife Diane, who was standing near the gasoline pumps. Officer William L. Dooley testified.

It was Mrs. Bredahl, who called police for help that night because she was having domestic troubles with her husband. They were in the process of a divorce at that time. In court yesterday, she was with her husband throughout the trial.

Two Injured In Tiburon Accident

A San Rafael truck driver and a Novato housewife were hurt in a Tiburon Boulevard crash yesterday.

Norman D. Arnold of 1469 Lincoln Avenue had paused for a stop sign in entering Tiburon Boulevard from East Knoll Road at 4:25 p.m. As he started onto the boulevard, a sedan driven by Mrs. Mabel H. Rubes of 7466 Redwood Highway crashed into the left side of his pickup truck. The California Highway Patrol cited Arnold for failure to yield.

Marin General Hospital treated Mrs. Rubes for a bruised knee, cut nose and strained back. Arnold was treated for a cut and bruised left shoulder.

The average soybean yield per acre in Arkansas, without irrigation, was 15.4 bushels over the past 25 years.

Officer, 10 Airmen Retire In Ceremonies At Hamilton

Retirement ceremonies were held last Friday at Hamilton Air Force Base for one commissioned and 10 non-commissioned officers.

Maj. John C. Keefe of the 78th Air Base Squadron retired after more than 20 years of active service. He left for his home in Texas.

M/Sgt. Leo M. Miller of Headquarters 28th Air Division, retired with more than 21 years of service. He was given the Air Force Commendation Medal at his retirement ceremony. Sergeant Miller retired in the rank of lieutenant colonel, which he had held in wartime. He lives at 296 Bolling Drive on the base.

M/Sgt. Anthony J. Cesero of the 466th Support Squadron retired after more than 20 years service. He also was given the Air Force Commendation Medal. He lives at 16 Estates Drive, Novato.

Others who retired with 20 or more years of service and left for their homes were: Chief M/Sgt. Joe L. Morgan of headquarters, 28th Air Division, who left for Texas; M/Sgt. Albert T. Barnes of headquarters, 28th Air Division Massachusettes; M/Sgt. James H. Wallace of the 78th Field Maintenance Squadron, Oklahoma; M/Sgt. Raymond Hardee of the 78th Hospital, Florida; S/Sgt. Mike Mossa of the 78th Airbase Squadron, Missouri; S/Sgt. Ray Johnson of the 78th Supply Squadron, West Virginia, and M/Sgt. Webster M. Lewis of headquarters, 78th Fighter Wing, Alabama.

Marinites Help Guam

Two young men from Marin were among 400 Hawaii-based Marines who flew into Guam in the wake of Typhoon Karen for cleanup and security duties. They are Lance Cpl. James A. Stuber, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stuber of 40 Ashford Avenue, Mill Valley, and Pfc. Frank D. Kornovich, son of Mrs. Ovida J. Kornovich of 225 Miranda Avenue, San Rafael.

FUSSELMAN PARKING SOLUTION

Eight years ago Supervisor William D. Fusselman had architect Robert W. F. Severin prepare the above drawing to show how the parking problem at the county courthouse might be solved. Somehow the Fusselman plan got shelved. But yesterday, under pressure of a City of San Rafael request that some parking place be found for jury members, Fusselman hauled out the sketch and presented it to his colleagues for consideration. Chairman Walter R. Castro suggested the county counsel should be consulted as to cost and financing of such a plan—if the county is interested. Fusselman said it would "enhance" the value of courthouse property, now said to be worth 1.5 million dollars.

Life Of Slayer Who Was To Die Today Spared

The life of convicted murderer John J. Deptula, 48, of Los Angeles, who was to die at 10 a.m. today in the San Quentin gas chamber, was spared yesterday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

When Deptula received the news in his Death Row cell, he thanked God, Joseph O'Brien, classification and parole representative at the prison, reported today. "He was very elated."

Governor Brown commuted the sentence to life imprisonment without possibility of parole.

Deptula killed Roger Allen Mosser, an employee of a Los Angeles bowling alley which Deptula managed. Deptula testified that he decided in July, 1961, to rob the bowling alley in an attempt to get money to pay gambling debts.

He said he found Mosser asleep in the office and hit him on the head with a bowling pin to make sure he would not wake up. When he found that Mosser was dead, he took the body to his home and dismembered it in his bathtub. He dumped the segments in the San Gabriel mountains.

Deptula, father of four wrote Governor Brown asking for clemency. The governor held a hearing last month.

Brown said Deptula was a peaceful, hardworking family man prior to the crime, and that prison officials believe he can be rehabilitated.

"It would be cruel and inhumane to take a life when the best available evidence indicates that Deptula can be successfully rehabilitated by psychotherapy," Brown said in announcing his decision.

O'Brien said Deptula, who never left his Death Row cell for the execution holding cell, will soon be transferred to the Vacaville receiving center where he will be processed as a new prisoner.

He said Deptula then would likely be sent to Folsom Prison or returned to San Quentin.

Novato Sets Policy For Building

The Novato City Council last night adopted a use policy for the community building.

The written policy, adopted until next June 30 on a trial basis, provides for use of the building by sponsored groups, official governmental bodies, public youth groups, public adult groups, private groups, and special public services.

Fees to be charged range from nothing for the governmental agencies to as high as $15 for the first hour and $10 for the second hour for private groups. Each facility in the building, such as the auditorium, kitchen, dining room, green room, upstairs, etc., carries a different rate schedule.

Application for use of any part of the building is to be made either through the parks and recreation department or at the city administrator's office.

There are 65 life-size wax sculptures of Hollywood stars of the past and present in the Movieland Wax Museum at Buena Park.

3 Sausalito Firemen Given Pay Raises

The Sausalito City Council last night raised the salaries of the fire department's three top men and created a new classification which would enable the remaining five firemen to advance to salaries equal to policemen's pay upon appointment by the fire chief.

The four-point plan effective Dec. 1, was contained in a report by City Mgr. Charles A. Brown, who was absent last night because he was ill with influenza.

Brown's report said he had compared Sausalito firemen's duties with other departments in Marin County and had found them comparable. He said the chief's salary was not in line.

Although the firemen's responsibilities are comparable to "those of other departments whose men are on an equal salary level with that of policemen," Brown said this didn't necessarily justify equal pay with police.

All five of the firemen, the newest of whom has been with the department for more than three years, apparently would be able to qualify for the five fireman-engineer positions created by council action.

Brown noted in his report that four new firemen will be needed when the city's new sub-station is completed.

The pay range for firemen remains at $440 to $527 per month. The new classification has a range of $450 to $540. Salary ranges for Chief Mathew Perry, Asst. Chief John Terris and Capt. Harold Cardwell were raised. The chief's range goes from $551-$656 to $589-$700; assistant chief from $504-$602 to $515-$615 and captain from $481-$576 to $492-$689. The three men were at the old top rate and will go to the new top rate.

Get Rid Of It Fast, Federal Aide Says

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—There was a note of urgency in a recent bankruptcy order filed here. Among assets of the business failure was an item worth $17,000. The federal bankruptcy referee ordered it liquidated "immediately."

It was seafood.

Deputy Gets County Pay During A.F. Tour

Sgt. Joseph Mooney of the Marin County sheriff's office found the national emergency personally profitable yesterday when county supervisors voted him his usual $634 county salary on top of what he got from the federal government for November service at Hamilton Air Force Base.

But the supervisors, though not grudging the money, didn't at first see it that way and acted only because they were told "it's the law".

Informed that Mooney spent November with the 349th Troop Carrier Wing, Headquarters Squadron, Intelligence Section (Wing), and that Uncle Sam had paid the going rate for such service, Supervisor William D. Fusselman suggested that the county should pay him "only what he was out of pocket."

Others seemed of the same opinion until Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell put in a word.

"The county counsel rules," said Mitchell, "that he is entitled to the full amount of his pay for 30 days only provided he makes a claim. He has made his claim."

The board unanimously voted to obey the law.

Boat Registration Bills Due Soon

SACRAMENTO (AP) — More than 300,000 small boat owners in California will soon be receiving bills for the first $3 renewal of their state boat registrations.

The Division of Small Craft Harbors said the forms will be in the mail during the next two weeks. Renewal is due Jan. 1, but can be paid up to Feb. 4 without penalty.

The renewal, like the original $5 registration required in 1960, will be good for three years, through Dec. 31, 1965.

New boats registered in 1963 must pay $5; in 1964, $4, and in 1965, $3. In effect, it costs $2 down and $1 per year, or fraction thereof.

The fees can be mailed to the division in Sacramento, or paid at several hundred agencies throughout the state.

Alto District Accepts Sewer Rate Formula

Alto Sanitary District directors Monday night accepted the City of Mill Valley's formula for pro-rating annual cost of handling the district's sewage.

In the past, according to chairman Sidney Dooray, the system was "more or less guesswork." Now, Dooray said, the city has agreed to put in water meters, telephone, and to pro-rate for all districts, dividing costs according to assessed valuation.

Camera Is Stolen

A portable typewriter and a movie camera and projector are missing from the home of Marianne D. Gray, 496 Irving Court, Belveron Gardens, she reported the loss to Sheriff's Deputy William N. McKillop Monday.

County Employees To Get Time Off

Asst County Auditor Michael Mitchell yesterday helped his fellow-employees of the county to get some free time with no strings attached.

He pointed out to county supervisors that during the procedure of moving to the Civic Center, some department heads won't be able to keep their full staffs at work. Should any compulsory time-off be counted against vacations?

"If we can't furnish them with jobs we shouldn't charge them for it," said Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

Everybody agreed.

'Dead' Russ Scientist Lives Again

By ALTON BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK (AP) — Four times the brilliant scientist died.

Four time, Soviet physicians set his heart beating again. For more than seven weeks a pump kept the broken man breathing. Then he had to learn again to breathe naturally.

But last month, Dr. Lev Landau sat up in his hospital bed and acknowledged the happy news that he had won the Nobel Prize in physics.

Details of Dr. Landau's amazing medical saga are told in the current issue of Medical World News, some of it gathered by a staff editor, part supplied by a Moscow science writer, Irma Lunacharskaya.

CAR SWERVES

Last Jan. 7, the driver of Landau's car swerved on an icy road near Moscow to avoid striking a little girl. The car swerved into the path of a truck.

At a hospital, doctors examined a man miraculously alive — fractured skull . . . brain contusions . . . severe shock . . . nine broken ribs . . . punctured chest . . . pelvic fracture . . . rupture of the bladder . . . paralysis of the left arm . . . partial paralysis of the right arm and both legs . . . failing respiration and circulation.

Landau was deaf, blind, speechless, showing no reflexes or reactions to pain or stimuli. Today the renowned physicist speaks of returning to work.

SKULL OPENED

Top Soviet specialists gathered to save one of Russia's most famous scientists. That night, surgeons opened his skull, introduced the chemical urea to reduce swelling and pressure.

Around the clock they used a pump oxygenator to give him oxygen. He was fed semi-liquids through the nose.

Four days after the accident, Landau's heart stopped. He was clinically dead.

He "died" again on the seventh, the ninth and the 11th days—and each time was revived.

Then Professor Yevegeniz Lifshitz, Landau's closest friend, found that Landau recognized him.

Rehabilitation was set up, and by mid-July Landau "wanted to 'talk shop' about physics."

Adlai Says He Backed Cuban Blockade

NEW YORK (AP)—U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said today that he had approved of the naval blockade of Cuba at least three days before the government decided to impose it.

Reiterating his denial that he had opposed the blockade, Stevenson said on the NBC television "Today" show: "I was emphatically in favor of it."

Stevenson previously had denounced as inaccurate a Saturday Evening Post article, coauthored by a close friend of President John F. Kennedy, that portrayed Stevenson as having urged a soft line in the Cuban crisis.

He asserted today the article was "fallacious from beginning to end, in every detail."

Asked if he had been asked to resign his U.N. post, Stevenson replied: "On the contrary."

He did not elaborate.

Stevenson said that despite his support of the blockade, he hoped that the time has not come in the United States when it is felt disputes should be settled by war rather than peaceful means.

"If that time comes, the world is doomed," he added.

Stevenson was asked if he expected the president to come forward in his support.

"I have had no discussion with him about it. I don't know what he is going to do, if anything," Stevenson replied.

He went on to say that Kennedy "has and will have my views with candor and confidence."

Hoffa Shot At In Court; Man Beaten

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — A man dressed in a trench coat ran into the federal courtroom where Jimmy Hoffa is being tried today and fired several shots at Hoffa with what appeared to be a pellet gun.

Hoffa jumped up and knocked the man down as federal marshals ran to his assistance and beat the man to the floor with pistol butts.

As the man was dragged from the courtroom, Federal Judge William Miller called a recess and said he wanted a full report on the incident.

Hoffa said "I saw the gun as he ran up and I jumped up and knocked the S.O.B. down."

The incident occurred as government attorneys continued cross-examination of one of four defense witnesses called yesterday.

Sunny Hills, Hub School District $225,000 Apart On Price Of Land

San Anselmo School District and Sunny Hills Presbyterian Children's Home, battling over the price of 13.25 acres of land, are $225,000 apart in their figures.

This became evident as Neil J. Brodsgar, appraiser for the school district, continued on the witness stand today before a jury in Judge Thomas F. Keating's division of Marin Superior Court.

The school district wants 13.25 acres of Sunny Hills land for a new school site.

Brodsgar said he believes the property is worth $175,941 in all, including improvements and easements. The $142,432 value, quoted in yesterday's Independent-Journal, was based on just one of four approaches, Brodsgar explained. He said he used four different approaches to value, and the average came to $175,941.

Brodsgar said he feels no severance damage is involved.

Appraisers for Sunny Hills have testified that the school district should pay $400,000, which includes the value of the land and severance damage.

Mill Valley Stores Starting Night Hours

Mill Valley stores will remain open until 9 p.m. starting Friday for Christmas shopping, Granville L. Beedle, secretary manager of the chamber of commerce, announced today.

Fifty-three merchants are among those to keep their stores open late. The special hours will be effective through Dec. 21, except Saturdays and Sundays.

Embezzlement Figure Gets Illinois Sentence Commuted

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (UPI)—Gov. Otto Kerner today commuted the prison sentence of Orville E. Hodge, former state auditor of Illinois who looted the state treasury of 1.5 million dollars.

Kerner cut Hodge's sentence from 12 to 10 years. The action meant Hodge could be freed from Menard State Penitentiary by late January.

Hodge was sentenced to prison in 1956 to a 12 to 15 year term for one of the greatest embezzlement schemes in the history of state government.

Kerner said previous petitions by Hodge had not mentioned the prisoner's medical difficulties. "This petition did," Kerner said.

Kerner said he has received medical reports "indicating he (Hodge) is failing physically. Apparently continued incarceration will worsen his condition."

"Continued imprisonment for these months until the automatic November, 1963, parole eligibility could very likely result in Mr. Hodge being unable to lead any form of useful life after his release," the governor said.

Prosecution Winds Up Assault Case Against Gas Station Owner

The prosecution wound up its case yesterday against Fairfax service station operator Jerald A. Bredahl, 30, accused of trying to run down his wife and a police officer last July.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori of Marin Superior Court recessed the trial until 3 p.m. Friday because the judge has another case starting today.

Bredahl, charged with assault with a deadly weapon (a station wagon), is expected to take the stand in his own defense Friday. He is represented by Public Defender Peter Allen Smith.

Officer Lee Alan Perry and Sgt. Charles Grasso testified yesterday that Bredahl's station wagon crashed into their patrol car on the night of July 17, then tried to run down Grasso. The officers said they told Bredahl to stop, then fired several shots at the station wagon at Spruce and Park roads. One of the bullets hit Bredahl near the left ear.

Shortly before the crash with the police car, Bredahl drove through a service station at Park Road and Bolinas Avenue, nearly hitting his wife Diane, who was standing near the gasoline pumps, Officer William L. Dooley testified.

It was Mrs. Bredahl, who called police for help that night because she was having domestic troubles with her husband. They were in the process of a divorce at that time. In court yesterday, she was with her husband throughout the trial.

Two Injured In Tiburon Accident

A San Rafael truck driver and a Novato housewife were hurt in a Tiburon Boulevard crash yesterday.

Norman D. Arnold of 1469 Lincoln Avenue had paused for a stop sign in entering Tiburon Boulevard from East Knoll Road at 4:25 p.m. As he started onto the boulevard, a sedan driven by Mrs. Mabel H. Rubes of 7466 Redwood Highway crashed into the left side of his pickup truck. The California Highway Patrol cited Arnold for failure to yield.

Marin General Hospital treated Mrs. Rubes for a bruised knee, cut nose and strained back. Arnold was treated for a cut and bruised left shoulder.

The average soybean yield per acre in Arkansas, without irrigation, was 15.4 bushels over the past 25 years.

Marinites Help Guam

Two young men from Marin were among 400 Hawaii-based Marines who flew into Guam in the wake of Typhoon Karen for cleanup and security duties. They are Lance Cpl. James A. Stuber, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stuber of 40 Ashford Avenue, Mill Valley, and Pfc. Frank D. Kornovich, son of Mrs. Ovida J. Kornovich of 225 Miranda Avenue, San Rafael.

FUSSELMAN PARKING SOLUTION

Eight years ago Supervisor William D. Fusselman had architect Robert W. F. Severin prepare the above drawing to show how the parking problem at the county courthouse might be solved. Somehow the Fusselman plan got shelved. But yesterday, under pressure of a City of San Rafael request that some parking place be found for jury members, Fusselman hauled out the sketch and presented it to his colleagues for consideration. Chairman Walter R. Castro suggested the county counsel should be consulted as to cost and financing of such a plan—if the county is interested. Fusselman said it would "enhance" the value of courthouse property, now said to be worth 1.5 million dollars.

Life Of Slayer Who Was To Die Today Spared

The life of convicted murderer John J. Deptula, 48, of Los Angeles, who was to die at 10 a.m. today in the San Quentin gas chamber, was spared yesterday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

When Deptula received the news in his Death Row cell, he thanked God, Joseph O'Brien, classification and parole representative at the prison, reported today. "He was very elated."

Governor Brown commuted the sentence to life imprisonment without possibility of parole.

Deptula killed Roger Allen Mosser, an employee of a Los Angeles bowling alley which Deptula managed. Deptula testified that he decided in July, 1961, to rob the bowling alley in an attempt to get money to pay gambling debts.

He said he found Mosser asleep in the office and hit him on the head with a bowling pin to make sure he would not wake up. When he found that Mosser was dead, he took the body to his home and dismembered it in his bathtub. He dumped the segments in the San Gabriel mountains.

Deptula, father of four wrote Governor Brown asking for clemency. The governor held a hearing last month.

Brown said Deptula was a peaceful, hardworking family man prior to the crime, and that prison officials believe he can be rehabilitated.

"It would be cruel and inhumane to take a life when the best available evidence indicates that Deptula can be successfully rehabilitated by psychotherapy," Brown said in announcing his decision.

O'Brien said Deptula, who never left his Death Row cell for the execution holding cell, will soon be transferred to the Vacaville receiving center where he will be processed as a new prisoner.

He said Deptula then would likely be sent to Folsom Prison or returned to San Quentin.

Novato Sets Policy For Building

The Novato City Council last night adopted a use policy for the community building.

The written policy, adopted until next June 30 on a trial basis, provides for use of the building by sponsored groups, official governmental bodies, public youth groups, public adult groups, private groups, and special public services.

Fees to be charged range from nothing for the governmental agencies to as high as $15 for the first hour and $10 for the second hour for private groups. Each facility in the building, such as the auditorium, kitchen, dining room, green room, upstairs, etc., carries a different rate schedule.

Application for use of any part of the building is to be made either through the parks and recreation department or at the city administrator's office.

There are 65 life-size wax sculptures of Hollywood stars of the past and present in the Movieland Wax Museum at Buena Park.

3 Sausalito Firemen Given Pay Raises

The Sausalito City Council last night raised the salaries of the fire department's three top men and created a new classification which would enable the remaining five firemen to advance to salaries equal to policemen's pay upon appointment by the fire chief.

The four-point plan effective Dec. 1, was contained in a report by City Mgr. Charles A. Brown, who was absent last night because he was ill with influenza.

Brown's report said he had compared Sausalito firemen's duties with other departments in Marin County and had found them comparable. He said the chief's salary was not in line.

Although the firemen's responsibilities are comparable to "those of other departments whose men are on an equal salary level with that of policemen," Brown said this didn't necessarily justify equal pay with police.

All five of the firemen, the newest of whom has been with the department for more than three years, apparently would be able to qualify for the five fireman-engineer positions created by council action.

Brown noted in his report that four new firemen will be needed when the city's new sub-station is completed.

The pay range for firemen remains at $440 to $527 per month. The new classification has a range of $450 to $540. Salary ranges for Chief Mathew Perry, Asst. Chief John Terris and Capt. Harold Cardwell were raised. The chief's range goes from $551-$656 to $589-$700; assistant chief from $504-$602 to $515-$615 and captain from $481-$576 to $492-$689. The three men were at the old top rate and will go to the new top rate.

Deputy Gets County Pay During A.F. Tour

Sgt. Joseph Mooney of the Marin County sheriff's office found the national emergency personally profitable yesterday when county supervisors voted him his usual $634 county salary on top of what he got from the federal government for November service at Hamilton Air Force Base.

But the supervisors, though not grudging the money, didn't at first see it that way and acted only because they were told "it's the law".

Informed that Mooney spent November with the 349th Troop Carrier Wing, Headquarters Squadron, Intelligence Section (Wing), and that Uncle Sam had paid the going rate for such service, Supervisor William D. Fusselman suggested that the county should pay him "only what he was out of pocket."

Others seemed of the same opinion until Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell put in a word.

"The county counsel rules," said Mitchell, "that he is entitled to the full amount of his pay for 30 days only provided he makes a claim. He has made his claim."

The board unanimously voted to obey the law.

Boat Registration Bills Due Soon

SACRAMENTO (AP) — More than 300,000 small boat owners in California will soon be receiving bills for the first $3 renewal of their state boat registrations.

The Division of Small Craft Harbors said the forms will be in the mail during the next two weeks. Renewal is due Jan. 1, but can be paid up to Feb. 4 without penalty.

The renewal, like the original $5 registration required in 1960, will be good for three years, through Dec. 31, 1965.

New boats registered in 1963 must pay $5; in 1964, $4, and in 1965, $3. In effect, it costs $2 down and $1 per year, or fraction thereof.

The fees can be mailed to the division in Sacramento, or paid at several hundred agencies throughout the state.

Alto District Accepts Sewer Rate Formula

Alto Sanitary District directors Monday night accepted the City of Mill Valley's formula for pro-rating annual cost of handling the district's sewage.

In the past, according to chairman Sidney Dooray, the system was "more or less guesswork." Now, Dooray said, the city has agreed to put in water meters, telephone, and to pro-rate for all districts, dividing costs according to assessed valuation.

Camera Is Stolen

A portable typewriter and a movie camera and projector are missing from the home of Marianne D. Gray, 496 Irving Court, Belveron Gardens, she reported the loss to Sheriff's Deputy William N. McKillop Monday.

County Employees To Get Time Off

Asst County Auditor Michael Mitchell yesterday helped his fellow-employees of the county to get some free time with no strings attached.

He pointed out to county supervisors that during the procedure of moving to the Civic Center, some department heads won't be able to keep their full staffs at work. Should any compulsory time-off be counted against vacations?

"If we can't furnish them with jobs we shouldn't charge them for it," said Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

Everybody agreed.

County Wants War Against Stray Dogs

The Marin County Humane Society was asked yesterday by the county board of supervisors to wage war on stray dogs in South Marin.

George A. Giannecchini, dairyman of Tennessee Valley Road, wrote the supervisors that wild dogs have been maiming and killing his cows.

"During the past two years I have lost 11 valuable animals," wrote Giannecchini. He said extensive damage has been done by dogs elsewhere in the county, as well. The problem has become too much for individual ranchers to cope with, he contended: "Something should be done and done now."

Supervisor Peter Behr moved that the "something" be a drive to eliminate stray dogs in the Marin City, Homestead, Tennessee Valley and Tamalpais Valley areas. Other supervisors agreed.

Behr said the ranchers deserve protection and suggested that "people should be warned that all pets, licensed or not, should be confined by night."

The Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Decided that after their first session at the Civic Center Dec. 18 they may skip meeting in Christmas Week unless an emergency develops, the next meeting thereafter being Jan. 3 because New Year's falls on the usual Tuesday session day.
2. Appointed Ann M. Logsdon key punch operator in the data processing bureau at $331 monthly, John M. Dunn legal clerk for the county clerk at $465, Helen Perent telephone operator-receptionist for the sheriff at $345, Robert Bruner, Marshall McNeil and Sandra Keen group counselors at Juvenile Hall at $465, and Rosemary Gartzke library assistant at $360.
3. Adopted plans and specifications for removal of concrete at Paradise Park, $15,000 being budgeted but cost dependent on possible use for concrete.
4. Agreed to provide a grader for City of Sausalito street work, cost being reimbursed.
5. Set for Jan. 8 hearing on annexation of Woodcliff Unit 1 to the Santa Venetia Lighting District.
6. Accepted a $370 bid from Marin County Roofing Co. for repair on the roof of the county pistol range.
7. Approved $39,862.98 as cost of the county's share of the Mill Valley joint improvement of Miller Avenue.
8. Authorized stop signs in Woodacre intersections of Park and Scott Streets with Central Avenue.
9. Authorized use of three county jail inmates for assistance in seeding erosion control grasses at the Civic Center.
10. Authorized use of county forces to correct a drainage ditch at rear of the Tamalpais Valley School, cost being reimbursed.
11. Accepted Stanley J. Fontez, Thomas F. Campanella and Leo A. Vaughan as County Employees Assn. representatives on a committee to review the group medical insurance plan, and appointed George Hall Jr. and Supervisor George Ludy as county representatives not association members.
12. By resolution, simplified emergency handling of indigent patients by hospitals other than San Rafael General Hospital, eliminating need to involve the county physician.

Novato May Get New Assessment Districts

Formation of assessment districts for improving another section of Center Road and portions of Olive Avenue may result from discussions last night by the Novato City Council.

Charles Joseph, director of public works, reported that his office has petitions for improving Center Road between Tamalpais Avenue and Lu Sutton School and two petitions for work on Olive Avenue.

The city of Novato now has $73,000 in its gasoline tax funds for street improvement and will get another $33,000 next year, Joseph reported. This is in addition to the funds earmarked for the first project on Center Road between Diablo and Tamalpais avenues, he said.

The council set for Dec. 13 an adjourned meeting to consider formation of these districts. This will give the city time to notify residents so they can attend.

Joseph also suggested that the city seek to include a new bridge over Warner Creek on South Novato Boulevard in the county urban thoroughfare system, costs of which are split by cities and county. The council authorized him to make the application. He estimated the bridge would cost $70,000.

By informal agreement, the council approved a rule that petitions for the formation of street improvement district carry 75 per cent of the property owners' signatures.

Bridge Directors To Look At 'Mismanagement' Charges

Golden Gate Bridge District directors will take a look tomorrow at charges of "mismanagement" made by State Sen. John F. McCarthy of San Rafael and former bridge administrative assistant William W. Hendricks of Ross.

And tomorraw night, the Marin County Grand Jury will hold a session on the same subject with Hendricks and bridge auditor Lee Lynch scheduled to testify.

Director Dan London of San Francisco, chairman of the bridge's publicity and advertising committee, has called a meeting for 10:30 a.m. in the directors room at the toll plaza to probe the charges. He has urged all bridge directors, whether they are members of his committee or not to be present.

At the same time he has asked bridge general manager James Adam, Lynch and other officers of the bridge district to prepare information about the charges for the committee. Adam said all of the bridge officers involved and any other members of the bridge staff the committee desired would be present at the meeting.

Sanitary Board Approves Plans For Subdivision

Annexation to Corte Madera Sanitary District of a 15-million-dollar condominium subdivision, the Uplands on Paradise Drive, was unanimously approved last night by district board.

The project, of more than 300 units, will be built east of the Marin County Day School by the Pullman Co. Grading and fill now is being done, attorneys for the developers said.

The board received a report from engineers Brown and Caldwell that the new force main east of Highway 101 is 75 per cent complete and a new Paradise Drive pumping station has been started. Both are to be completed early next year.

The board approved installation of a warning system to cost about $750 for pumping stations so that trouble may be attended to on short notice.

'Rhubarb Revue' Plans

"Rhubarb Revue" for 1963 will be discussed at a meeting of the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club at the clubhouse tomorrow at 8 p.m. The ninth annual musical show is scheduled to run three weekends starting April 12.

Thomas E. Stanton and Mrs. Newton E. Wise were appointed co-chairmen of the Reed School District bond election committee at last night's special meeting of district trustees.

The district will ask the voters on Jan. 22 to authorize $550,000 in bonds and borrowing about three million dollars from the state.

Committee members are Dr. Alfred J. Azevedo, Henry J. Broderick, Mrs. Everett A. Girtler, George Goddard, Mrs. James Heassler, Mrs. Clayton W. McCord, Larry Peirano, Leonard Sperry, Mrs. E. Allen Steinau Jr. and Mrs. Theodore van Ravenswaay.

The board approved preliminary drawings for two additional classrooms and storage area at Reed School. With the exception of the multi-purpose and music rooms, preliminary drawings for completion of the Del Mar School were also approved.

Following a professional briefing by Bel Aire Principal John C. Fitch and District psychologist Hildegard Berliner, Supt. Edward C. Pino was requested to prepare a report on expansion of the program for gifted learners.

Woman Lies In Coma For 11 Years

STOCKTON (AP)—Mrs. Abbie Howland has been in a coma for 11 years.

She suffered head and spinal injuries Dec. 4, 1951, in an auto accident.

Since then she has been in San Joaquin General Hospital, where she formerly worked as a nurses' aide.

Mrs. Howland, 42, once auburn haired, lost most of her hair during a severe illness several months ago.

Doctors said she has some slight consciousness at times. She smiles, says "no" and holds her head erect for a short time.

She responds best to a friend, Doris Wilson, who was driving the car when the accident occurred 11 years ago.

Mrs. Howland is a county ward. A hospital spokesman said cost of her care had reached $40,828.

Use of unmarked cars and policemen out of uniform to catch speeders goes back to 1902.

Marinship Plan Gains In Sausalito

A planning commission report on the William Spangle and Associates plan for redevelopment of Marinship was accepted last night by the Sausalito City Council, and a hearing on the plan was set for 9 p.m. on Dec. 18.

The council ordered that letters be sent to all interested property owners, including the adjacent Sausalito Properties Inc., whose proposed high density residential and commercial development is adjacent to Marinship.

The planning commission's report urged that the city try to obtain for public use any properties which the Army Corps of Engineers may declare surplus and make available for sale.

DREDGING

When dredging operations are moved to other locations, the commissioners said, there should be little reason for the Army Engineers to keep their Sausalito properties, which the city might then have an opportunity to buy at discount prices.

Acquisition of privately held lands beyond the pierhead line was also recommended.

The commission agreed with Spangle's proposed priority system for Marinship streets, but with the provision that it not interfere with roadbuilding on land which is otherwise ready for development.

The report stressed the need for water, sewer and drainage improvements, and proposed putting all utilities underground.

PROTESTS

The commission sided with protesting property owners against Spangle's recommendations for moving the bulkhead line shoreward, citing the fact that a fill already authorized on the Schoonmaker property is nearly completed.

The present bulkhead line, the report said, will not interfere with use of neighboring properties. Recommended was a lesser move of the bulkhead line on the Lando, Marin Title Guaranty Co. and Arques holdings, which would move the line only 300 feet instead of 400 feet.

The commission recommended postponing action to move the pierhead and bulkhead lines at the north end of Marinship until studies of adjacent bay areas by the Marin County Planning Commission have been completed.

Traffic circulation patterns proposed by Spangle were satisfactory to the commission.

Corte Madera Design Unit Smoked Out

The Corte Madera Board of Design was smoked out of its meeting place at about 7:50 o'clock last night.

Coughing and holding their hands in front, 20 persons fled the meeting room which adjoins the firehouse and resumed their meeting in the town hall annex a short distance east on Tamalpais Drive.

It developed that in the basement, 11 volunteer firemen under Asst. Chief Harold Kelly were staging their first smoke drill.

One fireman would throw a smoke bomb into the darkened basement. Then another would go in hiding. After a moment two other firemen would enter and search for him. All wore gas masks.

The drill lasted until about 8:45 p.m.

"What our men didn't know was that the smoke would enter the meeting room through the floor furnace," said Fire Chief Frank Nelson.

"It shows the firemen need a new building to practice in," said Mrs. Elizabeth Long, board of design secretary.

The board of design, with an audience of 15, approved 3-0 general location proposed by owner Frank Rusalem for a new post office building in the Corte Madera Center, east of the Standard Oil station and south of the Littleman Market, after being chased by smoke to its second meeting place.

Driver Injured As Truck Flips

Minor injuries were suffered by Joseph M. Sacco of 1323 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, when his pickup truck somersaulted across a south of the Hamilton Air Force Base main gate yesterday.

Sacco told the California Highway Patrol that he braked hard on wet paving when the signal light changed as he was driving north at 6:35 a.m. His truck skidded 33 feet to the center curb and overturned in the southbound lanes.

Sacco declined hospitalization.

Behr Says No Room For Library Censors

Reports of the State Senate Committee on Un-American Activities belong to the public, the Marin County Board of Supervisors stated yesterday in response to a query about county library policy.

"I have no use whatsoever for the committee," Supervisor Peter Behr said. "But at the same time there's no room for censorship in our library.

Librarian Virginia Keating asked the board's opinion about procedure for circulating the reports after a citizen objected to her about a library rule requiring persons to sign before looking at certain reference material.

"There's nothing unusual about the rule," Mrs. Keating said. "Many reference books can't be removed from the library, and since our 'History of Marin County' was stolen last spring, we've asked anyone to sign before using the books. I just wanted to get a clarification from the board.

"There's nothing rare or special about the reports. I don't even remember how many there are or where we got them."

The board agreed to let Mrs. Keating "follow the procedure she would use as a librarian to put these reports where they should be as reference material and handle them accordingly."

"If they should be classified with 'Tom Swift' and 'The Rover Boys,' then that's where they belong," Behr concluded.

Championship Sports Inc. Not In Sonny Liston's Plans

CHICAGO (AP)—Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston moved into his three-story mansion surrounded by a wrought iron fence and announced Championship Sports Inc., will not promote any of his future matches.

Liston and his wife, Geraldine, were busy moving into the 21- room "castle" recently vacated by jazz pianist Ahmad Jamal while the champ was holding a press conference yesterday.

Liston, who won the title by koyoing Patterson in 2 minutes and 6 seconds of the first round in Comiskey Park last Sept. 25, said "If I meet Patterson again it will have to be under a different promotion and Baltimore stands a good chance of getting it."

Liston, who recently left Philadelphia in favor of Chicago, said if dethroned champion Floyd Patterson insists on that group as promoters of a return match, there will be no fight.

Liston said his adviser, Jack Nilon, would get in touch with Patterson in New York this week to discuss the details of a return match.

One of the reasons Liston wants no part of Championship Sports Inc., is because of the money. The champion explained the group gave him $25,000 for training expenses and $5,000 after the fight. But there remains a matter of $280,000 owed to him which the government has tied up.

Nebraska Will Oppose Miami In Cotton Bowl

NEW YORK (AP)—Rugged Nebraska will oppose Miami of Florida in the second Gotham Bowl football game Dec. 15, rescuing the post-season contest with time running short.

The match was completed last night when the Board of Regents and the Big Eight Conference approved acceptance of the bid voted by the Nebraska players.

Bowl officials were pleased by the acquisition of both the Miami Hurricanes, 7-3, and the Cornhuskers, 8-2, who are among the nation's top ten teams in passing and rushing, respectively.

Less than 15,000 fans watched Baylor defeat previously unbeaten Utah State in the first Gotham Bowl game last year.

Nebraska's decision left the National Trophy Bowl, Dec. 29, in Washington, D.C., as the only major post-season contest which has not completed its line-up.

"This is the game we wanted — and Miami wanted — all along," Bob Curran, director of the Gotham Bowl, said.

"Regardless of what may have been reported, the only two invitations submitted were to Miami three weeks ago and again Saturday night and to Nebraska."

Touch Football Hits As New U. S. Sport

NEW YORK (AP) — Touch football, often called the sport of the New Frontier, was thrust suddenly into the fore of the National Football Foundation's annual Hall of Fame festivities by no less a personality than Byron (Whizzer) White, associate justice of the Supreme Court.

Justice White, a former All-America at the University of Colordao and later a professional star halfback with Pittsburgh and Detroit, received the foundation's Gold Medal Award for outstanding contribution to football last night.

White tracing the history of football from ancient times until the present, Justice White suddenly changed his theme.

"Then came a major development—the game of touch football was popularized by a family in Massachusetts," he said.

The crowd of more than 1,500, including President Kennedy's brothers, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and Massachusetts Senator-elect Edward M. Kennedy, broke into laughter.

"The rules of the game are vague," continued Justice White and again the crowd laughed.

"The season begins in September on the banks of the Potomac and continues till May. Training is done on the sandy beaches of New England with the stipulation that the sand cannot be more than six inches in depth.

"I have never seen it because spectators are barred," he added, as the crowd roared again.

"But they say that even women are allowed to play.

"However, we will continue to watch developments of this game for some time to come."

Justice White, who was President Kennedy's first appointee to the Supreme Court, spoke out against the critics of football for demeaning the sport because of injuries.

"No game can carry on without accompanying dangers," he said.

Justice White also spoke out against "commercialization" and an uncontrolled "will to win."

Twelve new members were inducted into football's Hall of Fame. They were Benny Boynton, Williams, 1917-1919, 1920; Guy Chamberlain, Nebraska, 1913-1915; Dan Hill Jr., Duke, 1936-38; Cal Hubbard, Centenary 1922-24 and Geneva, 1926; Phil King, Princeton, 1890-93; John McEwan, Army, 1913-16; John Minds, Penn., 1894-97; Pat O'Dea, Wisconsin, 1897-99; Joseph Routt, Texas A&M 1935-37; William Spears, Vanderbilt, 1925-27; Andrew Wyatt, Bucknell, 1888-91, Chicago 1892-94; and Tuss McLaughry, coach at Westminister, Amherst, Brown and Dartmouth, 1916-1954.

CAGE ROUNDUP

Duke Romps On South Carolina

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Art Heyman of Duke is confronted with an unusual obstacle in his bid for All-America honors—he tries too hard.

The chief charge leveled against the sharpshooting senior is that he sometimes gets too enthusiastic about his chores on a basketball court. As a result, he has gotten into occasional jams ever since his sophomore year for throwing punches instead of the ball.

But when Heyman devotes his many talents to basketball, there are few collegians who can rank as his equal. The 6-5, 205-pounder from Rockville Centre, N.Y., proved this once again last night when he scored 28 points to lead second-ranked Duke to a 95-63 romp over South Carolina.

EXPECTED WINS

The two other nationally ranked teams which saw action last night also came through with expected victories. West Virginia, No. 4 in the first weekly United Press International rating, trounced V.M.I., 100-74, and sixth-ranked Mississippi State opened its season with a convincing 90-55 triumph over Arkansas A&M.

Although Heyman scored twice as many points as anyone else on his team, the Blue Devils still showed a well-balanced attack with five men hitting in double figures. Joining Heyman were Dennis Ferguson and Fred Schmidt with 14 points each, Jay Buckley with 13 and Jeff Mullins with 11.

EARLY LEAD

Duke got off to an early lead and South Carolina never was able to present a serious threat. The Blue Devils stayed hot throughout and hit on 67.2 per cent of their shots.

Heyman has a good chance to replace current baseball star Dick Groat as the leading scorer in Duke history. Groat, who finished his collegiate career in 1952, totaled 1,886 points. Heyman entered his final season with 1,237 points and is third on the Duke all-time list.

West Virginia also had all five of its starters score in double figures, with guard Jim McCormick leading the attack with 22 points. Gale Catlett followed with 17 points, Rod Thorn had 15, Tom Lowry 12 and Mike Wolfe 11.

TOPS SCORERS

The Mountaineers, who jumped off to a 9-0 lead in the first two minutes of play, hit on 36 of 66 floor shots for a 56 per cent average. However, it was junior guard Bill Blair of the Keydets who topped all scorers with 26 points.

In other top games, Notre Dame broke a tie with less than two minutes remaining to top Michigan State, 92-85; Vanderbilt handed Rice its third straight loss, 80-68; Miami of Florida staved off a late rally to beat Boston College, 72-69; Bradley trounced North Dakota, 90-57; Georgetown stopped Maryland, 79-70, and North Texas State defeated Hardin-Simmons, 71-65.

S.F. Trades Tom Gola For Sears, Naulls

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Assn. today acquired versatile Tom Gola from the San Francisco Warriors for Willie Naulls and Ken Sears.

Gola, a six-foot-six former three-time All-America from LaSalle, had long been sought by the last-place Knicks. He achieved much popularity as a collegian in Madison Square Garden.

At present, the Knicks have won only six of 25 games in the N.B.A.

Naulls, former UCLA star, and Sears, who played at Santa Clara, return to the west coast where they reside and made their reputations as collegians. Sears, in fact, will be playing for his old college coach, Bob Feerick, who coaches the Warriors.

L. A. Lakers Dump Knicks 132-112 For 9th Straight

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

They laughed when an expert or two decided the Los Angeles Lakers would succeed the Boston Celtics as the No. 1 team in professional basketball this season.

Especially when the Lakers lost four of their first five games.

Now the Lakers have won nine in a row and 16 of their last 19, have pushed into a one-game lead in the National Basketball Association's Western Division with a 17-7 mark, and if there's a laugh left it's a faint chuckle.

Elgin Baylor, a fellow who makes even the most liberal expert look good, did the big job last night with a 43-point performance that buried the New York Knickerbockers, 132-112.

Three clutch free throws by Bob Ferris helped Detroit edge Syracuse 130-129 in the Madison Square Garden opener.

St. Louis, in the only other NBA action, stayed one step behind Los Angeles with a 104-102 victory over Chicago.

49er Staff Tuned In On Horror Show

The combined efforts of Frankenstein's monster and Dracula could not equal the horror show that 49er coach Red Hickey and his staff watched yesterday.

The San Francisco coaches watched movies of mighty Green Bay in action. The 49ers must face the league-leading Packers Sunday at Kezar Stadium. The Packers will be going all out because persistent Detroit is still only a game back of them.

Apart from the fact that beating the Packers would be most gratifying, Hickey would relish it because the 49ers would thus be guaranteed a .500 season.

EVEN RECORD

San Francisco is now 6-6 after winning their last three. Of course, Green Bay had won 18 straight games before Detroit dumped them 26-14 on Thanksgiving Day.

Hickey, taking note of the 5-2 road record this year, praised the system that has seen the 49ers practice in Redwood City and then fly to the site of a road game just before game time. In previous years, the Niners have stayed on the road for weeks at a time. This year, they have come home after each road contest.

Meanwhile, the 49ers have nosedived to a 1-4 record at Kezar.

Good Line Blocking Is Key To Tittle's Success With Giants

HANLEY

Jim Kensil is a fellow not known to the general public but he is well known to the sports writers covering the NFL beat. Jim's weekly football statistics uncover many pertinent stories and the one his columns of figures spotlighted this week deals with Y. A. Tittle and YAT's blocking crew.

"Blocking is the key to the Giants' leading pass offense," said Kensil who documented his statement with a set of convincing statistics that revealed Tittle, after 12 games, was tossed for only 109 yards minus attempting to pass.

In the same number of games, John Brodie of the 49ers was thrown for a net loss of 371 yards which leads the NFL's Western Conference in the minus department.

TITTLE PASSED the Giants to their second straight NFL Eastern Conference title last Sunday. But could the old Bald Eagle have been successful without Rosey Brown, Darrell Dess, Ray Wietecha, Greg Larson and Jack Stroud blocking for him? Or to put it another way, would Brodie be as effective with such blocking? It's an academic question since there is no way of proving it practically right or wrong.

Why have the Giants been able to give such good protection to Tittle?

"We worked on it," says Al Sherman, Giant coach. "We had to. When we went to camp our backfield situation was unsettled. We knew we had to depend on passing."

IN FOUR of their 12 games, the Giants did not lose a single yard passing. The most they lost in any one game was 22, last Sunday against the Bears.

"Tackles, not the guards, are the key men on pass blocking," says Sherman. "They must protect against blitzing linebackers on the inside and defensive ends on the outside. We have veterans at tackle in Brown and Stroud."

Sherman moved Stroud from guard to tackle early in the season and put Larson, a natural guard but a tackle last year, at guard. This placed Larson a hole closer to where he should be. Sherman believes it was a big help. Larson, in his second year, is being groomed as the eventual replacement for the veteran Wietecha at center.

"AND DON'T forget Joe Walton (the tight end) in the blocking," says Sherman. "Depending on what team we are playing, he often stays back and blocks as do our backs. We can send as many as five men down field, but the important thing is not how many, but whether Tittle will have time to hit them.

"Tittle, of course, is another reason why we haven't lost on passing. He has the feel of the situation and gets the ball off at the right time."

We think Brodie could too with the kind of blocking given Tittle.

PREP BASKETBALL

S.R. Wins; Redwood, Drake Cagers Lose

The San Rafael High School cagers whipped Napa 41-36, Redwood fell to Washington of San Francisco 38-29, and Drake was edged by Vallejo 37-35 in Marin prep basketball action yesterday.

For San Rafael, it was Bill Pendergast who led the scorers in the game in the San Rafael gym as he scored 14 points. John Franzman, who hit from the outside on four shots to pull out the Napa defenders, scored eight points.

In Redwood's loss, coach Dick Hart pointed out Don Rogers, 6-3 center, and reserve Larry Wolfe played outstanding games. Hart used 15 men in the game to give all the cagers a chance.

The Redwood "B" team also lost its contest 37-19.

The Drake-Vallejo game was all tied up with only three seconds remaining when a Vallejo man dumped a shot to give the visitors the win. Lorry Glassi scored 10, John McBride scored eight and Larry Gaddy scored seven to lead the Pirate attack.

Larry Stein scored eight points as the Drake "B" team won 29-19.

Next game for Redwood will be Friday night at 7 o'clock against Livermore in the Redwood gym. The last time the two teams met—in the Tournament of Champions two years ago—Livermore won over the Giants by one point.

Drake will take on Santa Rosa, there, Saturday at 7 p.m. in the Pirates' next encounter.

Tar Cagers Lose 74-50

The College of Marin Tars suffered their third loss without a victory when the Menlo basketballers dumped the Marin contingent 74-50 yesterday in Menlo.

Steve Bryant led the Tar scorers with 22 points. Charlie Bullock scored nine, and Dave Neumann and Randy Petrini each scored eight for the Mariners. The halftime score was 40-26, Menlo in front.

The Tars will try to gain their first win Friday when the cagers take on Chabot College at 8 o'clock in the Drake High School gym.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

Neat Editing By Sports Scribe; 'Another Domino' On Grid Horizon

Sports writer Walt Daley's new book, "San Francisco—Say It Isn't So"—almost put his boss, Sports Editor Roger Williams of the S.F. News-Call-Bulletin, in an embarrassing position.

Deciding it was fashionable nationally to pan San Francisco, Walt asked newspaper writers to voice their pet peeves and at the same time plug the city. The result was a breezy and sometimes punchy treatment of such subjects as night life, saloons, Candlestick Park, men, women, pigeons, etc.

Walt asked Williams to do the chapter on sports, and the loquacious Roger responded with tearful essay on the inability of the 49ers and Giants to win a pennant. It looked, he indicated, like the city was doomed to also-ran fate in pro sports.

Well, sir, then came the Giants' miracle finish to win the National League title just as the book was about to roll off the presses.

Grabbing his pencil and racing like a sprinter to the publishing house, Daley pulled off the niftiest piece of last-minute editing ever seen in these parts. Here's how he saved Williams' chapter by merely adding the following paragraph:

"But now all the sins of the past are repealed and the slurs and sarcasms quieted. The long drought ended when, on October the third, 1962, the San Francisco Giants became champions of the National League."

Whew!

DRAKE HIGH School freshman football coach Gordon Chan says Marin fans will be treated to some dynamic running during the next three years when his Dean Lazzarini graduates to varsity ranks.

"Throughout last season," Chan writes, "Lazzarini averaged 14.4 yards per carry. In our last game against the Redwood Frosh (we won 31-13), he scored four touchdowns, ran for 201 yards and an 18.7 average per carry. I really believe that Marin County fans will see another Warren Domino during the next three years. He'll be better than Domino!"

He was referring to Tam High's great back, Domino, who graduates next June.

Drake, by the way, tied for the Marin Freshman League title with Terra Linda.

MARIN BOWLING fans will be treated to some fast and fancy action at San Rafael's Country Club Bowl Saturday night when four outstanding keglers will stage an exhibition match.

The 10-game feature will match Jerry Hale of Bel Mateo Bowl and Joe Jacks of Vallejo against localites Harry Halloran and Zeno Gelatti.

Hale and Jacks both average better than 200, are members of the Professional Bowling Assn., and will compete in this year's Masters Championships.

Halloran, a salesman for Ames Ford in San Rafael, packs a 208 average; Gelatti, manager of Country Club, averages "only" 196.

They'll start their match at 8 o'clock.

McKEE'S brand new Hof Brau Restaurant on lower Lincoln Avenue in San Rafael will continue to sponsor charter bus trips to 49er games at Kezar, just as Jim and Bill McKee did from their Dugout Tavern.

The McKees closed the Dugout and opened the Hof Brau last week.

RON SNIDOW, the former San Rafael High star who was tabbed as All-Coast tackle at Oregon by the A.P. this week, was the third draft choice of the Washington Redskins in the pro grid player draft Monday. It was the highest any former Marin gridder had been drafted by the pros. Matt Hazeltine, formerly of Tam, was the 49ers' fourth draft pick in 1954.

WITH THE major college and high school seasons completed, here's how we fared in football predictions this season: 103 right, 31 wrong for a .769 average.

FOR THIS week's pro picks, we like the Green Bay Packers over the 49ers by 7 and Houston over Oakland by 14.

'PRIZE' DEER FOR MARIN HUNTER

William Curry of 145 Woodside Drive, San Anselmo, shows off the four-point "prize" buck he killed last month on a trip to Thayne, Wyoming. Curry was informed by a taxidermist that the buck's antlers were the 19th most perfect recorded in Boone and Crockett ratings for typical mule tale deer. In a point system devised to determine perfection of the antlers, Curry's kill registered 195 5/8th points while the all-time champion recorded was 208½ points. The buck field dressed at 225 pounds. Curry and his wife along with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dockery of Fairfax and Mr. and Mrs. John Slagle of San Anselmo hunted in Wyoming together and accounted for six deer, all four pointers. The trip was arranged by Gene Thompson of Western Sports Shop, San Rafael.

USC Tops Statistics In Big 6

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Southern California, the Big Six's unbeaten Rose Bowl representative, is the conference offensive and defensive football champion according to statistics released today.

Though UCLA has one game yet to play, the Bruins are too far behind to challenge in either department.

Southern Cal finished its regular season with a 327-yards-per-game total offense average and yielded just 238 on defense. Washington trailed by only a yard per game on defense.

Washington captured the rushing offense and rushing defense titles by gaining 251 yards each game while giving up just 117.

California was the passing champion with a 180-yard average.

UCLA leads in pass defense with a 100-yard average but could lose the title to Southern Cal if Syracuse gains 143 yards or more against the Bruins Saturday. USC has a 104-yard average.

The conference champion Trojans finished as low as third in only one department, passing offense, where they averaged 139 yards per game.

Arian Takes Big Lead In Mid-Winter Races

By ALFRED MATSON

Sunday, in the third regatta of the Corinthian Midwinters, Alian scampered across the finish line a comfortable four minutes ahead of second placer Triton. It was the second win in a row for the salmon pink sloop and, with a fifth place in the first race, Arian is firmly established on top for season's points.

The victory Sunday was accomplished the hard way. With the first mark of the course the outer degaussing buoy, Arian, like many others, fell victim to a wind shadow that extended westward from Alcatraz. Beset by a flood tide, the fleet was just so many ducks on a pond and going nowhere. But Arian gambled, fell off and sailed to leeward of Alcatraz where there was wind on the south side of the channel. Truly a handsome win under any circumstances, but significantly so, in this instance, as it was accomplished by a crew of ladies, albeit, all veteran sailors. Skippered by Sally Mathews, San Francisco Y.C., and crew list is Nancy Rogers, Ricki Treacy and Bobbie Healey; a knowledgeable coterie of gals, one must admit.

Despite a dreary, rain spattered morning, 109 yachts joined in the fray and, with a good breeze making up in the afternoon, there were few who did not finish. Several of the starts were enmeshed with confusion; the outer mark had to be left to starboard and a light breeze, coupled with a flooding tide, caused many to be penalized for offside. Then, too, with the first mark of the course in the opposite direction, more or less, an immediate tack was in order but, under the circumstances, not always possible.

The winners: Triton, Arian; Windward, Koolau; Hurricane, Random; Treasure Island, Mariana; Electra, Sonatina; Junior Clipper, Aloha; Fleur Bleue, Tackless; Maya, Sacre Bleue; Folkboat, Filur; Rhodes 33, Caper; Knarr, Blue Peter; Bear, Trigger; Golden Gate, Lively Lady; Bird, Kittiwake; IC, Norena; Cruising Club, Leoda; Div. 9, Sumatra; Div. 10-11, Rampant; Div. 15-17, Wind; Div. 14, Woodwind.

Seals Add Man To Replace McNabb

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A new man will be in uniform for the San Francisco Seals when they meet the Portland Buckaroos in a Western Hockey League game here Friday night.

He's Donald Bamburak, a 23-year-old left wing who was conditionally purchased from Vancouver yesterday.

Ragan Moves Up In Pro Golf's Money Winnings

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Dave Ragan, winner of the West Palm Beach Open last week, moved up a notch in the list of top 10 Professional Golf Assn. money winners.

His $2,800 prize money put him in eighth position with a total of $36,327. He has now won two tournaments and finished in the top five nine times, according to figures released by PGA headquarters.

Jack Nicklaus also swapped places with idle Bill Casper by winning $730 at West Palm Beach. He moved into third place with a total of $61,868.

There were no changes in the status of leading money winner Arnold Palmer, who has $81,448 in earnings. He also was idle last week.

County Wants War Against Stray Dogs

The Marin County Humane Society was asked yesterday by the county board of supervisors to wage war on stray dogs in South Marin.

George A. Giannecchini, dairyman of Tennessee Valley Road, wrote the supervisors that wild dogs have been maiming and killing his cows.

"During the past two years I have lost 11 valuable animals," wrote Giannecchini. He said extensive damage has been done by dogs elsewhere in the county, as well. The problem has become too much for individual ranchers to cope with, he contended: "Something should be done and done now."

Supervisor Peter Behr moved that the "something" be a drive to eliminate stray dogs in the Marin City, Homestead, Tennessee Valley and Tamalpais Valley areas. Other supervisors agreed.

Behr said the ranchers deserve protection and suggested that "people should be warned that all pets, licensed or not, should be confined by night."

The Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Decided that after their first session at the Civic Center Dec. 18 they may skip meeting in Christmas Week unless an emergency develops, the next meeting thereafter being Jan. 3 because New Year's falls on the usual Tuesday session day.
2. Appointed Ann M. Logsdon key punch operator in the data processing bureau at $331 monthly, John M. Dunn legal clerk for the county clerk at $465, Helen Perent telephone operator-receptionist for the sheriff at $345, Robert Bruner, Marshall McNeil and Sandra Keen group counselors at Juvenile Hall at $465, and Rosemary Gartzke library assistant at $360.
3. Adopted plans and specifications for removal of concrete at Paradise Park, $15,000 being budgeted but cost dependent on possible use for concrete.
4. Agreed to provide a grader for City of Sausalito street work, cost being reimbursed.
5. Set for Jan. 8 hearing on annexation of Woodcliff Unit 1 to the Santa Venetia Lighting District.
6. Accepted a $370 bid from Marin County Roofing Co. for repair on the roof of the county pistol range.
7. Approved $39,862.98 as cost of the county's share of the Mill Valley joint improvement of Miller Avenue.
8. Authorized stop signs in Woodacre intersections of Park and Scott Streets with Central Avenue.
9. Authorized use of three county jail inmates for assistance in seeding erosion control grasses at the Civic Center.
10. Authorized use of county forces to correct a drainage ditch at rear of the Tamalpais Valley School, cost being reimbursed.
11. Accepted Stanley J. Fontez, Thomas F. Campanella and Leo A. Vaughan as County Employees Assn. representatives on a committee to review the group medical insurance plan, and appointed George Hall Jr. and Supervisor George Ludy as county representatives not association members.
12. By resolution, simplified emergency handling of indigent patients by hospitals other than San Rafael General Hospital, eliminating need to involve the county physician.

Novato May Get New Assessment Districts

Formation of assessment districts for improving another section of Center Road and portions of Olive Avenue may result from discussions last night by the Novato City Council.

Charles Joseph, director of public works, reported that his office has petitions for improving Center Road between Tamalpais Avenue and Lu Sutton School and two petitions for work on Olive Avenue.

The city of Novato now has $73,000 in its gasoline tax funds for street improvement and will get another $33,000 next year, Joseph reported. This is in addition to the funds earmarked for the first project on Center Road between Diablo and Tamalpais avenues, he said.

The council set for Dec. 13 an adjourned meeting to consider formation of these districts. This will give the city time to notify residents so they can attend.

Joseph also suggested that the city seek to include a new bridge over Warner Creek on South Novato Boulevard in the county urban thoroughfare system, costs of which are split by cities and county. The council authorized him to make the applicatior. He estimated the bridge would cost $70,000.

By informal agreement, the council approved a rule that petitions for the formation of street improvement district carry 75 per cent of the property owners' signatures.

Bridge Directors To Look At 'Mismanagement' Charges

Golden Gate Bridge District directors will take a look tomorrow at charges of "mismanagement" made by State Sen. John F. McCarthy of San Rafael and former bridge administrative assistant William W. Hendricks of Ross.

And tomorraw night, the Marin County Grand Jury will hold a session on the same subject with Hendricks and bridge auditor Lee Lynch scheduled to testify.

Director Dan London of San Francisco, chairman of the bridge's publicity and advertising committee, has called a meeting for 10:30 a.m. in the directors room at the toll plaza to probe the charges. He has urged all bridge directors, whether they are members of his committee or not to be present.

At the same time he has asked bridge general manager James Adam, Lynch and other officers of the bridge district to prepare information about the charges for the committee. Adam said all of the bridge officers involved and any other members of the bridge staff the committee desired would be present at the meeting.

Sanitary Board Approves Plans For Subdivision

Annexation to Corte Madera Sanitary District of a 15-million-dollar condominium subdivision, the Uplands on Paradise Drive, was unanimously approved last night by district board.

The project, of more than 300 units, will be built east of the Marin County Day School by the Pullman Co. Grading and fill now is being done, attorneys for the developers said.

The board received a report from engineers Brown and Caldwell that the new force main east of Highway 101 is 75 per cent complete and a new Paradise Drive pumping station has been started. Both are to be completed early next year.

The board approved installation of a warning system to cost about $750 for pumping stations so that trouble may be attended to on short notice.

'Rhubarb Revue' Plans

"Rhubarb Revue" for 1963 will be discussed at a meeting of the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club at the clubhouse tomorrow at 8 p.m. The ninth annual musical show is scheduled to run three weekends starting April 12.

Thomas E. Stanton and Mrs. Newton E. Wise were appointed co-chairmen of the Reed School District bond election committee at last night's special meeting of district trustees.

Committee members are Dr. Alfred J. Azevedo, Henry J. Broderick, Mrs. Everett A. Girtler, George Goddard, Mrs. James Heassler, Mrs. Clayton W. McCord, Larry Peirano, Leonard Sperry, Mrs. E. Allen Steinau Jr. and Mrs. Theodore van Ravenswaay.

The board approved preliminary drawings for two additional classrooms and storage area at Reed School. With the exception of the multi-purpose and music rooms, preliminary drawings for completion of the Del Mar School were also approved.

Following a professional briefing by Bel Aire Principal John C. Fitch and District psychologist Hildegard Berliner, Supt. Edward C. Pino was requested to prepare a report on expansion of the program for gifted learners.

Woman Lies In Coma For 11 Years

STOCKTON (AP)—Mrs. Abbie Howland has been in a coma for 11 years.

She suffered head and spinal injuries Dec. 4, 1951, in an auto accident.

Since then she has been in San Joaquin General Hospital, where she formerly worked as a nurses' aide.

Mrs. Howland, 42, once auburn haired, lost most of her hair during a severe illness several months ago.

Doctors said she has some slight consciousness at times. She smiles, says "no" and holds her head erect for a short time.

She responds best to a friend, Doris Wilson, who was driving the car when the accident occurred 11 years ago.

Mrs. Howland is a county ward. A hospital spokesman said cost of her care had reached $40,828.

Use of unmarked cars and policemen out of uniform to catch speeders goes back to 1902.

Marinship Plan Gains In Sausalito

A planning commission report on the William Spangle and Associates plan for redevelopment of Marinship was accepted last night by the Sausalito City Council, and a hearing on the plan was set for 9 p.m. on Dec. 18.

The council ordered that letters be sent to all interested property owners, including the adjacent Sausalito Properties Inc., whose proposed high density residential and commercial development is adjacent to Marinship.

The planning commission's report urged that the city try to obtain for public use any properties which the Army Corps of Engineers may declare surplus and make available for sale.

DREDGING

When dredging operations are moved to other locations, the commissioners said, there should be little reason for the Army Engineers to keep their Sausalito properties, which the city might then have an opportunity to buy at discount prices.

Acquisition of privately held lands beyond the pierhead line was also recommended.

The commission agreed with Spangle's proposed priority system for Marinship streets, but with the provision that it not interfere with roadbuilding on land which is otherwise ready for development.

The report stressed the need for water, sewer and drainage improvements, and proposed putting all utilities underground.

PROTESTS

The commission sided with protesting property owners against Spangle's recommendations for moving the bulkhead line shoreward, citing the fact that a fill already authorized on the Schoonmaker property is nearly completed.

The present bulkhead line, the report said, will not interfere with use of neighboring properties. Recommended was a lesser move of the bulkhead line on the Lando, Marin Title Guaranty Co. and Arques holdings, which would move the line only 300 feet instead of 400 feet.

The commission recommended postponing action to move the pierhead and bulkhead lines at the north end of Marinship until studies of adjacent bay areas by the Marin County Planning Commission have been completed.

Traffic circulation patterns proposed by Spangle were satisfactory to the commission.

Corte Madera Design Unit Smoked Out

The Corte Madera Board of Design was smoked out of its meeting place at about 7:50 o'clock last night.

Coughing and holding their hands in front, 20 persons fled the meeting room which adjoins the firehouse and resumed their meeting in the town hall annex a short distance east on Tamalpais Drive.

It developed that in the basement, 11 volunteer firemen under Asst, Chief Harold Kelly were staging their first smoke drill.

One fireman would throw a smoke bomb into the darkened basement. Then another would go in hiding. After a moment two other firemen would enter and search for him. All wore gas masks.

The drill lasted until about 8:45 p.m.

"What our men didn't know was that the smoke would enter the meeting room through the floor furnace," said Fire Chief Frank Nelson.

"It shows the firemen need a new building to practice in," said Mrs. Elizabeth Long, board of design secretary.

The board of design, with an audience of 15, approved 3-0 general location proposed by owner Frank Rusalem for a new post office building in the Corte Madera Center, east of the Standard Oil station and south of the Littleman Market, after being chased by smoke to its second meeting place.

Driver Injured As Truck Flips

Minor injuries were suffered by Joseph M. Sacco of 1323 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, when his pickup truck somersaulted across a south of the Hamilton Air Force Base main gate yesterday.

Sacco told the California Highway Patrol that he braked hard on wet paving when the signal light changed as he was driving north at 6:35 a.m. His truck skidded 33 feet to the center curb and overturned in the southbound lanes.

Sacco declined hospitalization.

Behr Says No Room For Library Censors

Reports of the State Senate Committee on Un-American Activities belong to the public, the Marin County Board of Supervisors stated yesterday in response to a query about county library policy.

"I have no use whatsoever for the committee," Supervisor Peter Behr said. "But at the same time there's no room for censorship in our library.

Librarian Virginia Keating asked the board's opinion about procedure for circulating the reports after a citizen objected to her about a library rule requiring persons to sign before looking at certain reference material.

"There's nothing unusual about the rule," Mrs. Keating said. "Many reference books can't be removed from the library, and since our 'History of Marin County' was stolen last spring, we've asked anyone to sign before using the books. I just wanted to get a clarification from the board.

"There's nothing rare or special about the reports. I don't even remember how many there are or where we got them."

The board agreed to let Mrs. Keating "follow the procedure she would use as a librarian to put these reports where they should be as reference material and handle them accordingly."

"If they should be classified with 'Tom Swift' and 'The Rover Boys,' then that's where they belong," Behr concluded.

NAN AND ANDREW Susac imitate pigeons—which are among the birds they will depict in pantomime at their children's mime show planned as a holiday season event in Mill Valley. Seated at tables in junior cabaret style, the youngsters may sip hot chocolate and munch cookies as they watch the hour-long show. (Independent-Journal photo)

Mime Planned For The Hot Cocoa Set

Marin Couple To Present Show 'Junior Cabaret Style'

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Penguins — ostriches — pigeons — a shark—the tortoise and the hare— and Punch and Judy. These are some of the creatures that will come to life for youngsters at the children's mime show Nan and Andrew Susac plan as a feature of the holiday season in Mill Valley.

Performances will be at 2 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 15 and 16 and 22 and 23 at the Gallery in Mill Valley. It will be set up cabaret style so that the children can sip hot chocolate and munch cookies while parents or other adults who are asked to accompany the younger ones drink coffee.

THOUGH THE HOUR SHOW is primarily for the kids, adults should find the performance of interest at a different level, for Nan and her husband bring a high level of talent, training and experience to their shows.

Nan might have been one of the noted actresses of today if it hadn't been—paradoxically — for a personal philosophy she developed about being an actress. For Dr. Roland Talcott, retired dean of art at Ithaca College, with whom she studied and appeared in public performances, felt she was destined to become one of the leading names on the stage. And he was responsible for her getting a variety of offers in New York.

"But I felt cultivation of all the mental and physical talents was necessary to become an actress, and finally that it was more important to be a whole woman than a great actress," Nan said.

To say that she cultivated all the mental and physical talents is putting it mildly.

Born in Buffalo, New York, at 16 she entered the University of Buffalo as a pre-medical student, found she wasn't suited to this field, and some years later was graduated with a degree in accounting. This strange situation had to do with conforming to her father's wishes.

BUT THROUGHOUT school the really important activities to her were acting in and directing plays, singing with a dance band and also studying opera and being on the girls' fencing and basketball teams.

She worked, acted and studied in theaters around Buffalo for three years, and it was while she was acting in a play directed by Dr. Talcott that she met her husband, a poet, playwright and actor who was teaching English and doing graduate work at Cornell University.

They were married in 1954 and went to New Orleans, where, while Andy was writing his first play, she acted in the Kittinger puppet theater in the French Quarter.

Both of them acted in Le Petite Theatre de Vieux Carre and the Gallery Circle Theater. At this time she starred with the noted television performers George C. Scott (who produced one of Andy's play) and Ed Nelson.

Deciding they wanted to live on the West Coast, they came to San Francisco to study with Walt Baptiste, who had a Yoga and health center there.

"WE LOVE the theater, but it isn't our driving force — that's to be whole people and whole means healthy," Nan explained.

For seven years while Andy, who is now a teacher in San Rafael's 3 R School, taught in private schools, Nan had her own theater school of mime in Baptiste's Academy of Integrated Arts and continued her study of Yoga and dancing.

A year ago in June, the Susacs moved to San Rafael, and their baby, Jenny, was born last January, becoming another experience contributing to her need to be a "whole woman, and affecting her thinking and working," says Nan.

"I believe my work is closer to nature and not so mechanical now, but I have to have more discipline," she said. "It would be so easy to slip into just a housewifely routine."

THIS IS HARDLY likely now that the Susacs have a studio in their home and hope to have their own mime theater. They are appearing in Andy's play, "Buffo and the Angel," Saturday nights at the Gallery through Dec. 22.

As an actress Nan feels she is now primarily a mime artist. This turn in her career was inspired by the great French mime Marcel Marceau. At first she used white face makeup like his "because it is a simple impersonal mask." But now she uses more of a Charlie Chaplin style makeup.

"I felt what I lacked and what the drama often lacked was the ability to meet the supreme test of being on the stage alone creating a whole world of props, scenery, music, or even words," she said.

NAN SUSAC will enact a series of bird pantomimes in the children's mime show to be given Dec. 15, 16, 22 and 23 at the Gallery in Mill Valley. Nan was photographed at the beach as she studied patterns of flight using sea gulls as models.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Parties To Precede Lagunitas Club's Formal Dinner Dance

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

The annual Christmas dance of the Lagunitas Club in Ross Saturday night will be preceded by a number of cocktail parties. Before the black tie affair the Jordan Martinellis Jr. are entertaining in their San Anselmo home. In Kent Woodlands there will be two pre-dinner parties. One will be given by the Philip McCoys and the other by the Frank Newtons.

THE CHRISTMAS Carousel, to be given for the benefit of Florence Crittenton Home, in the Fairmont Hotel tomorrow night will be attended by a number of Marin Florence Crittenton Circle members and their husbands. Mr. and Mrs. David Mushet of Belvedere and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Elbert Jr. of Strawberry will be at a table with Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Manheim of Tiburon and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor of Ross. They'll be joined by Dr. and Mrs. Craig Hope of San Rafael and Mr. and Mrs. Rae Smith of Ross.

Messrs. and Mesdames Richard Gross Jr., Gilbert Pavlevsky and Allen S. Feder of San Rafael will attend the dinner dance as will Mr. and Mrs. Michael Harrington of Ross.

The carousel is sponsored by the San Francisco Circle of the Crittenton Home. Yesterday 36 members of Marin Circle attended the luncheon given at the Belvedere home of Mrs. MacBoyle Lewis.

MR. AND MRS. Richard Lee Miller (Carol Christ) will entertain at a Christmas Eve party in their new Terra Linda home. The Millers, who have two children, Richard, 6, and Russell, 3, formerly lived in Corte Madera.

MRS. LEWIS A. CLAPP of Greenbrae leaves by train Dec. 12 for the east. She will stop in Chicago, Ill., to visit Mrs. John Keleher, sister of the late Mr. Clapp, and her husband. Mrs. Clapp may go to New York for a week and then she will stay with her daughter, Mrs. Barbara Riegle, and her five children in Atlanta, Ga., during Christmas and New Years. Barbara is with the news department of an Atlanta radio station. En route back to California Kay Clapp will stop over in New Orleans for five or more days.

CAPT. AND MRS. Donald S. Grant of Fairfax are awaiting the arrival of relatives from Illinois. Mrs. Grant's cousin, Mrs. Harry Faust, her husband and their daughter, Marie Lynn, of Glen Ellyn, are arriving Christmas Eve and will remain through the holiday season.

MRS. JUNE SHAW Haseltine of Ross will remain home for the Christmas holidays as her two sons will be with her. Chips is a sophomore at University of Oregon and Arthur, a junior at Humboldt Junior College in Arcata, will be home for the holidays. Missed from the family group will be June's daughter, Mrs. Lanser Hutchinson (Juneva Lanser), who is called Taffy, and her four youngsters, who live in Phoenix, Ariz. June was with Taffy and the children for Thanksgiving but as the children are so small, Taffy decided to remain home with them. Arthur was to have been an usher at the Marin Ball for the debutantes Dec. 20 but he has some mighty important finals at college so he had to decline the honor.

NEW HOME—Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston hangs a Santa Claus decoration which is handed up to him by his wife as couple moved into their new home in Chicago. The house is a three-story mansion in what was formerly the south side's millonaire row 35 years ago. (AP Wirephoto)

Championship Sports Inc. Not In Sonny Liston's Plans

CHICAGO (AP)—Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston moved into his three-story mansion surrounded by a wrought iron fence and announced Championship Sports Inc., will not promote any of his future matches.

Liston and his wife, Geraldine, were busy moving into the 21- room "castle" recently vacated by jazz pianist Ahmad Jamal while the champ was holding a press conference yesterday.

Liston, who won the title by koyoing Patterson in 2 minutes and 6 seconds of the first round in Comiskey Park last Sept. 25, said "If I meet Patterson again it will have to be under a different promotion and Baltimore stands a good chance of getting it."

Liston, who recently left Philadelphia in favor of Chicago, said if dethroned champion Floyd Patterson insists on that group as promoters of a return match, there will be no fight.

Liston said his adviser, Jack Nilon, would get in touch with Patterson in New York this week to discuss the details of a return match.

One of the reasons Liston wants no part of Championship Sports Inc., is because of the money. The champion explained the group gave him $25,000 for training expenses and $5,000 after the fight. But there remains a matter of $280,000 owed to him which the government has tied up.

Nebraska Will Oppose Miami In Cotton Bowl

NEW YORK (AP)—Rugged Nebraska will oppose Miami of Florida in the second Gotham Bowl football game Dec. 15, rescuing the post-season contest with time running short.

The match was completed last night when the Board of Regents and the Big Eight Conference approved acceptance of the bid voted by the Nebraska players.

Bowl officials were pleased by the acquisition of both the Miami Hurricanes, 7-3, and the Cornhuskers, 8-2, who are among the nation's top ten teams in passing and rushing, respectively.

Less than 15,000 fans watched Baylor defeat previously unbeaten Utah State in the first Gotham Bowl game last year.

Nebraska's decision left the National Trophy Bowl, Dec. 29, in Washington, D.C., as the only major post-season contest which has not completed its line-up.

"This is the game we wanted — and Miami wanted — all along," Bob Curran, director of the Gotham Bowl, said.

"Regardless of what may have been reported, the only two invitations submitted were to Miami three weeks ago and again Saturday night and to Nebraska."

Touch Football Hits As New U. S. Sport

NEW YORK (AP) — Touch football, often called the sport of the New Frontier, was thrust suddenly into the fore of the National Football Foundation's annual Hall of Fame festivities by no less a personality than Byron (Whizzer) White, associate justice of the Supreme Court.

Justice White, a former All-America at the University of Colordao and later a professional star halfback with Pittsburgh and Detroit, received the foundation's Gold Medal Award for outstanding contribution to football last night.

White tracing the history of football from ancient times until the present, Justice White suddenly changed his theme.

"Then came a major development—the game of touch football was popularized by a family in Massachusetts," he said.

The crowd of more than 1,500, including President Kennedy's brothers, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and Massachusetts Senator-elect Edward M. Kennedy, broke into laughter.

"The rules of the game are vague," continued Justice White and again the crowd laughed.

"The season begins in September on the banks of the Potomac and continues till May. Training is done on the sandy beaches of New England with the stipulation that the sand cannot be more than six inches in depth.

"I have never seen it because spectators are barred," he added, as the crowd roared again.

"But they say that even women are allowed to play.

"However, we will continue to watch developments of this game for some time to come."

Justice White, who was President Kennedy's first appointee to the Supreme Court, spoke out against the critics of football for demeaning the sport because of injuries.

"No game can carry on without accompanying dangers," he said.

Justice White also spoke out against "commercialization" and an uncontrolled "will to win."

Twelve new members were inducted into football's Hall of Fame. CAGE ROUNDUP

Duke Romps On South Carolina

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Art Heyman of Duke is confronted with an unusual obstacle in his bid for All-America honors—he tries too hard.

The chief charge leveled against the sharpshooting senior is that he sometimes gets too enthusiastic about his chores on a basketball court. As a result, he has gotten into occasional jams ever since his sophomore year for throwing punches instead of the ball.

But when Heyman devotes his many talents to basketball, there are few collegians who can rank as his equal. The 6-5, 205-pounder from Rockville Centre, N.Y., proved this once again last night when he scored 28 points to lead second-ranked Duke to a 95-63 romp over South Carolina.

EXPECTED WINS

The two other nationally ranked teams which saw action last night also came through with expected victories. West Virginia, No. 4 in the first weekly United Press International rating, trounced V.M.I., 100-74, and sixth-ranked Mississippi State opened its season with a convincing 90-55 triumph over Arkansas A&M.

Although Heyman scored twice as many points as anyone else on his team, the Blue Devils still showed a well-balanced attack with five men hitting in double figures. Joining Heyman were Dennis Ferguson and Fred Schmidt with 14 points each, Jay Buckley with 13 and Jeff Mullins with 11.

EARLY LEAD

Duke got off to an early lead and South Carolina never was able to present a serious threat. The Blue Devils stayed hot throughout and hit on 67.2 per cent of their shots.

Heyman has a good chance to replace current baseball star Dick Groat as the leading scorer in Duke history. Groat, who finished his collegiate career in 1952, totaled 1,886 points. Heyman entered his final season with 1,237 points and is third on the Duke all-time list.

West Virginia also had all five of its starters score in double figures, with guard Jim McCormick leading the attack with 22 points. Gale Catlett followed with 17 points, Rod Thorn had 15, Tom Lowry 12 and Mike Wolfe 11.

TOPS SCORERS

The Mountaineers, who jumped off to a 9-0 lead in the first two minutes of play, hit on 36 of 66 floor shots for a 56 per cent average. However, it was junior guard Bill Blair of the Keydets who topped all scorers with 26 points.

In other top games, Notre Dame broke a tie with less than two minutes remaining to top Michigan State, 92-85; Vanderbilt handed Rice its third straight loss, 80-68; Miami of Florida staved off a late rally to beat Boston College, 72-69; Bradley trounced North Dakota, 90-57; Georgetown stopped Maryland, 79-70, and North Texas State defeated Hardin-Simmons, 71-65.

S.F. Trades Tom Gola For Sears, Naulls

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Assn. today acquired versatile Tom Gola from the San Francisco Warriors for Willie Naulls and Ken Sears.

Gola, a six-foot-six former three-time All-America from LaSalle, had long been sought by the last-place Knicks. He achieved much popularity as a collegian in Madison Square Garden.

At present, the Knicks have won only six of 25 games in the N.B.A.

Naulls, former UCLA star, and Sears, who played at Santa Clara, return to the west coast where they reside and made their reputations as collegians. Sears, in fact, will be playing for his old college coach, Bob Feerick, who coaches the Warriors.

L. A. Lakers Dump Knicks 132-112 For 9th Straight

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

They laughed when an expert or two decided the Los Angeles Lakers would succeed the Boston Celtics as the No. 1 team in professional basketball this season.

Especially when the Lakers lost four of their first five games.

Now the Lakers have won nine in a row and 16 of their last 19, have pushed into a one-game lead in the National Basketball Association's Western Division with a 17-7 mark, and if there's a laugh left it's a faint chuckle.

Elgin Baylor, a fellow who makes even the most liberal expert look good, did the big job last night with a 43-point performance that buried the New York Knickerbockers, 132-112.

Three clutch free throws by Bob Ferris helped Detroit edge Syracuse 130-129 in the Madison Square Garden opener.

St. Louis, in the only other NBA action, stayed one step behind Los Angeles with a 104-102 victory over Chicago.

49er Staff Tuned In On Horror Show

The combined efforts of Frankenstein's monster and Dracula could not equal the horror show that 49er coach Red Hickey and his staff watched yesterday.

The San Francisco coaches watched movies of mighty Green Bay in action. The 49ers must face the league-leading Packers Sunday at Kezar Stadium. The Packers will be going all out because persistent Detroit is still only a game back of them.

Apart from the fact that beating the Packers would be most gratifying, Hickey would relish it because the 49ers would thus be guaranteed a .500 season.

EVEN RECORD

San Francisco is now 6-6 after winning their last three. Of course, Green Bay had won 18 straight games before Detroit dumped them 26-14 on Thanksgiving Day.

Hickey, taking note of the 5-2 road record this year, praised the system that has seen the 49ers practice in Redwood City and then fly to the site of a road game just before game time. In previous years, the Niners have stayed on the road for weeks at a time. This year, they have come home after each road contest.

Meanwhile, the 49ers have nosedived to a 1-4 record at Kezar.

Good Line Blocking Is Key To Tittle's Success With Giants

HANLEY

Jim Kensil is a fellow not known to the general public but he is well known to the sports writers covering the NFL beat. Jim's weekly football statistics uncover many pertinent stories and the one his columns of figures spotlighted this week deals with Y. A. Tittle and YAT's blocking crew.

"Blocking is the key to the Giants' leading pass offense," said Kensil who documented his statement with a set of convincing statistics that revealed Tittle, after 12 games, was tossed for only 109 yards minus attempting to pass.

In the same number of games, John Brodie of the 49ers was thrown for a net loss of 371 yards which leads the NFL's Western Conference in the minus department.

TITTLE PASSED the Giants to their second straight NFL Eastern Conference title last Sunday. But could the old Bald Eagle have been successful without Rosey Brown, Darrell Dess, Ray Wietecha, Greg Larson and Jack Stroud blocking for him? Or to put it another way, would Brodie be as effective with such blocking? It's an academic question since there is no way of proving it practically right or wrong.

Why have the Giants been able to give such good protection to Tittle?

"We worked on it," says Al Sherman, Giant coach. "We had to. When we went to camp our backfield situation was unsettled. We knew we had to depend on passing."

IN FOUR of their 12 games, the Giants did not lose a single yard passing. The most they lost in any one game was 22, last Sunday against the Bears.

"Tackles, not the guards, are the key men on pass blocking," says Sherman. "They must protect against blitzing linebackers on the inside and defensive ends on the outside. We have veterans at tackle in Brown and Stroud."

Sherman moved Stroud from guard to tackle early in the season and put Larson, a natural guard but a tackle last year, at guard. This placed Larson a hole closer to where he should be. Sherman believes it was a big help. Larson, in his second year, is being groomed as the eventual replacement for the veteran Wietecha at center.

"AND DON'T forget Joe Walton (the tight end) in the blocking," says Sherman. "Depending on what team we are playing, he often stays back and blocks as do our backs. We can send as many as five men down field, but the important thing is not how many, but whether Tittle will have time to hit them.

"Tittle, of course, is another reason why we haven't lost on passing. He has the feel of the situation and gets the ball off at the right time."

We think Brodie could too with the kind of blocking given Tittle.

S.R. Wins; Redwood, Drake Cagers Lose

The San Rafael High School cagers whipped Napa 41-36, Redwood fell to Washington of San Francisco 38-29, and Drake was edged by Vallejo 37-35 in Marin prep basketball action yesterday.

For San Rafael, it was Bill Pendergast who led the scorers in the game in the San Rafael gym as he scored 14 points. John Franzman, who hit from the outside on four shots to pull out the Napa defenders, scored eight points.

In Redwood's loss, coach Dick Hart pointed out Don Rogers, 6-3 center, and reserve Larry Wolfe played outstanding games. Hart used 15 men in the game to give all the cagers a chance.

The Redwood "B" team also lost its contest 37-19.

The Drake-Vallejo game was all tied up with only three seconds remaining when a Vallejo man dumped a shot to give the visitors the win. Lorry Glassi scored 10, John McBride scored eight and Larry Gaddy scored seven to lead the Pirate attack.

Larry Stein scored eight points as the Drake "B" team won 29-19.

Next game for Redwood will be Friday night at 7 o'clock against Livermore in the Redwood gym. The last time the two teams met—in the Tournament of Champions two years ago—Livermore won over the Giants by one point.

Drake will take on Santa Rosa, there, Saturday at 7 p.m. in the Pirates' next encounter.

Varsity line scores:

Napa	6	16	26	36
San Rafael	8	15	31	41
Vallejo	7	14	28	37
Drake	9	19	25	35

Tar Cagers Lose 74-50

The College of Marin Tars suffered their third loss without a victory when the Menlo basketballers dumped the Marin contingent 74-50 yesterday in Menlo.

Steve Bryant led the Tar scorers with 22 points. Charlie Bullock scored nine, and Dave Neumann and Randy Petrini each scored eight for the Mariners. The halftime score was 40-26, Menlo in front.

The Tars will try to gain their first win Friday when the cagers take on Chabot College at 8 o'clock in the Drake High School gym.

Conflicting Sets of Motives Cause Teen-Agers To Worry

"My teen-age sons worry a lot about sex," a father writes. "They confide in me. They're even more preoccupied with forbidden subjects than I was. Are all boys this way nowadays. What advice can you give them?"

Your sons are not unusual. Nearly all boys worry about sex, so do many girls. Your sons have two conflicting sets of motives within them. Their bodies are ready for reproductive activities. Their instincts impel them toward promiscuity. They are stimulated by advertisements, movies, books, magazines. If they do what comes naturally they'll be young wolves, always on the make.

But they also have consciences and know what is right and what is wrong. They have feelings for God and for the religious standards we've taught them. They realize that decent boys aren't on the make. Knowing that it will be years until they can marry and have a legitimate outlet to their sex drives, they're frustrated and worried. It is not easy for modern teen-agers to live up to their ideals. I have three suggestions for all well-raised teen-age males.

1. Try not to dwell upon sex. Try not to daydream. Divert your attention to school work or athletics or social activities. Preoccupation with sex exaggerates your problems.

2. Find your friends and your social life among decent kids. Avoid the ones who drink or pet, or go the limit. Church groups are the best groups of all.

3. Avoid situations in which your instincts will betray you. Don't go out with girls who have bad reputations. Don't park. Don't neck. Don't pet. Your reactions come like lightning. When you are aroused your judgment is weak. So play safe, always.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Is it more difficult for American teen-agers to stay decent nowadays than it was when their parents were in their teens?"—Mrs. J. N.

(A) I believe that it is. Today's teen-agers have to cope with an endless barrage of sexually stimulating pictures, movies, magazines, books. We were spared most of that.

Oehler Paintings On Display

While Mill Valley's noted artist Helen Gapen Oehler was on her trip to the south seas—from which she just returned last week—her work was being shown in three widely different places in this country.

Locally her oil "Fun" was one of the large canvases reproduced in the catalogue and displayed in the annual show of the Society of Western Artists at the De Young Museum in San Francisco. In New York City another oil, "The Pond," was being shown in the Allied Artists of America exhibit at the National Academy.

And one of her paintings of a scene she had done in Provincetown, Mass., has been added to the permanent collection there of Walter J. Chrysler Jr. It is in the museum he established to preserve records and documentary art of the art colony in Provincetown.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

Neat Editing By Sports Scribe; 'Another Domino' On Grid Horizon

Sports writer Walt Daley's new book, "San Francisco—Say It Isn't So"—almost put his boss, Sports Editor Roger Williams of the S.F. News-Call-Bulletin, in an embarrassing position.

Deciding it was fashionable nationally to pan San Francisco, Walt asked newspaper writers to voice their pet peeves and at the same time plug the city. The result was a breezy and sometimes punchy treatment of such subjects as night life, saloons, Candlestick Park, men, women, pigeons, etc.

Walt asked Williams to do the chapter on sports, and the loquacious Roger responded with tearful essay on the inability of the 49ers and Giants to win a pennant. It looked, he indicated, like the city was doomed to also-ran fate in pro sports.

Well, sir, then came the Giants' miracle finish to win the National League title just as the book was about to roll off the presses.

Grabbing his pencil and racing like a sprinter to the publishing house, Daley pulled off the niftiest piece of last-minute editing ever seen in these parts. Here's how he saved Williams' chapter by merely adding the following paragraph:

"But now all the sins of the past are repealed and the slurs and sarcasms quieted. The long drought ended when, on October the third, 1962, the San Francisco Giants became champions of the National League."

Whew!

DRAKE HIGH School freshman football coach Gordon Chan says Marin fans will be treated to some dynamic running during the next three years when his Dean Lazzarini graduates to varsity ranks.

"Throughout last season," Chan writes, "Lazzarini averaged 14.4 yards per carry. In our last game against the Redwood Frosh (we won 31-13), he scored four touchdowns, ran for 201 yards and an 18.7 average per carry. I really believe that Marin County fans will see another Warren Domino during the next three years. He'll be better than Domino!"

He was referring to Tam High's great back, Domino, who graduates next June.

Drake, by the way, tied for the Marin Freshman League title with Terra Linda.

MARIN BOWLING fans will be treated to some fast and fancy action at San Rafael's Country Club Bowl Saturday night when four outstanding keglers will stage an exhibition match.

The 10-game feature will match Jerry Hale of Bel Mateo Bowl and Joe Jacks of Vallejo against localites Harry Halloran and Zeno Gelatti.

Hale and Jacks both average better than 200, are members of the Professional Bowling Assn., and will compete in this year's Masters Championships.

Halloran, a salesman for Ames Ford in San Rafael, packs a 208 average; Gelatti, manager of Country Club, averages "only" 196.

They'll start their match at 8 o'clock.

McKEE'S brand new Hof Brau Restaurant on lower Lincoln Avenue in San Rafael will continue to sponsor charter bus trips to 49er games at Kezar, just as Jim and Bill McKee did from their Dugout Tavern.

The McKees closed the Dugout and opened the Hof Brau last week.

RON SNIDOW, the former San Rafael High star who was tabbed as All-Coast tackle at Oregon by the A.P. this week, was the third draft choice of the Washington Redskins in the pro grid player draft Monday. It was the highest any former Marin gridder had been drafted by the pros. Matt Hazeltine, formerly of Tam, was the 49ers' fourth draft pick in 1954.

WITH THE major college and high school seasons completed, here's how we fared in football predictions this season: 103 right, 31 wrong for a .769 average.

FOR THIS week's pro picks, we like the Green Bay Packers over the 49ers by 7 and Houston over Oakland by 14.

Ragan Moves Up In Pro Golf's Money Winnings

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Dave Ragan, winner of the West Palm Beach Open last week, moved up a notch in the list of top 10 Professional Golf Assn. money winners.

His $2,800 prize money put him in eighth position with a total of $36,327. He has now won two tournaments and finished in the top five nine times, according to figures released by PGA headquarters.

Jack Nicklaus also swapped places with idle Bill Casper by winning $730 at West Palm Beach. He moved into third place with a total of $61,868.

There were no changes in the status of leading money winner Arnold Palmer, who has $81,448 in earnings. He also was idle last week.

'PRIZE' DEER FOR MARIN HUNTER

William Curry of 145 Woodside Drive, San Anselmo, shows off the four-point "prize" buck he killed last month on a trip to Thayne, Wyoming. Curry was informed by a taxidermist that the buck's antlers were the 19th most perfect recorded in Boone and Crockett ratings for typical mule tale deer. In a point system devised to determine perfection of the antlers, Curry's kill registered 195 5/8th points while the all-time champion recorded was 208½ points. The buck field dressed at 225 pounds. Curry and his wife along with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dockery of Fairfax and Mr. and Mrs. John Slagle of San Anselmo hunted in Wyoming together and accounted for six deer, all four pointers. The trip was arranged by Gene Thompson of Western Sports Shop, San Rafael.

Arian Takes Big Lead In Mid-Winter Races

By ALFRED MATSON

Sunday, in the third regatta of the Corinthian Midwinters, Alian scampered across the finish line a comfortable four minutes ahead of second placer Triton. It was the second win in a row for the salmon pink sloop and, with a fifth place in the first race, Arian is firmly established on top for season's points.

The victory Sunday was accomplished the hard way. With the first mark of the course the outer degaussing buoy, Arian, like many others, fell victim to a wind shadow that extended westward from Alcatraz. Beset by a flood tide, the fleet was just so many ducks on a pond and going nowhere. But Arian gambled, fell off and sailed to leeward of Alcatraz where there was wind on the south side of the channel. Truly a handsome win under any circumstances, but significantly so, in this instance, as it was accomplished by a crew of ladies, albeit, all veteran sailors. Skippered by Sally Mathews, San Francisco Y.C., and crew list is Nancy Rogers, Ricki Treacy and Bobbie Healey; a knowledgeable coterie of gals, one must admit.

Despite a dreary, rain spattered morning, 109 yachts joined in the fray and, with a good breeze making up in the afternoon, there were few who did not finish. Several of the starts were enmeshed with confusion; the outer mark had to be left to starboard and a light breeze, coupled with a flooding tide, caused many to be penalized for offside. Then, too, with the first mark of the course in the opposite direction, more or less, an immediate tack was in order but, under the circumstances, not always possible.

The winners: Triton, Arian; Windward, Koolau; Hurricane, Random; Treasure Island, Manana; Electra, Sonatina; Junior Clipper, Aloha; Fleur Bleue, Tackless; Maya, Sacre Bleue; Folkboat, Filur; Rhodes 33, Caper; Knarr, Blue Peter; Bear, Trigger; Golden Gate, Lively Lady; Bird, Kittiwake; IC, Norena; Cruising Club, Leoda; Div. 9, Sumatra; Div. 10-11, Rampant; Div. 15-17, Wind; Div. 14, Woodwind.

Seals Add Man To Replace McNabb

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A new man will be in uniform for the San Francisco Seals when they meet the Portland Buckaroos in a Western Hockey League game here Friday night.

He's Donald Bamburak, a 23-year-old left wing who was conditionally purchased from Vancouver yesterday.

USC Tops Statistics In Big 6

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Southern California, the Big Six's unbeaten Rose Bowl representative, is the conference offensive and defensive football champion according to statistics released today.

Though UCLA has one game yet to play, the Bruins are too far behind to challenge in either department.

Southern Cal finished its regular season with a 327-yards-per-game total offense average and yielded just 238 on defense. Washington trailed by only a yard per game on defense.

Washington captured the rushing offense and rushing defense titles by gaining 251 yards each game while giving up just 117.

California was the passing champion with a 180-yard average.

UCLA leads in pass defense with a 100-yard average but could lose the title to Southern Cal if Syracuse gains 143 yards or more against the Bruins Saturday. USC has a 104-yard average.

The conference champion Trojans finished as low as third in only one department, passing offense, where they averaged 139 yards per game.

667 Tops Keglers In Greenbrae Play

Jim Uren led the bowlers at Greenbrae Lanes last week with a 667 series which included a big game of 264, as he led the keglers both in series and individual game action.

For the women, it was Nikki Simonian who topped the bowlers as she hit for a 574 series and a 231 game during the Pinsters League to lead the gals in both game and series scores.

Last week's results were:

Limited Handicap — Jim Uren 264-236—667; Ken Carlton 212—583; Paul Nederamn 200—576; Jim Lassle 211; Sam Mahheimer 209; Bob Lee 209; Charles Kraut 202.

Greenbrae 860 Scratch—Charles Kraut 211-213—618; Red Day 201-214—586; John Mallon 204—583; Bob Nadolski 579; Harry Richards 202; Walt Carter 202.

CCPT Board Gives Okay For Music Scholarships

The board of managers of California Congress of Parents and Teachers, meeting in Los Angeles, approved granting of four music scholarships for 1963-64. This is the first time music scholarships have been given under the honorary life membership projects, and they will be given to qualifying students who plan to teach music in the California public schools.

Mrs. George Alpers of San Rafael, special education chairman, reported that 38,700 students in the 188 school districts that chose to participate, were involved in the first year of the program for mentally gifted minors.

The program was authorized by the 1961 legislature following a three-year study by a state advisory committee to the superintendent of public instruction. Mrs. Alpers is a member of the committee as the representative of the CCPT.

The six types of program carried on were: 1. Enrichment in regular classes (extra work, depth, research projects), 2. Mail courses or special tutoring, 3. Acceleration, 4. Part time college classes in special courses (specifically for high school pupils), 5. Special counseling or instruction outside of classes, and 6. special classes organized for gifted pupils (part of the day).

PRESIDENT'S CHOICE

Chicken Breasts, Noodles

NEW YORK—President Kennedy's favorite dish is Chicken Breasts with Noodles, despite published reports listing other recipes as the first choice in entrees at the White House.

In Second Helping, the Women's National Press Club Cookbook, the presidential preference is listed as Beef Stroganoff, but The Insider's Newsletter says the President gallantly made the substitution for his real favorite only because both he and the First Lady submitted chicken recipes to the publishers.

Here's the recipe for a dish fit for a President:

(1) Eight chicken breasts, seasoned with salt, pepper, marjoram, sauteed in butter until done. (2) Dice 3 lbs. fresh mushrooms, season with salt, pepper, saute in ½ lb. butter. (3) Prepare 12 oz. noodles, strain, mix with heaping T. butter. (4) Make 2 cups medium creamsauce, combine with 1 cup chicken stock, cook until mixture thickens. (5) Prepare 1 cup Hollandaise sauce, mix with cream sauce, add ½ cup dry white wine. (6) Butter casserole; place noodles on bottom, top with mushrooms, then chicken breasts; pour sauce over all. (7) Heat in 325 degree F. oven about 45 minutes. (8) Sprinkle generously with grated Parmesan cheese; brown quickly under broiler. Serves 8, depending on size of the chicken breasts; 12 breasts may be used without increasing other ingredients.

Snappy Gravy

If yours is a meat-and-potato family, enjoy this easy-to-do gravy made with drippings from beefburgers or chops. Stir into drippings a generous amount of catsup, a little Worcestershire, a dash of Tabasco and plenty of instant minced onion straight from the container.

Dandy Date Delights For Holiday Serving

Holiday cookie-making won't be complete until you've made "Ginger Date Crispies" at least once. The family is bound to deplete the supply fast but try to save some of these cookies for friends who drop in during the festive season.

Small pieces of fresh California dates, bits of semi-sweet chocolate and chopped candied ginger give these attractive treats unusually distinctive flavor. They would be ideal Christmas gifts for neighbors.

When using fresh California dates in preparing cookies, cakes, candies and stuffed delicacies, remember that they now come pitted in pound and half-pound packages and are found on grocery store shelves as well as in produce sections of stores.

If you buy unpitted dates, simply snip along one side with kitchen scissors and flip out the pit. For holiday parties, stuff pitted fresh California dates with an assortment of fillings—softened cream cheese (then rolled in colored sugar or gelatin powder, if you like), Cheddar cheese cubes, miniature marshmallows or colored gumdrops.

GINGER DATE CRISPIES

2 cups fresh California dates
⅓ cup shortening
⅓ cup butter or margarine
½ cup brown sugar, packed
2 eggs
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon vanilla
¾ cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces.
¼ cup chopped candied ginger

Cut dates into small pieces. Cream shortening and butter well; beat in brown sugar. Beat in eggs until light. Sift flour, salt and baking powder together. Stir into butter mixture. Stir in vanilla, date pieces, chocolate and ginger. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto a greased cookie sheet. Flatten cookies with bottom of a glass dipped in sugar. Bake in 350 degree (moderate) oven 12 to 15 minutes, until golden brown.

Makes about 4 dozen cookies.

Next-Day Turkey

That leftover turkey will disappear with gusto when served in California avocado half-shells. Combine diced turkey, chopped celery, sliced olives and slivered almonds with your favorite salad dressing. Cut avocados lengthwise into halves. Remove seeds and skin and sprinkle with lemon juice. Mound salad into avocados and serve with hot soup and muffins.

King Gingerbread To Reign At Saturday Cookie Carnival

The fragrant scent and sight of home baked foods will entice the young and old at the annual Cookie Carnival to be presented by the San Rafael Ward Relief Society of the Latter-Day Saints Church on Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

King Gingerbread will again reign over the Carnival which will feature cookies made with butter. Snowballs, Thumbprints, Raggedy Prune Bars, and old fashioned sugar cookies will be among the large variety of cookies for sale. There will also be an assortment of nut and fruit breads, applesauce cakes, fruit cakes, and homemade bread and rolls from Mormon Pioneer recipes. The Candy Shop will have English Toffee, spiced walnuts, divinity, fudge, and peanut brittle.

THE BOUTIQUE, according to Mrs. Neal Sorenson, general chairman of the Cookie Carnival, will have gifts such as button on toys, Christmas stockings, bean bags, crocheted poodles, and huge tote bags, all hand made by the Relief Society members.

There will be fresh hot popcorn for the children and a continuous movie cartoon program. Lunch will be from 11:30 a.m.

The Carnival is open to the public. The Chapel is located on Bon Air Road at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Kentfield near Greenbrae.

MRS. EDWARD Morgan is president of the Relief Society. Committee Chairmen are Mesdames Clifford Marshall, Frank Hunsaker, Fred Woods, William Myers, Allan Judson, and Max Kimball.

The recipes for Mrs. Edward Morgan's Raggedy Prune Bars and Mrs. William Deaver's Mincemeat or Date Crescents are:

Cranberry Cottage Pudding New Recipe For Holidays

Good cooks everywhere enjoy the game of giving new twists to old recipes.

Latest addition to these recipe ranks: Cranberry Cottage Pudding.

This dessert is an unassuming ending to a family meal. Lemon sauce, tangy with the rind and juice of the fresh fruit, is its traditional partner.

When I was a little girl, cottage pudding was sometimes served for Sunday dinner. It went into the oven when the roast came out so it could be rushed to the table while it was piping hot, bursting with freshness. The lemon sauce was passed in a gravy boat with a matching china ladle, and we children helped ourselves to copious amounts. Your small fry will probably do the same!

CRANBERRY COTTAGE PUDDING

2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups coarsely chopped fresh cranberries
1½ cups sugar
⅓ cup butter or margarine
2 eggs
⅔ cup milk

Sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. Mix cranberries with ¼ cup of the sugar. Cream butter and remaining 1 cup sugar; beat in eggs thoroughly, one at a time. Stir in flour mixture alternately with milk, fold in cranberries. Turn into well-greased lightly floured baking pan (9 by 9 by 2 inches). Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 1 hour or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cut in squares in pan and serve hot with Lemon Sauce.

LEMON SAUCE

½ cup sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup boiling water
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons butter

In a saucepan stir together thoroughly the sugar, cornstarch and salt. Gradually stir in water, keeping smooth. Cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until slightly thickened and clear. Stir in, off the heat, the lemon rind, lemon juice and butter. Serve hot.

Simple Dip To Have Ready Just In Case

Holiday time brings in visitors—often unexpectedly. Here's a simple dip you can have ready—"just in case." For variety, use yogurt instead of sour cream.

TOASTED ONION AND SOUR CREAM DIP

1 cup of dairy sour cream
1½ tablespoons of instant toasted onions
3 teaspoons of beef stock base
½ teaspoon of Worcestershire sauce
Dash of cayenne pepper

To the sour cream add toasted onions, beef stock base, Worcestershire sauce and cayenne. Let stand for 1 hour for flavors to blend. Serve with potato or corn chips, crisp crackers or chilled raw vegetables.

EVERY ONE A CORNISH CROSS CHICKEN

...Especially fed to give richer, tastier flavor!

Now you can enjoy the true flavor and succulent goodness of fine corn fed Cornish fryers—bred, fed, and cared for till that day when they are exactly the right size, then processed and rushed to your market FIRST DAY FRESH.

No longer need you settle for fryers which have spent several days travel time from Arkansas or Mississippi. (Three out of four fryers eaten in California are trucked from Southern states.) Instead, insist on Foster Farms fryers, grown by us in the San Joaquin Valley, processed by us and sold by many quality conscious markets.

How can you be sure of getting these tasty young birds, which are delicious for frying, barbecuing, or roasting? Just insist on the Foster Farms label which is attached to the wing.

SPORTSMAN IN WHEEL CHAIR

Dystrophy Victim At College

Although he goes to college in a wheel chair, baseball fan Stephen Ross is captain of a team that, for skill and devotion, rivals any baseball club in the land.

Steve's team, larger than the Giants, includes a bleacherful of College of Marin classmates, teachers, parents, neighbors, his therapist at Marindale School, and the Muscular Dystrophy Assn.

"Without the help of his friends, Steve simply couldn't go to college," said his mother, Mrs. H. J. Ross of Kentfield. "The other students are always there to give him a boost up the stairs and see that he gets to his classes on time even if it makes them late to theirs. The teachers are very understanding.

Stephen, 20, has had muscular dystrophy since he was 3, and has been confined to a wheelchair for 12 years. (The Muscular Dystrophy Assn. provides the chairs and other essential equipment.)

But Steve is a sportsman despite his handicap. He and his wheelchair have gone camping in virgin forests, fly-fishing in sky-high Soda Creek above Feather River, salmon-fishing in foul weather off the Oregon coast. At home and in season he rarely misses a baseball game, swims with his friends in his own back yard, plays chess, dominos, bridge, and the piano.

He's an enterprising merchant, too, with a thriving Christmas card business. Even five years ago, business was so good that Steve bought his half of a boat he and his father have used for lake fishing.

"He's busy every minute," says his mother, who finds "keeping up with Steve" a challenging and fulltime job.

When he was 8, Steve wanted to be a cowboy. His greatest triumph was a horseback ride with five other boys. Steve was strapped to the saddle, but he felt like a "working cowboy."

Now, a serious college student, Stephen Ross wants to be an architect, and works toward this end by studying hard, reading, and drawing everything in sight.

For Stephen and his hopes, and for those of the 200,000 other victims of this crippling disease, the Muscular Dystrophy Assn. maintains research centers and clinics.

The Marin Chapter of MDAA, headed by Paul J. Patocchi of San Rafael, will close its current drive for funds Friday with a sale at Village Fair in Sausalito.

Tiburon Peninsula Chamber to Install

Officers for 1963 will be installed tomorrow at the noon meeting at the Dock Restaurant of the Tiburon Peninsula Chamber of Commerce, according to Stuart D. Burt, manager.

Reports by the harbor committee on highway expansion, Angel Island State Park expansion and the plans of the Tiburon Tidelands Co., will be presented.

Contributing Charge Against Man, 28

Alvin Lee Billbe, 28, of 128 Harbor Drive in Black Point, was jailed Tuesday night by Noxato Police Sgt. Robert Di Grazia on suspicion of contributing to the delinquency of a 16-year-old boy.

Billbe was freed on $525 bail and is scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court Friday afternoon.

POPULATION FETE

County Is Mixed On Brown Holiday

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has proclaimed Dec. 31 a holiday for state employees, in recognition of California's passing New York to become the most populous of the 50 United States, but his proposal that cities and counties do likewise got a mixed reception today in Marin.

"Is population something to celebrate or deplore?" San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis asked. "I don't know."

However, McInnis said he would have the matter put on the council's agenda for consideration at its next meeting, Dec. 17.

Walter R. Castro, chairman of the county board of supervisors, also said the governor's suggestion would be discussed.

Supervisors will talk about it Tuesday, he said.

Governor Brown's claim that California has exceeded New York in population has been thought premature by many. Brown made the claim Nov. 17, but the federal census bureau has not yet confirmed it.

Most city officials reached today said the councils would probably consider the proposed holiday at their next meetings.

Mayor W. E. Radtke of Fairfax said he thought it would be only fair for city employees to get a holiday if state workers were having one.

"After all, it's not as if the city will stop running," Radtke said.

Contractor Director Installation Tomorrow

John O'Connell of Kent Woodlands will be installed tomorrow as a director of the Associated General Contractors of America, to the board of which he was recently elected.

O'Connell is a vice president of the Bechtel Corp. and a former president of the Marin County Hospital District board.

Expense Account Living Proving To Be Pretty Lively Corpse In U.S.

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Expense account living is proving to be a very lively corpse.

It was pronounced dead when the Internal Revenue Service announced tight new rules for deducting a lot of such items from income tax returns.

The business lunch and the night out at the girlie shows were called doomed. But like a lot of other aspects of the American way of life that have been counted down and out, this form of free enterprise seems likely to be around for awhile. A bit tamer, maybe, but as a way of doing business still right in there.

The IRS crackdown, along lines decreed by Congress, brought more cries of pain and alarm than even the much lamented profit squeeze. Both get business right where it hurts.

And now the IRS is relaxing some of its rules and assuring businessmen they still can eat while talking business, even can take likely customers to a show, providing all concerned realize that it is financial type business that is the order of the evening.

The business lunch is subject for debate in corporate as well as tax collecting circles. Some company treasurers think executives eat awfully well while mulling over problems with their colleagues, competitors, customers, supplies, or branch office counterparts.

But the business lunch apologists have some answers ready. For one thing, the phone doesn't ring while they're talking—unless they're impressing their guest by having a phone brought to the table at a swanky beanery.

And a tough customer gets more genial after a cocktail or two and a gourmet lunch. Also, say the business lunch enthusiasts, often that's the only time they can talk to their man, protected as he is the rest of the day by secretaries, colleagues sticking their heads in the door, and by a waiting room full of potential competitors.

Finally there's the matter of good will. This is the hardest to explain to the tax collector. But if the business lunch guest goes home filled with kind thoughts for his host as well as with good food, days or weeks or even months later he may come forth with a highly desired order. Or he may give his erstwhile host a tip that can be translated into dollars and cents.

Right or wrong, taxable or not, it's a way of doing business. And large segments of American business—from a small town store's dress buyer to the president of a billion-dollar corporation—use it.

Assemblyman Advises CCPT Concentration On Important Bills

Assemblyman William Bagley, Marin County, advised members of the Fourteenth District of Parents and Teachers to concentrate on one or two important bills, work hard for them, watch their course in committee, note whether the content or intent of the bill has been changed in the progression, and know your assemblymen and senators and their stands on education bills.

Speaking at the group's meeting Thursday at Terra Linda High School, he said that of the 80 million dollars increase in state welfare expenditures over the last two years, nearly one-half could have been diverted to educational purposes. Progress could also be made in textbook selection by adoption of methods giving local districts leeway in their own selection with cooperation of the State Board, rather than mandatory selection. Bagley said that he thinks a balance is needed in allotment of tax monies, which can be effected by groups which realize that when faced with one need they can cut down on some other bill and press for the more important.

CONDUCTING THE panel discussion on "Legislation In Education" with Bagley was Mrs. Doyle Hoffman of El Monte, and Mrs. Malcolm Finley of San Rafael, both legislative advocates for the board of managers, CCPT.

Mrs. Hoffman described advocates' work in Sacramento and outlined their platform: Interested in local control of school districts, high educational standards for teachers, adequate teacher salaries, school finances, favoring broad tax structure, schools have first call on state money, encourages reorganization of districts where it would better serve educational needs of children, elected or appointed State Board of Education, which in turn elects or appoints state superintendent of education by a method which avoids partisan or political control, supports counseling for divergent youth, opposes lowering age limit of school attendance, favors investigation of "diploma mills."

MRS. FINLEY ADVISED P-TA members to study education bills, send their recommendations to their advocates to be presented to the legislature in order to assure proper presentation.

Mrs. Robin Galloway of Kentfield, district president, conducted the meeting for the seven councils, out-of-council members and guests.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Two Couples To Usher In Holiday Season With Party

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Dr. and Mrs. John Cann and Barbara and Hodge Davidson are co-hosting a holiday cocktail party tomorrow night at the Meadow Club. They've invited about 150 friends to celebrate the beginning of the holiday season with them.

WILLIAM H. PATCHING of San Rafael has been introducing his bride, the former Mrs. Irving Charles Olson of West Los Angeles, to his friends. The couple exchanged nuptial vows at St. John's (Presbyterian) Church in West Los Angeles, Nov. 12, Rev. Richard Irons officiating. The couple honeymooned in Santa Barbara.

In the wedding party were the bride's only daughter, Mrs. Howard Hagerty of Westdale, and her husband, and Mr. Patching's daughter, Miss Patricia Patching, who is teaching in Fresno. He has another daughter, Mrs. George Allan of San Rafael. The new Mrs. Patching lived in San Mateo until she moved to Southern California 10 years ago. The Patchings are residing in San Rafael.

A DINNER PARTY was given recently by Mr. and Mrs. John Bridgman at their Belvedere home honoring Eugene Zuckert, Secretary of the Air Force, who was Jack Bridgman's classmate at Yale. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Hickey Jr., (Julie Bridgman) and Jack's cousin, John Ward Mailliard III.

WHEN THE BEAUTIFUL general reading room in Schubert Hall, the new library of the California Historical Society of San Francisco is christened tomorrow at a gala champagne party, present will be several Marin members who have a personal interest in the new hall. The reading room was named for John Hamilton Still, great grandfather of Mrs. Bayard Brooks Herrick of Loch Lomond. The memorial reading room commemorates the early California activities of John Hamilton Still. He had the first book store in San Francisco close to Portsmouth Square and the first book store in Sacramento. Mr. and Mrs. Herrick will be accompanied to Schubert Hall by their 14 year old daughter, Bayanne, a freshman at Katharine Branson School. The Herricks have two sons, Brooks Herrick, 11, who attends Cathedral School for Boys, and Crowell, 5, a kindergartner. Mrs. Herrick's cousin, Mrs. William Ely Chambers of New York and her husband are flying west for the dedication of the Still reading room and will entertain a few friends at dinner at the Sheraton-Palace after the event.

Also present at Schubert Hall dedication will be Mrs. John E. Cahill (Peggy Kennedy) of Kentfield and her husband. Funds for the Map Room in Schubert Hall were provided by Peggy's mother, Mrs. Gerald D. Kennedy, and her four daughters, Mesdames Cahill, Jeremy Cole (Geraldine), Harold Cookson (Katherine) and St. George Holden (Moira) in memory of the late Mr. Kennedy.

Schubert Hall, the impressive Pacific Avenue mansion, former home of the late Mrs. Adolph Uhl, is adjacent to the California Historical Society's headquarters on Jackson Street.

DELTA GAMMA ALUMNAE who live in Marin, and their husbands gathered at the annual holiday dinner party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ribar in Kent Woodlands. Each member brought a Christmas gift for a child in the San Francisco family which Delta Gammas in the Bay Area sponsor. There are three blind youngsters in the household, and since Delta Gamma's international philanthropy is aid to the visually handicapped, this family is particularly close to the alumnae groups.

Attending the party were Dr. and Mrs. John Degenhardt, Messrs. and Mesdames David Cook, John S. Hoffmire, Raye Murray, Robert DeVillriss, Howard McGill, Frosty Winter, John Ross, Robert Joses, H. Nordmark Williams, Richard Clarke, William Brooke, Allen Feder, James W. Fahrner, John B. Crawford, Conrad Tenney, William Ballard, Russell Baker, Thomas Bahrens, Donald Lamp, Lionel Stott, Dale Brook, of Marin, and from Sacramento Mr. and Mrs. Benton Sparks, formerly of Mill Valley.

THE ARTIST, Joseph Moyer of Palm Desert, and his wife were honored at a cocktail party and supper Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hitchcock at their Sausalito home. It was an opportunity for the artist to show his paintings to the Hitchcock's friends. Among the guests were the William Pomeroys of Sausalito, who have an art gallery in San Francisco.

She Goes To Jail For Food

OROVILLE (AP)—Mrs. Esther Jenkins, 40, formerly of Chicago, threw a rock through a big glass window Tuesday night so she and her two daughters would be fed.

She was sentenced yesterday to 30 days in the Butte County jail after pleading guilty to malicious mischief.

In the same jail was her husband, Donald W. Jenkins, 46, serving a sentence for drunken driving.

ROOF, FOOD

"It was the only solution," the tiny, rust-haired Mrs. Jenkins told a newsman. "It is better than starving. At least I and my two daughters have a decent roof over our heads, and food."

The daughters, Penny, 17, and Pamela, 16, were taken to juvenile hall.

Mrs. Jenkins said Penny had undergone open heart surgery and doctors advised a milder climate, so the family came to California.

PICKING OLIVES

They found work picking olives and lived in a farm labor camp at Gridley.

Mrs. Jenkins said family funds ran out after her husband was sent to jail. She received $32.63 in county assistance, but no more because the family had not lived in the county long enough.

Mrs. Jenkins stood in front of a downtown hardware store Tuesday night with a one-pound rock in her hand.

Three men watched as she hurled the rock four times On the fifth attempt the rock smashed the $135 window.

Mrs. Jenkins turned to the men. "Any law abiding citizen would call the police," she said. "Why don't you? I want to go to jail."

One man sauntered to a telephone. Mrs. Jenkins waited until officers arrived.

After 30 Years At Same Location, Hoy's Making Way For Progress

After 30 years at 912 A Street, San Rafael, Hoy's TV Service has had to make way for progress—construction of Wells Fargo Bank's new building.

Lee and Don Hoy have moved to 1113 Second Street and will have their official opening tomorrow night and all day Saturday. Open house and prizes.

In addition to servicing radios, phonographs, hi-fi, stereos, recorders and television sets they will now offer for the first time many of these things for sale. New home has off-street parking; front part will be used for a salesroom.

The business was started by their father Ralph D. Hoy (now owner of Hoy's TV and Music Stores) in the days when service work was still included repair of the old wind-up phonographs. Lee and Don took it over about 1945.

ANOTHER OPEN HOUSE tomorrow afternoon will be at the new district office of the Farmers Insurance Group, at 4240 Redwood Highway, just south of the Fairchild Semiconductor plant. Agents Kelly Simpson, Dick Lee, Don Shank and Nick Lopina will be on hand to greet visitors.

DICK SALTZMAN who's known to some as a musician and to others as a furniture man and interior decorator, and manages to occupy long hours in both capacities, will open as Saltzman of Marin at 1011 Magnolia Street, Larkspur, on Jan. 5. This is the former location of Inter City Furniture.

Dick has been with his father and uncle at Saltzman Brothers, San Francisco, for the past 15 years and during that time has acquired extensive experience with all types of furnishings. Saltzman Brothers is now in the process of closing and selling out its stocks.

Saltzman of Marin, an entirely new operation, will handle lines of quality furniture and carpets, feature complete room displays and a mobil decorating service. Balcony will be devoted to some unusual displays, one of which will be a replica of Dick's own home in Villa Real.

Store is presently open, but stocks and decorating are not yet complete. John Wasserman of Mill Valley is in attendance, sometimes Mrs. Saltzman. Until the 15th, Dick is spending most of his time in San Francisco.

MOTORCRAFT—Studebaker has introduced a new Lark Standard series oriented toward the fleet buyer. Models include basic features of the Lark line but will not have all the trim detailing. Available in sixes and eights. . . . American Motors reached a record high output of Ramblers last week, using a partial third shift. This week the assembly line goes on a full three-shift, six-day basis to match demand for 1963 models. . . . Generally, the auto boom has cut inventories of many dealers, with customers waiting three weeks or longer for delivery of some models.

BIG BUSINESS — There are more than three times as many beauty shops in Marin County as men's barbershops, and almost as many as there are practicing attorneys — about 100. All of them added together just about equal the number of Marin County real estate offices.

Time Extension Asked On Small Boat Harbor

An extension of time within which to complete a previously authorized small boat harbor in Corte Madera Creek has been asked of the Army Engineers by Albert von der Werth Sr. of 105 East Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Greenbrae.

The project is near the bay about half a mile downstream from the bridge carrying Highway 101 over the creek. Revision of plans is the reason given for the desired time extension on construction of a bulkhead, installation of mooring facilities and dredging about 60,000 cubic yards of material to be deposited shoreward of the bulkhead and behind levees on the opposite side of the creek.

Any objections to time extension may be stated, on navigational ground only, in triplicate to the engineers at 180 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco, by next Jan. 4.

Yes, There Is A Real St. Nicholas, And His Goodness Is Well Known

By LOUIS CASSELS
U.P. International

Yes, Virginia, there is a real St. Nicholas. And today is his feast day on the church calendar.

St. Nicholas lived a long time ago, and the historical facts of his life have been heavily interwoven with legend. But we do know that he was elected bishop of Myra, a city in Asia Minor, in the year 325 A.D. And he was one of the church fathers who took part in the first Ecumenical Council in history, held at Nicaea in the same year that he became a bishop.

Legend holds that he came from a wealthy family and that his parents died when he was young. He inherited a large fortune, and decided to spend it unselfishly in making other people happy.

Many stories have been handed down about his kind deeds, which were always done as secretly as possible.

Once he learned that a poor man had three beautiful daughters who could not find husbands because they had no dowries. Under cover of darkness, Nicholas stole up to the man's house and tossed a bag of gold through the window. Their dowries provided by their unknown benefactor, all three girls were soon married.

Although it is impossible after 16 centuries to separate fact from fiction in the tales about St. Nicholas, it is obvious that he must indeed have been a person of rare kindness and generosity. Legends do not grow up around a man unless he's pretty extraordinary.

The good bishop of Myra was so revered by the people of his time and place that he was proclaimed a saint soon after his death. His fame evidently reached far beyond Myra, because a basilica was built in his honor at Constantinople.

The stories of his generosity were widely circulated over the early Christian world, and gave rise to a custom of giving anonymous gifts to children and the poor. On Dec. 6, the day which the church set aside to honor the memory of St. Nicholas, whom they called "Sint Klaes."

On American tongues, "Sint Klaes" gradually became "Santa Claus."

School Board Serves Long Hours With Small Rewards

There are many unsung heroes and heroines in public life who deserve praise. But none are more deserving than school board members. Shall we look at their jobs?

School board members work like dogs. They're on call 24 hours a day, 365 days of the year. They attend long meetings, plodding their way through hundreds of problems and making decisions. Every decision upsets some people. If they promote a teacher to a principal, he'll be happy. But a dozen disappointed candidates will be sore. If they back up a teacher who has whipped a child, parents will call them enemies of youth. If they don't back up the teacher, pedagogues will accuse 'em of bad faith. Have you noticed that critics of the school board are noisy?

School board members must master many things. When new schools are needed, board members must study land values, construction costs, architectural problems, and labor laws. A budget must be adopted. So members must know cost accounting, population trends, appraisals, and legal requirements. Many new services for children are requested. Board members must decide whether psychological help is more important than visual aid equipment, or vice versa. And when organization problems emerge, board members must become experts in public administration.

Their reward? Usually it is only the knowledge of a job well done. School board members receive very little recognition; there are no financial returns. The position isn't a stepping stone to higher office, but board members love children, and want to serve them. Board membership gives them a chance to help our boys and girls. That is all they seek. We parents should unite in saying thank you, school board members!

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Are school board members elected or appointed?"
Mrs. B. W.

(A) In some states they are elected; in others, appointed. I think the better plan is to elect them to office. Then there is less chance of a political boss getting control of our schools.

Gold Star Mothers Hold Installation

Mrs. William Armstrong was recently installed to serve her second year as president of the Marin Chapter of American Gold Star Mothers.

Other officers who will compose the executive board under Mrs. Anderson are Mesdames Ruth M. Jones, first vice president; Ethel Jordan, second vice president; Henry R. Sanborn, recording secretary; Henrietta von Staden, treasurer; Grace Barry, chaplain and custodian of records; George T. Carpenter, sergeant-at-arms; William Anderson, flag guard; Marie Westlund, historian, and Sarah Allen, corresponding secretary.

Members have started annual charity activities, which will be distribution of small knee robes for patients in veterans hospitals, and decorated tins of candies to be distributed by the Red Cross.

Ingredient Missing From Brown's Schools Chief Plan

In the wake of the bitterly fought state superintendent of public instruction election, Gov. Edmund G. Brown has announced himself as again favoring an appointive schools chief.

This isn't the first time the governor has favored making this job appointive. Formerly he felt the governor should appoint him, but now Brown says the superintendent should be appointed by the State Board of Education.

Appointment of the state superintendent makes sense, for he is primarily an administrative officer. And the appointment certainly should be by the board whose policies he is supposed to administer, the state education board. But one ingredient is left out of the governor's plan—the public.

At the present time, the only control the public has over their state school policies is by election of the state superintendent. They certainly took advantage of that power on Nov. 6 and declared in no uncertain terms the type of education they wanted their children to have.

Under the governor's plan, no member of the state officials directly guiding school affairs would be elective. The only influence the public could exert on schools policy would be through the governor. This would mean that school matters would become politically partisan, one of the things that most everyone wants to avoid.

There is a solution and it is this, rather than merely making the superintendent appointive, that we think the legislature should consider.

This isn't new, it's merely that the State Board of Education be made elective and the state superintendent appointive.

This would do several things. First, it would keep the voters in control of their educational system. Second, it would make the superintendent directly responsible to the elected board. Third, if the board were selected by some regional method, such is as used by the State Board of Equalization, no candidate would have to make the tortuous, state-wide campaign which so discourages state superintendent candidates now. Fourth, by electing board members, the public would be much closer to their school planning and the members would be much more responsive to public concern.

It is our contention that schools should not be moved too far away from the public. Governor Brown's plan, which includes lengthening the terms of the members so that no governor could appoint a majority, moves it even farther away from those most concerned, the fathers and mothers.

We oppose making the state superintendent appointive unless and until the state board of education is elected.

Christmas Cards And Status Seekers

Who among us has such limpid blood that he has not looked at his healthy collection of Christmas cards and thought, what a fine fellow am I to have so many friends?

It is like benzidrine to the ego. One of the many blessings of the holiday season.

We would like to be above such shallow thoughts, but must admit to a certain warmth of feeling at each card. We are remembered and we feel good.

Perhaps it is status seeking. Or maybe it's just human nature.

MARIN LOOKS AT POLITICS

Will Less Than Half The Votes Select Our Next Congressman?

By CHAPIN A. DAY

One of the fascinations of politics is pre-election figuring, trying to decide how many people will go to the polls and who they might be. This is especially true in a special election like that facing Marin and other First Congressional District voters on Jan. 22.

'CHIP' DAY

The statistic is being tossed around that in a special congressional election like this, no more than 49 per cent of the voters have ever turned out in California. I have no proof of that figure, but I know of no instance where it has been exceeded.

Does that mean that less than half of the voters will decide our next congressman?

There are always mitigating factors. One, in this case, is the possibility that voters may still turn out "to pay tribute" to the late Clem Miller.

Another is that the battle may become so rugged and on such a high professional plane that an unusual interest will be created or that "professional" precinct workers will be paid by the parties to get out the vote, as was done in Southern California Nov. 6.

Then too, at least in Sonoma County something else will be on the ballot. Sausalito is considering using the election date too.

SONOMANS WILL be asked for the fifth time to vote on bonds to construct a new courthouse and jail. It will be a $4,390,000 bond issue, a duplicate of the one defeated last month by a 30,349 to 19,166 vote, just under 3,000 votes short of the needed two-third majority.

But will this hashed and rehashed bond issue draw out more voters? Nearly 10,000 fewer voters in Sonoma voted on the last bond issue than voted in the county's State Senate election. That doesn't show a fever pitch of interest.

HOW MANY VOTES will be needed to elect a congressman?

Let's see, there were approximately 200,000 cast in the general election, with Miller getting just over 100,000 and Don Clausen getting just under 100,000.

I'd make an estimate 60,000 votes would elect on Jan. 22. I'd wager that the winning candidate doesn't get that many X's and that if the two principal candidates get substantially the same number of votes, each will get well under that figure.

There's my limb and I'm out on it.

I DON'T KNOW whether you caught this political maneuver down in New Mexico.

The Republican governor was defeated for re-election. The Republican lieutenant governor didn't seek another term. But a Democratic senator had died, leaving a vacancy.

So the governor resigned just 32 days before the end of his term. The lieutenant governor became governor for the 32 days and as such appointed the ex-governor to the late senator's seat, which has two years to run.

And everybody was happy—except the Democrats who gnashed their teeth.

Hope Is Witness To Brotherhood

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I was delighted with Mabelle Speckmann's report of my talk on Project Hope (I-J, Nov. 30), because the Hope deserves and needs all the publicity and support it can get.

It is important, however, that one possible misconception be corrected. Project Hope is a non-sectarian, charitable organization, and on the ship medical personnel of many faiths and of no faith worked side by side with equal commitment.

It is perhaps understandable that I, speaking in a Christian church, would stress the opportunities for Christian service, but the Hope is an operation that all people can and do support, making, whether they know it or not, a splendid witness to belief in the brotherhood of all mankind.

In defense of John Kaufman and in opposition to Mr. Ryan's letter of castigation, I submit the following:

I believe that the concept of God and his person (undefined in Mr. Ryan's letter) as interpreted and exposed by the world's major religions and denominations therein have done more harm and inflicted more injustices upon the human race than a legion of John Kaufmans.

Only when the wisdom and philosophy of deism as expounded by Rousseau and Jefferson is accepted and practiced by beings the world over will this earth and its inhabitants truly experience and enjoy more peace of mind . . .

EDITOR,

On Nov. 29 you printed two letters bringing up that old dead horse fluoridation. I believe the issue is microscopic compared to a far more urgent and serious threat to us all—over-population.

With or without cavities, it is the increasing number of people that I worry about.

"Correct," nodded the demonstrator. "And perhaps you will explain it to the class exactly why it won't dissolve."

"Because," came the answer, "if it would, you wouldn't drop it in."

White House Now Controlling News Of Government To Great Degree

WASHINGTON (AP) — The shades are down, and have been for quite a while, on information the government is willing to make public. At this time they're not all the way down. They go down sharply in times of overseas crisis.

They did in both world wars, in the Korean War, when the American U2 plane was shot down over the Soviet Union in 1960, at the time of the disastrous Cuban invasion of 1961, and more recently in the Cuban tension of 1962.

The Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy administrations have all been involved—when there was crisis and when there wasn't any.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S administration got sharp news media criticism for its handling of information during the October-November Cuban affair. It began easing up on those particular restrictions when the heat died down.

Then late last week Rep. John E. Moss of California, a member of Kennedy's own Democratic party and chairman of the House subcommittee on information, hit at the President and his advisers for management of the news.

He cited examples of news restrictions not connected with Cuba or crises at all:

Restrictions on covering underground nuclear tests in Nevada, secrecy about all military space activities, a recent blackout on information about Russian satellite efforts although the Russians know all about their own satellites.

"TO A REMARKABLE degree," Moss said, "the White House itself is retaining direct control over the handling of government information. Important news-making events, ranging from a backstage greeting by Kennedy to members of Russia's Bolshoi Ballet to the bomb tests in Pacific are under firm presidential control.

"This is not all bad, nor is it all to the good. When we realize what sort of news management is going on in Washington today, we'd better start considering what—if anything—we're going to do about it."

Almost exactly a month before Moss, on Nov. 1, criticized the Defense Department for an order requiring all its officials to report promptly to the Pentagon's public relations office the substance of all interviews with newsmen.

Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense in charge of public affairs, had put out the order Oct. 27. Moss didn't budge him.

When the National Editorial Association on Nov. 17 passed a resolution protesting Pentagon news policies, Sylvester 10 days later replied there had been a "great deal of twaddle" about his order.

But the whole reason for news restrictions—or lack of reason—lies between war and twaddle, between necessity and nonsense. It takes these main forms:

Withholding news which truly might endanger national security. No one quarrels in such a case, when it's real. Sometimes it isn't.

Because it is arbitrary to call some information secret when it isn't necessary, there is an unrelenting need for public vigilance. This is the root of the endless dispute with government.

THEN THERE is the Sylvester system of compelling officials to report on their conversations with newsmen. This may help keep top Pentagon officials informed on what their subordinates are saying.

But it cannot help but discourage those subordinates from talking to newsmen altogether. Having to report on what was said means extra work and could cause them difficulty if the boss-man thinks they talked too much.

Withholding information is also one of the neatest ways to cover mistakes. Kennedy said his administration would not conceal its mistakes. He himself frankly took the blame for the Cuban invasion fiasco.

Yet, by his doing so, the public was deprived of knowing who among his aides goofed.

The House Government Operations Committee, parent group of Moss' subcommittee, said in 1960 secrecy is "the first refuge of incompetents."

THE VERY TIMES in which we live complicate and torture the problem of withholding news. It is understandable in wartime. It is not at all understandable in peacetime. But we are in a period that is neither war nor peace.

In short, this is a moment in history when the government can release more news than it could during war but less than it could in peace.

Presidents Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy have all had to order some restraints in this cold war period, but ever since Truman began it, the government has been criticized for pulling the shades down too far for the national good.

Cost Increase For Hospital Stay Follows Salary Boost For Workers

As announced by surprise Nov. 28, it will cost $2 a day more to be sick in Marin General Hospital after Jan. 1.

I say by surprise because though I'd heard pay raises were in the works I had gathered they wouldn't be announced until February—and room rent hikes were not forecast.

The local hikes followed raises negotiated by union leaders for the already higher-paid workers in San Francisco hospitals, which upped rent rates so they're still higher than in Marin.

MARIN GENERAL'S pay hikes will total $60,036 a year—twice the total of the largest earlier boost I could find. Asst. Administrator Tom Broderick says this hike, effective in July, 1960, was a blanket 3 per cent raise following a job analysis and reclassification. He says these rates totaled $39,000 a year and room rents then were hiked $1 a day.

The current salary hike, effective last Monday, is an adjustment raise (Broderick corrected hospital language of last week which termed it a "cost of living" hike) of about 5 per cent (but ranging to 10 per cent in some lower categories) to keep the hospital "competitive" with other hospitals in pay.

A VETERAN observer said hospital officials had the hikes in mind for some time but didn't announce them before the general election of Nov. 6 for fear "they wouldn't get their people (incumbent directors Marion C. Ibach and Dr. Wilson P. Goddard) re-elected." He added: "They all do that — hospital boards, school boards. Plan things—then tell the newspapermen when they think it's safe."

When I asked Broderick why the boosts were announced when I didn't know they were scheduled, he said, "We didn't know they'd be pushed forward this fast." He said the operations committee completed its study of the San Francisco raises earlier than expected.

Administrator Bill Turner had reminded me several times in recent weeks that the raises were under study. The study presumably was still uncompleted when the directors met last week.

In the background of the pay and rent raises is the problem of keeping a staff. One gathers from a report last week by personnel director Robert Mathews that workers check in and out of hospitals as though they were motels.

"Listed below," says Mathews' report to Turner, "is an analysis of turnover statistics which you recently requested. As you recall, the year 1959 was selected to compare with the current year because in that year an outside management consultant firm stated that turnover (54.9 per cent!) was comparable to the hospital industry."

MATHEWS THEN gave figures showing that turnover in 1962 fell to 42.6 per cent, a 12.3 per cent drop, which would tend to reflect favorably on Turner's administration. Turner took office in January, 1961; Broderick the following April.

Mathews suggested "dramatic improvement" in worker morale could be effected by spending money to start a recreation committee for employees. Directors said they'd study this.

CORTE MADERA Note: In approving final parking plans for the controversial Madera Village Motel, the Corte Madera Town Council found itself voting against the position of Town Mgr.-Engr. Arthur H. Brandow.

He opposed the plans because by the time space was found for 128 legal-sized parking spaces, two areas on the southern driveway were made into loading areas. Brandow regards these as traffic hazards.

He didn't volunteer his position or argue with the council as local motel investors stood by demanding action. He just said, "No," then gave a brief explanation when asked whether he liked the parking plans.

Fur For Youth

Little boys and girls having mamas and poppas with great big wallets are also decked in fur during this the furriest year in two decades. Fur on the collars, cuffs, and hems too of the swingy skirts on little girl's dresses created by Roman designer Zingone. Fur is too ticklish a situation for lads' suits, but it's warm and masculine on coat collars and caps.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK JOSEPH Cherne Jr., are photographed following their recent wedding at Peace Lutheran Church in Mill Valley. The bride, the former Paulann Ross, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ross Jr., of Mill Valley.

Be Careful Around Home With The Children Inside

When the winter rains begin and children are forced to stay inside, that's when accidents can happen.

We'd like to call your attention to a few of the many causes of accident so you will be alert and thus prevent a private tragedy of your own.

1. Keep plastic garment bags away from young children, they can stick to a child's face causing suffocation.

2. Keep all matches in metal containers and out of children's reach.

3. Never leave young children alone, even when they are asleep. It's safer to wait until the children are awake and take them along.

4. With young children in the house, all unused electrical outlets should be covered with receptacle safety caps.

5. Set the table with place mats rather than tablecloths that hang down over the edge. A toddler may easily tug on the tablecloth and pull a pot of hot coffee down on him.

6. Keep out of children's reach such chemicals as lye, bleaches, ammonia, insecticides, garden sprays, turpentine, kerosene, lead paint, home permanent wave solutions, cosmetics, moth balls, furniture polish, and all medicines.

7. If you have Venetian blinds, cut open the loop at the end of the cord used for raising and lowering the blinds. A child could easily get his head caught.

8. Keep knives and other sharp objects out of children's reach; turn handles of pans on the stove toward the back of the stove so children can't pull them down.

9. Choose toys with safety in mind, watch for sharp edges and small parts which may come loose and be swallowed.

10. When repainting a child's room, furniture or toys, use only paint containing less than one per cent lead.

11. Insist that skates and other toys which might cause falls are put away after use.

12. Remove ammunition before bringing guns into the house. Store ammunition and guns under lock and key.

13. For young children, have gates at both the top and bottom of stairs.

14. Before leaving children with a baby sitter; make sure the sitter knows house layout. Leave phone numbers to call in case of an emergency.

In Automobiles and On Highways:

1. If an adults holds a child in the right side of the front seat, the adult should wear a safety seat belt.

2. A child under age 3 should sit in a special child's seat attached to the back of the front auto seat. He should be securely strapped into the seat.

3. Children age 3 or over should wear safety seat belts when riding in the front seat. Firm pillows may be used to raise them enough to see out.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

THEY MET WITH A BANG

A new chapter of the ageless "boy meets girl" story was written not long ago in Oslo, Norway.

It began when a motorist struck a young woman at a busy street corner. He wasted no time in rushing her to the hospital.

During her recovery, he became a regular visitor. Later, he asked her to marry him and she agreed. They took their honeymoon in the car that caused the accident.

However varied or amusing may be the ways in which married couples first meet, the most important chapter of their life opens after they say "I do."

Bring home especially to these who are contemplating marriage the weighty life-long obligations involved as well as the joys.

The Lord will bless any and every effort you make to spread far and wide the true meaning of marriage.

If you do, there is no telling how many persons you will help to deepen and intensify their love as the years roll on.

"Now they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let no man put asunder."

(Matthew 19:6)

Help me, O Lord, to strengthen the ties of family life in every way I can.

The Wife Gets Breakfast In Bed —After She Fixes It For Herself

NEW YORK (AP)—A man's word is his bond.

For a long, long time I had been promising my wife, Frances, that on our silver wedding anniversary I would bring her breakfast in bed.

So when the great day finally came, I leaned above her by the dawn's early light, and tenderly asked "WHAT'LL YOU HAVE, DEAR?"

"Just orange juice, toast, scrambled eggs and bacon and tea," she murmured sleepily.

"Well, then, get up and fix it!" I told her.

"But all these years you promised you'd serve me breakfast in bed on our 25th anniversary," protested Frances. "Some years that prospect is about all that kept me going."

"I do intend to serve you breakfast in bed. But first you have to get up and cook it, don't you?"

But she padded out to the kitchen, fixed breakfast, then climbed back into bed, and I served it to her—according to plan.

Then, as married people do on such occasions, we fell to reminiscing about the past.

Frances remembered everything about our wedding at the "Little Church Around the Corner" here in 1937—who was there, what she wore, what I wore, who said what to whom.

All I could recall about the ceremony was that my bride brought me only a dowry of $100—we either had to forego having the candles at the altar lit, $2, or the organ music—was it $5 or $10?

"Our wedding dinner was spaghetti, meat sauce and a bottle of wine," said Frances. "It cost $2. I remember I had to lend you the money.

"AND THE bedstead in that quaint little hovel in Greenwich Village you brought me home to didn't even have legs. It was supported by four stacks of bricks."

Discussing our quarter century of marital experience, I asked my wife:

"What do you think now are the hardest years of marriage?"

"The first 25," she replied promptly, then added fervently, "I hope!"

ACTUALLY, the wear and tear of the years shows more on me than on her. I have grown fat and partly bald from weathering a depression, two wars and recessions.

But my wife, who had a streak of premature gray in her hair at marriage, now shows no sign of silver threads among the gold. Some years back her hair suddenly turned blonde and youthful looking overnight, an occurrence which is still known to other dwellers on our apartment house floor as "The miracle in Apartment 8-F."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

I Certainly Am Freeway Hater

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your editorial of Nov. 26 certainly applies to me. I am a freeway hater. I am a freeway hater who reads statistics and stories about freeway accidents and deaths in your newspaper.

I wish that we could exchange all of our "broad, limited access rights-of-way" for roads like the present Shoreline Highway. I'm not sure that this would make us more content, but it certainly would make us more numerous.

Medical Care Is Missing Factor

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

This is in reply to a letter you published Nov. 23 by Dr. J. J. Couacaud with reference to the British National Health Service and similar medical programs in the Scandinavian and other European countries which have been in operation for several decades.

These government financed medical programs have proved their value in these countries and won the enthusiastic approval of the majority of their people including those associated with the profession.

The situation which Dr. Couacaud describes "overcrowded hospitals, shortage of doctors and hours spent waiting at clinics" are ancient history. They were fairly typical before NHS was launched and for a time after the inauguration of the program. There is now no waiting list for acute or emergency cases which are admitted to all hospital immediately, and the waiting time on all other cases is determined by medical priority.

Because of stringent economic conditions after the war, it was not possible for the British government to finance any major buildings for its hospital service until 1955 when they took over 3,000 existing old hospitals. By remodeling 134 of these buildings, they increased the beds to 480,000. In addition, they have built 90 new hospitals and will spend two billion dollars during the 10 years 1958-1968 for further extension of the hospital service . . .

No longer does Britain have doubts as to whether the economy can afford such a comprehensive program. As one observer puts it: "The Health Service is not a money-consuming service; it is a wealth-producing service." Like education, medical care is viewed as one of the responsibilities of government. So much has it become a part of the British way of life that it would be difficult for the average Britisher to imagine what it would be like without those services that have contributed so much to his physical and mental well-being.

The burst of new vigor, enterprise and prosperity throughout Western Europe is closely related to the renewed health, energy and morale made possible by adequate medical care for the first time in history. It might indeed be the greatest social advance of this century.

For our own country, a program of this kind might well be the missing ingredient for restoring our lagging morale and rate of economic growth.

Woes Of World Belong On Man

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

John Kaufman, in his letter to your paper, Nov. 27, blames the wrong Being for the problems in this world.

It is the human being who is inhuman to man not the Divine Being.

If two thirds of the people in the world are on the verge of starvation it is because their fellow men are not willing to share their food with them. We all have free will and we can help each other or refuse.

John Kaufman, please be just and put the blame for the woes of this world where they belong, on man not on God.

Most Senseless Official Statement

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

When I read Novato Councilman Angeloni's statement to the Highway Commission members, "May God have mercy on their souls!" I felt like hiding in the nearest closet lest I should hear the wail of other children.

And then I realized it was just the voice of one small man and not the people. And the world looked good again —even Novato — in spite of the year's most senseless official statement.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Shortly before his death, William Faulkner, one of America's greatest authors, told me that Editor Albert Erskine was the finest literary craftsman whom he ever had met. "When he approves a manuscript of mine," said Faulkner, "I know it's ready for the printer."

"Coming from you," I said, "that is a great compliment. Have you told that to Erskine? I know how delighted he would be."

"No, I haven't," admitted Faulkner with a slow smile. "In my book, when a race horse is running good, Bennett, you don't stop to feed him a piece of sugar!"

Two young lovers were quarreling on a bench in the park. "I hate you," said the girl. Please return my lock of hair." "Done and done," snapped the boy. "Do you want the dark lock, or the one you gave men when you were a blonde?"

Another young Romeo telephoned his beloved to say, "I now own a profitable business, a new car, and a bungalow at Fire Island. How's about our getting married immediately?" "I accept," enthused the girl. "By the way, who's calling?"

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By RANDALL GOULD

Perhaps Hardcastle Can Lead Parade Back To Vital Business

A sensational and constructive offer was made to our good gray Marin County supervisors last week.

This sort of thing, or even a kind word, is so rare that I suggest instant action.

Thomas D. Hardcastle was the mild-looking iconoclast who said, after appointment to the board of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District: "I pledge to maintain continuous contact with this board of supervisors."

AS ONE WHO has been maintaining such contact I say that Hardcastle spoke rashly, perhaps just in the first flush of enthusiasm. He bit off a mouthful.

But don't let him get off the hook. Take him up, quick.

Schedule him forthwith for an appearance each and every month if not oftener.

Although not long ago I hollered for a simplified agenda this addition would make sense and add meat to the proceedings.

To be tactful, maybe the agenda should speak of something like "Marin Directors, Golden Gate Bridge." That would include Hardcastle's fellow-director Leland S. Murphy. Like Matt Graham, Murphy heretofore never has seen any special reason for looking in on the Marin supervisors except to say thank-you for reappointment every four years.

IN VIEW OF the fact that Murphy may not be asked again for any such gesture (the way the wind blows currently) whether he might want to come in with Hardcastle for these monthly chats I dunno. After 20 years of work he may be tired.

Hardcastle has the hard lot of his fellow-commuters on his mind. This subject is likely to prove tiresome to all his fellow-directors of the bridge, unless some other directors interested in commuters join the bridge board. Could happen.

But county supervisors are fascinated with problems of voters. They should love to talk about the commuters, important constituents.

Not only is there some rumor of a stacked deck in the matter of the "expert report" against rapid transit over the bridge, there's the obvious fact that bridge directors have shown no tendency to be up-to-date or flexible about that problem. They just swept it under the rug, swish!

Many who have ridden monorails at Seattle or Disneyland have lingering suspicion that while certainly there is no magic in the word "monorail," it might stand for a new approach to the question of light fast transit.

WESTINGHOUSE Electric has just designed a low-cost two-rail system with 20-passenger cars weighing a mere 8,574 pounds each, able to pelt over a bridge at motorcar speed in trains of one to 10 cars with no operating employee.

Closed circuit TV monitors this operation. Gee whiz, the supervisors could rig up a screen and play choo-choo! such really would bear looking into, as Abe Lincoln said of the rat-hole in his office.

This Hardcastle idea is really a dilly worth all sorts of extension. I've said repeatedly that the supervisors as our top-chop county executives ought to work more on policy and less on trivial routine housekeeping; all right, why not regularly schedule many other important matters to come up before them?

AS THINGS GO, it has often been all too easy for our board to drift clear out of touch with such matters as parks and recreation, potential future water supply, various aspects of housing, and a score of other vital affairs. When they come up now and then, everybody has forgotten events and policies and chaos reigns for a while.

Let's cut out some of the nonsense that currently fouls up the joint and sends everybody home late and yawning. It will be invigorating, praiseworthy and a downright good idea if Hardcastle leads a big parade of vital business before the supervisors.

New Respect, Trust In Europe For Kennedy, U.S. Since Cuba

LONDON—There is new respect, trust, and reliance for the United States throughout Western Europe today.

If Western Europe's political leaders and people — except the Communists — were called upon to register a vote today, John F. Kennedy would be the elected head of the free world alliance.

It would be a clear verdict, a decisive vote of confidence in the President of the United States—not just because the U. S. has the power to lead, but because of the wise and effective use of that power.

THIS IS THE visible fruit of the President's confrontation of Khrushchev over Cuba, which most of Europe feared when it began, but which it now welcomes with huge satisfaction and lift.

The effect of this new attitude, evident wherever I have been traveling — in London, Paris, Bonn, Berlin — is to give Kennedy larger latitude for initiative and action—if he wants to use it.

There are two reasons why leadership opinion and public opinion have a new degree, a marked new degree, of trust in the President.

He used American power prudently and called into use no more force than was needed.

It was successful. The Europeans liked it. They respected it. There is now a remarkable increase of confidence in the President.

THIS WASN'T true at the beginning of the Cuban blockade—except in West Germany and in West Berlin where the almost universal reaction was, "At last."

It was particularly not true in Britain where the government was cautious and noncommittal immediately after the President's Oct. 22 speech and where the London press, with the single exception of Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express, was wringing its hands and crying, "Oh, dear, don't do this to us!"

But the change in British press opinion was almost equally total. It is revealing to note how sharp and complete that change was—once it became clear that America's resolute confrontation was causing a Soviet retreat.

BUT THE BRITISH press was out of touch with the British people, or, at least, failed in any way to reflect British public opinion. Well before Khrushchev gave in, that is, within two days after the American action became known, the National Opinion Poll found that 58 per cent of the British people endorsed the American action and 66 per cent wanted their government to support the United States.

Today British official and public opinion are united and the British press has come around.

Today the highest officials of the British government, as on the continent, are high in praise not only of what the U. S. did, but the way they did it.

20 YEARS AGO

Countywide garbage problems were discussed by the county planning commission and three Alto subdivisions were particularly mentioned as lacking proper sewage disposal systems.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Players Are Creatures Of Habit, Expect Losers Ruffed In Dummy

Bridge players are creatures of habit. They expect you to ruff your losers in the dummy.

If you don't ruff, you cannot have any losers.

Opening lead — ♡ Q

West opened the queen of hearts, holding the trick. South ruffed the next heart and looked around for a way to develop 12 tricks.

IF HE RUFFED

If he ruffed his losing diamond in dummy, he would wind up with a losing club in each hand.

There was no chance of deceiving the enemy if he kept the king of hearts in dummy.

The opponent with the ace of hearts would see clearly that he had to hold on to that card for dear life, and he would allow his partner to stop the clubs.

LOWLY DEUCE

The lowly deuce of diamonds was not as good a threat as the king of hearts, but it enjoyed the advantage of being concealed instead of staring the opponents in the face.

After ruffing the second heart South got to dummy with a spade and ruffed the king of hearts.

Then he ran four more rounds of trumps without bothering to ruff a diamond in dummy.

DUMMY LEAD

Actually, dummy had one more trump than declarer after South had ruffed two hearts.

When dummy led the last trump, South could discard a club from his hand.

The defenders assumed that South had no diamonds to ruff in dummy and that it was safe to throw away their diamonds and save their clubs.

This established South's deuce of diamonds as his 12th trick.

WINNING BRIDGE

Give Opponent Enough Rope And He Might Hang Himself

When you can't do anything active to damage an opponent, try giving him a chance to damage himself.

Wonderful things may happen if you let an opponent believe that his plans are working when they really aren't.

Opening lead — ♡ Q

South won the first trick with the ace of hearts, got to dummy with a diamond and returned a trump for a finesse with the jack of spades.

WHAT DAMAGE?

What damage can West do if he wins at once with the queen of spades? If West returns a heart to dummy's king, declarer discards a diamond and leads another trump to force out the ace.

West can then lead another heart to make declarer ruff once. But South still has enough trumps to draw all of West's spades.

South then runs his winning clubs, making the game and rubber.

REFUSES TRICK

Now see what happens if West refuses to win the first trump trick. South assumes that East has the queen of spades and that his finesse has succeeded.

South may fill into the trap by leading another diamond to dummy for another spade finesse.

But when he reaches dummy he must discard a diamond on the king of hearts before leading the second trump.

EXPOSED SELF

Now South has exposed himself to the hearts. West takes the queen of spades and leads a heart to make South ruff. This leaves South and West with two trumps each.

If South leads another trump to force out the ace, West returns another heart to knock out South's last trump. This leaves West with the last trump, and South loses control of the hand.

If South abandons the trumps he fares no better.

West ruffs a high club with his low trump, and the defenders get three trumps and a club.

Said bonds are part of an authorized issue in the aggregate principal amount of $525,000.00, of which $449,000.00, designated Series A have heretofore been issued and $429,000.00 are now outstanding.

The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-eighth or one-twentieth of one percent per annum, payable as aforesaid.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order from lower to higher (without option of prior redemption) as follows:

Principal Amount	1960 Series B Bond Numbers	Maturity Dates (Jan. 15)
$ 5,000.00	1-30	1964-1969

6,000.00	71-76	1974

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States at the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America, National Trust and Savings Association in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, or at the option of the holder at the respective offices of the paying agents of said County in the City of New York, State of New York, or in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said School District. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said District on September 27, 1960 and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said School District, and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said School District, subject to taxation by said School District (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds, and in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington and Sutcliffe of San Francisco, California. A copy of the legal opinion certified by the official in whose office the original is filed will be printed on each bond at the expense of the successful bidder if requested in his bid.

TERMS OF SALE
HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the District would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; provided that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event, the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County, and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of Reed Union School District of Marin County."

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $2,000.00, drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said school district from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the district on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the district. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said district or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Carbon Tetrachloride Can Be Very Dangerous For Kidneys And Liver

VAN DELLEN

Carbon tetrachloride is a widely used cleaning fluid. It is an effective spot remover but no spot is worth the damage the solvent does to the kidneys and liver when used improperly.

Never utilize it in a closed room; the fumes are extremely poisonous when inhaled. Keep the room well ventilated or turn on an exhaust fan to dilute or eliminate the fumes. And never use it after drinking because alcohol enhances the toxic effects.

THESE WARNINGS are timely at this season of the year for two reasons. It is cold outside and we are not inclined to open the windows when dry cleaning clothing or taking out stains. Cocktail parties are common during the winter season and some find on arriving home they spilled something on their suit, dress, or tie. They go after the carbon tet immediately, and the trap is set for real trouble.

A closed room, alcohol in the blood, and the inhalation of carbon tetrachloride fumes is more than the kidneys can take. These organs may go into a state of failure from which recovery is possible, but not without leaving scars.

THE INITIAL symptoms of carbon tetrachloride poisoning are headache, nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, and abdominal paint. It is surprising how quickly distress appears and how little of the solvent need be inhaled to bring on toxicity.

Kidney damage may progress to the point where no urine is produced. The victim is given certain fluids to stimulate the renal organs. Should this fail, the artificial kidney must be attached until the swollen and damaged kidneys recover. Liver damage is more serious but is less likely to occur from inhaling carbon tetrachloride.

CHRONIC POISONING may result from inhaling small daily doses over a long period. The membranes of the eyes and upper respiratory tract often becomes irritated and the victim may suffer from headache, sleepiness, and fatigue; later, abdominal pain is noted, accompanied by waterlogging of the tissues and urinary disturbances.

Modern cleaning establishlishments are aware of this problem and many of the coin operated stores use a nontoxic solvent, perchlorethylene.

Dr. Van Delen will answer questions on medical topics if a stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

POLYPS

M. A. writes: I've heard that intestinal polyps are a forerunner of cancer. Does this apply to nasal polyps also?

REPLY

No. Intestinal polyps are notorious for becoming malignant and should be removed when found. Polyps in the nose and elsewhere rarely become cancerous.

STREP THROAT

Mrs. A. D. writes: How does a strep throat affect the body?

REPLY

The acute inflamamtion in the throat is painful. Many develop fever, headache, and weakness. Complications may develop, varying from pneumonia to rheumatic fever.

NO FOOD LINERS

A. C. writes: Are there any foods that will put a new lining in the stomach?

REPLY

No, because the acid in the stomach would digest it. This happens regardless of the type of tissue consumed, including tripe.

SEE YOUR DOCTOR

M. S. writes: What is the most reliable place to get an annual physical checkup?

REPLY

Your family physician's office.

PSORIASIS NOT A KILLER

J. A. writes: How long will a person with psoriasis live if no attempt is made to treat the skin disease?

REPLY

Psoriasis has no effect on the life span.

Trouble Over New Tariff Powers Seen

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK(AP) — Protectionism is far from dead—on either side of the Atlantic or Pacific.

And Christian A. Herter as the U.S. government's foreign trade czar may have plenty of trouble translating the President's new tariff bargaining powers into the freer trade it envisions.

American manufacturers and unions who see their sales or jobs trimmed or threatened by foreign competition will be heard from, in and out of Congress. And the new law offers various ways of protecting them.

The European Common Market is acclaimed for its striking efforts to lower trade barriers. But its aim is to achieve one big tariff-free club — for members only. It plans to maintain at least some tariff barriers against the rest of the world, including U.S. manufacturers and farmers.

And in recent weeks the spirit of keeping these walls fairly high has been reported to be rising.

Britain has been yearning to join the club. But protectionism is far from dead in the United Kingdom either, and certainly is very much alive in the British Commonwealth.

Political opposition in Britain to joining the Common Market is growing louder, and is becoming bitter in many of the Commonwealth nations.

Damage to British industry, labor, farmers, and to Commonwealth producers is stressed by the protectionists.

On the Continent there is stubborn resistance to letting Britain into the club on terms that French, German or Italian businessmen and farmers fear might favor competitive British products or commodities from the Commonwealth nations.

And hints have been going out that the Common Market, because of its fast growth rate of industrial production and consumer markets, thinks it is in a better bargaining situation than the United States on the question of trade barriers.

Some cocky Europeans are saying that Americans need access to their markets more than they need lower tariffs here.

So Herter, a former secretary of state under President Dwight D. Eisenhower, will need plenty of bargaining savvy in the post to which he was named by President John F. Kennedy.

Those who saw the passage of the Trade Expansion Act as opening a new trading era in jig time are now beginning ot set back their schedules.

Tariff bargaining is always a long and slow process. Too many interests are involved, on both sides of the table, for the negotiators to act fast.

This time the bargaining may be the harder for several reasons. The desire of Europeans and Japanese to protect their growing industries; the costs of production that are rising faster in Europe now than they are here, and therefore make the price protection of tariffs seem more attractive; and the very nature of the new look in world trade—the trend toward trading blocs in various parts of the world, which increase consumer markets at home and build up the volume of goods that can be exported.

English Institute For Secondary Teachers Planned

An institute in English for secondary school teachers is planned next summer at Dominican College, San Rafael, Dr. Sigmund Eisner, director of the program, has announced.

The course will include modern attitudes and practices in applied English linguistics and teaching of high school composition. It will meet five afternoons a week, June 24 through July 12.

The staff includes Sister Mary Thomasine, O.P., of Dominican Upper School; George M. Evica of Mill Valley, coordinator of freshman English at San Francisco State College, and guest lecturers from Bay Area universities and colleges. Registration will be limited to 35 teachers.

Tryouts Slated For 'Finian's Rainbow'

Tryouts for the Pan Players' production of "Finian's Rainbow" will be held Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at Mill Valley's American Legion Hall, director David Kerr said today.

The show is planned to open the first weekend in February. An accompanist will be provided at the tryouts.

The Dutch annexed New Guinea in 1828.

Yule Shoppers Get Some Tips

San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa issued some suggestions for Christmas shoppers today in an attempt to cut down on petty thefts which increase during the holiday season.

Chiesa suggested that packages be locked in the trunks of cars and that the car keys be taken out of the ignition. Trunks, he said, are safer than locked interiors. Purses should be watched carefully by women shoppers.

By overlapping shifts at peak traffic hours, six additional officers will be on hand to handle the increased holiday shopping traffic, Chiesa said.

As early as 1887, apples produced in Washington County, Ark., were winning prizes in world agricultural expositions.

U. N. Parties Gruelling

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—"It's grim enough dealing with Cuba or the Congo all day," said the diplomat, staring glumly at the milling throng of drinkers. "To fight your way through this every night is a bit too much."

With 110 member nations determined to wine and dine each other before the General Assembly session ends soon, average delegate usually winds up his day being jostled about a smoke-filled room.

The envoy first must stand in line up to half an hour to pay his respects to the host ambassador. Then he is free to battle his way through the packed room in search of a cocktail tray.

If the drink gives him courage to try the buffet, the guest attaches himself to another long line inching past the food tables. After receiving a plate of spiced beef or one of the volcanic curries that most U.N. parties feature, he has the final problem of finding a place to sit.

After a three-week round of U.N. receptions and banquets during his 1960 visit to the assembly, Soviet Premier Khrushchev told a newsman: "This life would make a stone sick."

Ten years ago the United Nations had fewer than 60 members. A delegate averaged a couple of small parties a week during the session. Now he often attends two or three affairs in one evening.

By the time the assembly is over he has gone to more than 80 such functions and consumed enough spiced food and strong drink to turn the ordinary stomach to suede.

He faithfully makes the rounds because diplomatic etiquette requires it, and he hopes to pick up useful information chatting with fellow delegates.

The late Dag Hammarskjold avoided social functions, but he once described the U.N. reception as a fruitful field for quiet diplomacy. His successor, U Thant, goes to parties when time permits and engages in informal exchanges he could never fit into his busy work schedule.

With the rapid growth of the United Nations, receptions have become so jammed that it is difficult for a jostled delegate to indulge in any quiet lobbying.

The growth of the world forum has posed an acute problem for the U.N. catering staff which handles parties at the East River headquarters.

"We can't accommodate more than 750 persons in the main dining room at one time," said Frank W. Reickert, who runs the network of bars and restaurants.

"When Algeria gave a party in honor of Premier Ahmed Ben Bella in October, the attendance was so large we had to open the west terrace for the overflow."

Most countries like to entertain during the first six weeks of the session, while their foreign ministers are still in town. Reickert may get six applications for the dining room the same night.

"We just have to take them on a first come, first served basis with no favoritism," he said.

Countries with huge guest lists often solve the problem by holding their functions in New York's big midtown hotels. Oil-rich Saudi Arabia gives a glittering reception each fall at a rooftop room. Some of the wealthier African and Latin-American nations also hold lavish outside affairs.

The big powers usually entertain at their own missions and restrict the guest list to a small group. The United Nations has stepped up its entertainment schedule since it built a new headquarters with a spacious penthouse.

The Soviet Union goes all-out each fall with its October revolution party. The Kremlin keeps a tight grip on the purse strings. After the first half-hour caviar, champagne and vodka are replaced by highballs and sandwiches.

Despite the problem of elbow room, most nations try to hold affairs at the United Nations. It is the most reasonable place they can find.

"We don't attempt to make any profit," said Reickert, "so we can serve a complete hot and cold buffet with drink setups for about $5 a head. At the top hotels they would pay $10 to $12 for the same thing."

Most U.N. members prefer to supply their own liquor, since they can get it free of duty and tax—about one-third retail price—under diplomatic status. The U.N. lets them do this, but most hotels impose a corkage charge which cuts sharply into the saving.

A few Asian and African governments refuse on religious grounds to let delegations serve alcoholic drinks. Most observe the ban only on national holidays.

Algeria served soft drinks at its huge party. When Ben Bella heard how much liquor would cost, he substituted fruit juice, one insider reported.

It happened that the Saudi Arabian party, replete with champagne and cocktails was held the same night. Some thirsty delegates who had heard of Ben Bella's decision headed there first to stoke up on liquid refreshment, then attended the Algerian dinner.

San Rafael Chamber Orchestra Season

Opening concert in the third annual season of the San Rafael Chamber Orchestra, under direction of Hugo Rinaldi, has been set for Dec. 16 at 8:30 p.m. in the San Rafael High School auditorium.

Rinaldi is head of music for San Rafael schools, director of the Symphony Guild of Marin sponsored youth orchestra, and a frequent guest conductor in Bay Area concerts.

With this orchestra of 32 string players and pianist—most of whom are members of the San Francisco Symphony, Oakland Symphony or Marin Symphony—he is able to present varied music written especially for this kind of orchestra but seldom heard because of the difficulty of assembling so many strings.

It is the character of the orchestra which will permit presentation of the West Coast premier of the featured work of the evening, "Concerto for Two String Orchestras, Piano and Timpani" by Martinu.

"It is an extremely difficult composition," Rinaldi said, "which required six months of rehearsal before it could be recorded."

Other numbers on the program will be the "Double Violin Concerto in D Minor" by Bach; "Bachianas Brasileiras No. 5" by Villa Lobos, with Marin's own San Francisco Opera soprano Gwen Curatilo as guest artist, and "A Night Piece" by Arthur Foote.

The San Rafael Chamber Orchestra is sponsored by the San Rafael Recreation Department in association with the musicians union.

Court Action On Water Is Watched

Marin County is taking no part in Supreme Court action by 21 Northern California counties and others against the California Water Plan, but both of Marin's major water districts are watching developments in the plan as it affects this county, according to Jerome B. Gilbert, manager of the North Marin Water District.

Gilbert said today that his district and the Marin Municipal Water District refrained from filing briefs as friends of the court, as did others, although about a year ago they were authorized by county supervisors to represent Marin County in any such action.

Their reason for staying out, he said, was that current proceedings are primarily an effort to gain more rights for specific areas.

The Marin County interest in plan, said Gilbert, lies primarily with future water supply. If a North Bay Aqueduct is constructed as a branch of a 1.75 billion dollar program, this would provide for one of two major potentials for future Marin water, he said, but there is also a possibility of reveloping more water with the Russian River as a main source.

"At present, preliminary indications lead us to lean toward the Russian River as the better possibility," said Gilbert.

He said Sonoma County also is steering clear of the current action. Additional to the 21 northern counties, the California Grange, San Joaquin County and the Kern County Water Agency are involved in the suit. They claim farmers would be the first to lose water in case of shortage.

Library Given Books

Mildred Mateer, head librarian at Redwood High School, announced that Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wurtz, 35 Wolfe Grade, Kentfield, recently donated 15 volumes to the school library.

Marin County Courthouse Approved As Fallout Shelter For Public

Marin County's courthouse "qualifies as a public fallout shelter that may be used in the event of nuclear attack," county supervisors were told yesterday by San Rafael City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen in his capacity as "shelter representative, City of San Rafael."

He therefore sought and received permission for its use as a shelter which, he said, would accommodate more than 200 persons.

Andersen also wanted storage space of 240 cubic feet set aside for storage of 40 water drums, 40 water bags, 29 food cases, 10 sanitation kits and some other kits.

The board was puzzled to receive a letter of appreciation for service of Building Inspector Otto H. Meyer to serve on a technical advisory group of building officials on establishing minimum requirements for fallout and blast shelters for the Assn. of Bay Area Governments.

Unable to recall ever authorizing such service by Meyer, the board sought information from Public Works Director Donald R. Frost.

Directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District asked that their firehouse be given "a three-way air raid and fire siren," having learned that the present siren is "the same as the red alert siren" and wishing to avoid confusion.

Chairman Walter R. Castro said a meeting with communications director Mansfield Lewis should straighten out just where the county stands on this because the state no longer gives matching funds, many present sirens are out of line and "this could set a precedent."

"If the siren is strictly for fire, they should pay for it," declared Supervisor William D. Fusselman.
